"... The Cassiopeans teaching is carrier of a great hope. Once we are through the first feeling of dismay to assimilate the "horrors" shelled in the transmissions, we become aware that the truth, as despicable as it is, is preferable to the lies and ignorance and contains a liberating power.

To understand finally why no solution did really allow to improve the lot of humanity through centuries and millenniums, neither the writing nor the religions, nor the technical progress, nor the social and political organization of the peoples, reassures us on Man himself. No, he is not bad of nature, no, he does not destroy all that he touches in the name of some intrinsic curse. The world is in a catastrophic state because humanity pursues its quest of happiness on lies, because it is ceaselessly manipulated, because its head is maintained in the bag and because, yes, humanity remains passive and plays the game of its executioners...

Nothing could be more true!

From now on in the "Dialogues with our Angel" and in the continuation of the revelations of the Cassiopeans, we shall discuss from time to time the advances in epigenetic and the progress in quantum physics. These two domains of research being intimately bound together.

Because it is finally by consequent epigenetic changes, that a part of humanity will be brought to go out of the illusion to recognize the real world which surrounds it.

These two domains of scientific research dedicated to the development of humanity, even if they are already much more advanced than what is presented to us, will be brought in a few years to come to establish the bridge between the current humanity, its past and especially its various future potentials. It seems now very explicit that new possibilities of future already build themselves in our present through the expression of our genome and answer, among other factors, to our emotional, our environment, but also our diet.

Thus, we shall keep establishing links between the ketogenic diet resulting from the Paleolithic-carnivorous diet, its profit on health, biology, its extraordinary implications on epigenetic and obviously, the process of expansion of consciousness which will lead a part of humanity to pass in transit towards other worlds. This transition process will complete its Ascension towards superior plans of consciousness of 4th dimension STO.

In some degree for some, these expansions of consciousness already succeed in showing a neo-reality which shyly begins to get loose from the entropic future of humanity.

We observed it now in ourselves, the ketogenic diet influences the process of expansion of consciousness and the intensely more and more direct and aware reliance with our Higher Self. Exactly because the ketogenic process participates in the restoration of the cognitive functions by increasing the synaptic connections of the nervous system and of the white matter of the brain.

*"The white matter consists of nerve fibers, of myelinated and non-myelinated axons grouped in beams, which connect between them various areas of the grey matter, where the cellular bodies of neurons are situated. " These fibers pass on the nervous impulses constituted of potential of action.

https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Substance_blanche

\(English\)

Thus, we are able of confirming that the ketonic process is involved in the treatment of diseases of the nervous system and that it is even extremely effective in its process of regeneration.

<https://fr.sott.net/article/28146-Endommageons-notre-cerveau-avec-le-fructose¹>

But unlike a simple long fast which helps more specifically the regeneration of the brain and the digestive system, a daily meat-based food coupled with an intermittent fast possesses the peculiarity to mime the long fast, because the chronic ketosis installed by this food diet quickly becomes more effective while accelerating the total regeneration of the body. Besides, this diet encourages and increases the telomerase (see dialogue N° 39), to pivot the cellular regeneration.

Obviously, as we have already specified it, those who did not experiment the process of ketosis, coupled with adequate supplementation in iodine, cannot imagine its benefactions, nor even its impact on the increase of the faculties of cognition, intuition and sensory or hyper dimensional perceptions...

And it is this truth that Big-pharma and the official science, under the pay of the predation 4D, wants to avoid being broadcasted at all costs.

(... The cognition: Scientific term which serves to indicate the set of mental processes which relates to the function of knowledge such as the memory, the language, the reasoning, the learning, the intelligence, the resolution of problems, the decision-making, the perception or the attention. The cognitive processes distinguish themselves from mental processes which relates to the emotional function, which is traditionally the specialty of the various forms of dynamic psychology (or psychodynamic approaches), among which the methods and the applications are mainly clinical, such as the psychoanalysis or the clinical psychology...)

As we write, we have crossed new steps in the process which we relate to the "reversal" of Castaneda, when he falls from behind down from his cliff. Of course, at a first level of understanding, that of the human logic, this holds only as a metaphor. But received from a perspective of higher consciousness, it is a reality, thanks to the sensitive human faculty to master the magnetic field surrounding our body.

Some time ago in our dialogues, we had already spoken of this mechanism of reversal which gives dizziness. However, at that time, the explanations which we supplied were only a first approach. We know now a little bit more because we were inspired again by our Supraconsciousness: The Angel, who communicated us new information on this matter.

Here are the new revelations communicated by our Angel:

This reversal answers your new lifestyle which express itself by a kind of inversion of your daily behavior, a drastic change in your rhythm of life, relational habits and a total reversal of food practices.

Guided by the Higher Self, you began a kind of backward walking in the unconscious objective to reveal a possibility of branching towards a new potential of future, a new universe, which this time will remain to be invented.

Cassiopeans formulated it in these terms:

"... "If you want to return to change "History", either regarding people, or with what is universally perceived, you have to create at first an alternative universe to this end." Your STS "friends" of the fourth density did it plenty of times ... "

(Let's specify that "our STS friends" are the Greys and sometimes certain reptilians returning from their future, to extricate themselves from the entropic cycle in which they remained captive".)

A part of your future humanity will remain confined in this non- evolutionary cycle, suspended in the "non-time", because its consciousness of group, completely subjected to its material technology, its science and its well anchored certainties, will have remained "locked into its habits and its beliefs. Too confidant in their certainties, their scientific proofs, they thus will never have known how to accept to doubt, how to accept to ignore or not understanding everything and will not have had the presence of mind to go look for answers somewhere else than in their intellectual, scientific and technological knowledge. Thus, they will never have dared to open to the intuition, to the unknown, to the mysteries, to the symbols... to go explore them, because they will have been terribly afraid of discovering the reality!

Certainly, in what represents this entropic "future", science will manage to push back the limits of human life "artificially" thanks to its progress. But ultra-sophisticated material and artificial technology (bequeathed by the Greys/reptilians of the predatory corpus), will finally completely amputate humans of the knowledge, of the control on the matter, of the journey in space-time and the magnetic laws relating to it. Deprived of the emotional, the intuition and the thirst of Knowledge, humankind will be completely cut of the natural cellular process of regeneration, which would have been able to authorize them to live much longer and in perfect health. While the real human being is endowed with an etherical structure, a kind of energetical geometry which confers him recognizable and unique characteristics in all the Universe, which is not other than his electromagnetic field.

This vibratory structure represents his real identity. It is the Tree of Life which the IS-BE referred in "Interview with the alien of Matilda O'Donnell Mac Elroy" and is also the one whom Mauro Biglino speaks in his work: The Bible is not a sacred book.

<http://www.macroeditions.com/produits/la-bible-n-est-pas-un-livre-sacre-biglino-mauro>²

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QWLuDzeyXpk&feature=youtubebehttps://www.google.fr>³

In the end, this part of humanity (which represents more than three quarters of the population) will have remained stiffened in its beliefs, far too confident in its stiff dogmas, its limited intelligence (not to say ignorance) and in its outmoded materialistic technology.

The Greys, their descendants, or rather some of them, thus are the last extranean human survivors of an entropic future already realized, resulting from the transhumanist culture which, in a rather close future, will have totally enslaved and replaced human consciousness.

However, a portion of the remaining population will have succeeded in exceeding its condition of human slave, because it will have understood how to repair its genetics. This group will have managed to reset the epigenetic changes undertaken in the Neolithic era by the corpus of 4th dimension STS and their "divine poison": Sugar. These transfers had been led in the human genome from the moment when, because of the technologies of the agriculture offered by the geneticist STS, humankind had begun to feed on cereal and vegetables, and accordingly, had become used to ingest abnormal quantities of glucose.

- "These harmful mutations for the human body are essentially due to our food, especially since the advent of agriculture and later of the industrial revolution." The contemporary human being is not genetically adapted to his current food mode anymore. "Thus, the Paleolithic or pre-agricultural diet can be considered a model for the modern nutrition." -

<http://www.lanutrition.fr/bien-dans-son-Poids/Les-regimes-a-La-Loupe/Le-regime-paleolithique.html>

These carbohydrates, fructose, sucrose and others "oses" present in large quantities in your food, will have been destroyed in the long run the natural and innate cellular capacities of auto-regeneration of the human body and its extraordinary faculties, which are for example the travel in space-time by simple projection of its etherical bodies by the consciousness.

Thus, it is not at all out of sectarianism, dogmatism, extremism, fanaticism or by proselytism that some among the LEO chose the ketogenic way, intermittent fasting and iodine.

They simply devoted themselves to experiment a way which few people borrowed until now, and this only to begin to dismantle the reptilian commensal genome inserted into their genetics and to allow those who wish it to do the same with a bigger safety margin.

As Cassiopeans announced it: "it is necessary for you to change your assumptions to be able to make a positive experience of the Wave" (implied the Wave of change).

And it is what you undertook, by daring to defy the: "It is dangerous for health, it is not normal, eating without carbohydrates is suicide..."!

Those who close their spirit to these things appearing insane or abnormal to them, will not succeed in creating their own "neo-reality". Because to open oneself to completely new possibilities, consists exactly in exploring this unknown. Because while exploring this unknown, by surpassing the fear, you disrupt the inertia of the magnetic field emitted by the psyche and which created your reality. And "to disrupt" this psychic magnetic field is the only way to generate openings between dimensions to offer you to create alternative realities/universes.

Finally, it is a question such as Castaneda did, to open to the unknown - to throw oneself upside down from the cliff - to claim to open the consciousness and to use it in a much more evolved way to perceive all the events which govern your everyday life and your environment in general.

(We found a text of Diane Leblanc which translates rather explicitly, how, by surpassing the fear of exploring the unknown, we can engender a new reality. However, what she describes is only a step in the process of the changes of consciousness and is still characteristic of the way of thinking of our human world of 3rd dimension STS. Which just goes to show that some New Age teachers STS, when we know how to recognize their role, can also deliver relevant and strong indications for our evolution of consciousness in STO.).

<http://www.reseauleo.com/2016/07/26/le-besoin-de-Gagner-SA-vie/>

And it is by succeeding in exceeding this programming of fear, control, comfort, denial, "of the: It's not normal", inferred by the reptilian predators, that some among you were able to experiment and to share the secret of the process of regeneration.

This is at the same time a simple but new process, which repairs the genome destroyed or restrained by the trans-dimensional programming of your genetics. It ensues from the synergy of three essential factors which conjugate themselves as follows:

- A profound "work" of transformation on your spiritual body (your Supraconscious Being), through the emotional liberation and the karmic resolutions.
- An intense "work" of transformation of etherical bodies by the regular and gradual absorption of iodine, a dense halogen which at first immunizes the body of the viral effects due to the cometary impacts, and then in the etherical strengthens and stabilizes the new frequencies of resonance of a reconstituted DNA. This new frequency of resonance authorizes gradually its stabilization in a neo-dimension (a future under construction).
- And an important transformation of the physical body and its anthropological programs, supported by a definitive ketosis (weaning of carbohydrates).

These three elements have the faculty to "boost" the epigenetic process. You had another confirmation in the volume 3 (Extract of The Wave, Laura Knight " (...) If we wish to acquire more knowledge, it is necessary to strengthen and fortify organs and largely secret springs of the physical life.

It is thus only by giving the three bodies (spiritual, etherical and physical) the information of the original genome by means of the ketogenic diet which suppress the rate of carbohydrates and repair the original functions of the body that the regenerative process can begin.

And it is only by the opposing effects of iodine on viral implants, plasmids, retrovirus, and other genetic vectors used by the programmer STS, that some individuals managed to naturally replace the version of the genetically modified genome implanted in the human DNA by Annunaki reptilians.

Nevertheless, to finalize the transition process of your physical bodies towards superior dimensions of consciousness and to reach a regeneration process of larger-scale (for example that of a human population), it was a question of finding the way to replace the sequence of genome falsified by the predatory geneticists, by its natural and original coding which is for the "real human being", that of the Christlike genome: "Kiristos". This latter, bequeathed by some of the Planners of Life, has for faculty to definitively stop the reptilian genetics which is already losing some of its influence at this end of cycle.

Understand thus, please, that the human genome possesses several variants according to the individuals. It is composed according to the galactic origin of the Spirit which lives in the body and is basically a mix of reptilian genetics which, for some individuals, has a limited influence thanks on the Abgal, Nungal, Sukkal, Urmah-Leonin genes, Christlike genes which prevail in their DNA.

As for the human being, this operation which consists in waking up his STO genetics can be realized by a process of resonance which changes his quantum field. In other words, by the induction of a "repairing field of torsion" in the etherical field of the DNA. This quantum cure is much easier to realize after a prolonged ketosis, because it is effective and complete only after a total deprogramming of the addiction to sugar resulting in a better resumption of the telomerase.

And it is thanks to the halogenic properties of iodine, applied in the field of resonance of the DNA during replication of the telomeric extremities, that quickly occur tangible results.

The energy which generates this field of torsion results essentially from the psyche. It comes from the synergy of your consciousness – Supraconsciousness STS - STO harmonized by your internal work.

To draw a parallel, it is only by "breaking the neck" to all your habits, to your need to control, to your comfort, to your safety, to your diet practices and to your relational habits that you can engender new realities in your bubble of perception.

The consciousness create gravitation (the reality), which allows to modify the consciousness! Once again, this quantum law reveals here all its truthfulness!

http://www.neotrouve.com/?p=2725⁴

<http://rustyjames.canalblog.com/archives/2014/05/30/29978424.html>

To clarify, a field of torsion is an energetic, electromagnetic, acoustic or optical process which allows the modification of the perceived reality.

These processes of "genetic cure" or quantum programming-reprogramming, are already experimented and realized, for example, by making a "terminator seed" GMO germinate and by applying a field of torsion to the etherical field of this seed.

4 <http://blog.world-mysteries.com/science/torsion-the-key-to-theory-of-everything/>

(Terminator seeds: Are technologies used to restrict the re - use of genetically modified plants by making second-generation seeds sterile.)

https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Terminator_\(gène\))⁵

Moreover, a similar technology was experimented with fetuses of frogs and salamanders, by using by way of field of torsion, a hologram projected by laser beam, which had for effect to switch the genome of the salamander into that of a frog. But in this case, it was about an artificial optical process, while in certain circumstances, this field of torsion can be generated in a spontaneous and natural way by the power and the energy of the creative Supraconsciousness.

This "strength" recalls somewhat the idea of the "Power of the thought" described by some New Age gurus. But this 'power' does not belong to your world of 3rd dimension because it does not use the "intellectual power" coming from STS worlds (the reptilian brain generative of the wants, the desire, the greed, the covetousness, the cupidity). This "Power of the thought" serves simply as half-truth to the New Age gurus to manipulate the consciousness of the human being, so that he is diverted in the service of his little egotistical STS "self".

The real capacity generating the change is a vibratory frequency which emanates from the Higher Self STO.

It means that those who do not reach in 5th dimension of consciousness cannot become really creators of STO worlds. They will remain only plagiarists of already existing worlds, thus of an already realized future. Accept also that for the moment you cannot understand yet, because you refer automatically to something you already know, your world of 3rd dimension. You can only imagine what you already know. To understand, you will have to deprive yourselves of all your limiting beliefs, all your programs which connect you with this 3rd dimension to reach in the 5th dimension of consciousness where you will be capable of imagining your reality which then will take form. You thus must continue to walk without knowing where will lead your steps.

Let us start again! In nature, this field of torsion is also inferred by the sun rays and is generated by the frequency of resonance of the "natural" plant-mother, in other words the memory of the original DNA of the same seed or plant (non - GMO) which will force the "GMO plants terminator" to gradually recover their primitive genetics or will eliminate them definitively.

(It is among others for this reason that Monsanto forbade farmers the re-sow of GMO seeds, because after several generations, plants which remained viable would have returned to their original genetics. Nature always takes back its rights.)

We can even accelerate this process of repair-regeneration by spraying them very gradually and carefully with an aqueous solution of iodine. (In the same way as you increased gradually the taking of the iodine).

Knowing that certain halogen gases like the iodized emanations can generate such fields of torsion in the ether, it becomes clear that the treatment with iodine and the prolonged ketosis can knock down the programming inferred by the geneticist STS of 4th dimension.

(Small reminder for the Kabbalists, in phonetic language the word "iod" sounds the same as "Yod" which mean "the hand of God". Wouldn't iodine be the hand of God that heal?)

⁵ https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Genetic_use_restriction_technology

In the same manner, our planet can be "rebooted" or "updated", if by the correct synchronicity, the natural DNA of a place can be re-encoded with adequate signals.

These energetic signals are transported by the Wave (this famous Wave change dear to the Cassiopeans), which becomes the vector of the informative forms intended for the re-encoding or the regeneration "of an environment of life."

We can thus conceive the principle of the genetic repair, then of the transition towards superior dimensions in a similar way, by managing to repair a part of the present genetics on the Earth's surface by means of a field of torsion generated simultaneously by the energy of its core and by the energy of the sun rays.

Couldn't the geological changes and the big heat waves be the confirmation of the efficiency of such fields of torsion?

By echo with morphogenetic fields of some human beings who managed to regenerate their primal genetics of before the arrival of the reptilian predators, this field of torsion gradually erases programs-memories altered by GMOs contained in the peripheral magnetic field of the Earth, to reconstitute its essential genetics (just like the DNA of the cell which, by the influence of a field of torsion, recovers its original telomeric functions).

It is then easily understandable that for example the result of the application of this field of torsion on the terrestrial ecosystem, influences its etheric field, modifying or cancelling any "terminator" terrestrial genetics. Remember yourselves that the etheric field of the Earth could be described as a kind of wave of energy of matter - antimatter in constant vibration. This vibratory movement is a perpetual alternation of past-future (the antimatter) and becomes the present moment: The matter (subject), when it is perceived by the consciousness.

This quantum mechanism (a field of torsion led by an egregor of consciousness "STO") will engage then by resonance the same type of process and will authorize the opening of a dimensional windows in which all the genetic abnormalities (those of the genetically modified organisms) would be already repaired. (What would engender the possibility of a new future).

Thus, when the genetics of certain bodies begins to regenerate, as for example that of some human beings, the essential genome coming from the Paleolithic and pre-Paleolithic era wakes up in its genetics and repairs itself spontaneously in each of them, thanks to the influence of these fields of torsion. Then through morphogenetic fields and of these famous fields of torsion, this "genetic repair" would influence the morphogenetic fields in the DNA of every living being, by repairing little by little the damaged coded parts.

And it is this re-encoding of the essential genome that, at some point will cause the opening of a dimensional door which, this time, will open towards a non-realized future. The latter will express itself outside of the matrix of the next cycle prepared for the human cattle by the predators of 4th dimension STS.

This cross-dimensional opening, thanks to this egregor of consciousness "in vocation STO ", will cause the famous Ascension of a part of the terrestrial Life towards superior dimensions of Consciousness and existence: The 4th dimension of density in the "Service to Others - STO". In the same way as during the fall of the previous humanity.

The 4th dimension STO establishes thus an alternative to the 3rd density, a parallel universe to the 3rd dimension as you know it for now, but re - encoded by STO Consciousnesses and who, during the period of the transition, will form a parallel reality on your planet which will be imperceptible by the common people.

This neo-reality will get loose little by little from the STS corpus, which will remain stuck in 4th dimension STS.

By rebalancing the damages caused by the STS corpus and by eliminating the limiting and destructive codes / programs of the human genetics, that Nature, by resonance with the genome of the future human being STO, will resume its rights and will heal the wounds inflicted on its genetics in 3rd density.

In this domain, the predators of 4th dimension know that if they lose the hand on the genetics of Man, they also lose control of his thoughts and therefore, the control of a large part of their human livestock.

For some time already, we realized that this wind of change, this dimensional reversal had already begun for some of us. It becomes from now on more and more concrete and tangible. Already many succeeded in modifying their daily routine, while for most of the individuals nothing changes, on the contrary, society and the world of nightmare of the 3rd dimension goes from bad to worse.

As Yeshua said it in his time, it is more and more clear that we too are in this World, but not from this World. This quotation which exceeds the presently known laws of quantum physics holds a power of truth, which few individuals can imagine. We shall approach the reasons in the next dialogues which will mark the beginnings of a big collective change which we just begin to perceive.

Forced to adapt to this world of illusion since our earliest childhood, we now get loose from it very quickly, in the sense where we get loose more and more from its ephemeral values.

Both of us are freed from the work environment, from bonds towards the employment system (or patriarchal), in other words from slavery! Emancipated from family bonds, released from the guilt and from the attachment relating to it, we got loose from our "poisonous" relations from some of our relatives, grandparents, children, brothers, sisters, companions / partners, friends / acquaintances...Which means, after a real "relational adjustment", they have either disappeared from our everyday life, or became real teammates of evolution towards this new future.

Even by putting all our willingness to blend in our current human society, we can only see the deficiency in spontaneous interpersonal skills and the poverty of spirit which reigns there. Nowadays, exhaustion and stupidity consume the major part of human society. There is a blatant lack of exchanges, of sharing, of constructive and disinterested communication, strengthened by an immense intellectual and psychic gap, overflowing with arrogance, smugness and ignorance, which are characteristic of the effects of control of the 4th dimension STS.

At another level, we can only note this kind negligence between nations, governments and their peoples, between the Eastern countries and the Western nations, which will more and more probably end up in a nuclear apocalypse. (Such as it was the case in Amen-ta and Amen-ti, the two disappeared civilizations of Atlantis). We shall develop this subject later.

In our eyes, the social Universe is standardized and normalized by unnecessary and empty interpersonal skills, densified in the extreme in 3rd dimension. It moves towards toward an abyss from where there is no escape, and into which inexorably sink most of human beings. The world thus is nothing but a field of experience, a vast multidimensional playground of duality, of which the biggest part of the current humanity will go out losing.

In what concerns us, nothing binds us in this world anymore, no conditioning dogma or any philosophy, because now, we feel ourselves the truth which propose us our neo-reality.

In the end, at any scale of the human society, all these people of allegedly more or less good intentions and who do not dare to face the unknown who would allow them to create a new future, only consolidate the illusion of their 3rd dimension of reality. Don't we say that Hell is paved with good intentions?

Good thing that some others noticed that "the world has become crazy" and question themselves about the future of our planet.

We meet more and more individuals aware of the gravity of the global situation, carrying out a progress identical to ours and who indefatigably collaborate to open other possibilities of future to humanity.

This "emergent reality" had at first led us to change our diet and to feel the effects of the prolonged ketosis. This very rough experience which stays completely against any medical dietary recommendation, was one of our biggest challenge.

It is thus a question of understanding well that we gave ourselves the ways to receive and to integrate the "Knowledge" which had been proposed us. And it was never easy. But we knew that by operating our choices, we are going to become the pioneers of a transcendental experience (and cross-dimensional) by resonance, will produce such a field of torsion and will affect other human beings (reference to the experience of the hundredth monkey).

https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Le_centi%C3%A8me_singe⁶

Other individuals would then be propelled to modify their behavior, their diet, their beliefs, for them too to build little by little their new bubble of reality, which should gradually result in a much more widened consciousness and a new prospect of terrestrial life.

And it exactly by sharing our experiences that we shall learn to merge our individual realities so that these can slide from our known Universe to another still unknown, building little by little a new reality...: Our new reality!

This collective creation "this emergent neo-reality" will be gradually superimposed/mixed with the reality which still exists in 3rd dimension for the moment.

It will form an alternative world of consciousness, which at the same time holds the old and the new and will bring at a given time, to the realities of the various people sharing their experiences merge to establish a kind of egregore of alternative consciousness which, due to its synergy, will begin to model a transitory mutual Universe. In the end, the latter will define the reality of all those who led the same experience.

Then the new potential of future that will open, you will have already understood it, will be a world of progress in STO in a 3rd dimension of density, which finally "will migrate" in 4th dimension as soon as it will get loose from the old world.

6 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hundredth_monkey_effect

This experiment of cross-dimensional and "subconscious" creation by the human being, hadn't been realized since the time of Namlú'u (circa. 500 million of years ago), except maybe by the aboriginal peoples and some isolated ethnic groups worldwide who were still intimately "connected" to their Higher Self.

These Namlú'u' were the humanoids who had preceded the Neanderthal and the homo-sapiens and lived on Earth well before the arrival of Annunakis on our planet. The arrival of these Souls Namlú'u' u on Earth, could well corresponds to the time which Valerie J. Barrow speaks about in her work "The Mission of Rexégéna". It is worth noting that she too mentions the role of the LION people, LEOs of LEONIS, which at the time of a big transition of a density of existence to another one, had intervened in the terrestrial stakes in a similar way as today.

<Http://pointdereference.free.fr/m/www.erenouvelle.com/EDITREXE.HTM>

Credo Mutwa also speaks about it in Linda Tucker's book: The white lions announce a new ice age.

<http://www.reseauleo.com/2016/02/14/linda-tucker-les-lions-blancs-annoncent-une-nouvelle-ère-glaciaire/>⁷

As well as the following article: "the information of the Zulu shaman Credo Mutwa on the origins and the future of humanity"

<http://www.reseauleo.com/2016/02/15/les-informations-du-chaman-zoulou-credo-mutwa-sur-les-origines-etc-le-futur-de-l-humanite/>

It is thus this new potential of future that awaits some human beings who, under the shape of Positive greys, redeemed Reptilians, Siriusians, Venusians, Cassiopeans, Urmah, Pleadiens and other peoples transcended in 5th dimension STO, warn us by coming back from their cycle of already realized future, of the danger which is lurking for the current humanity, which is to believe that the chaos in the world will soon come to an end.

A small overview of the outcome "without exit" of this cross-dimensional STS manipulation which deceived our British neighbors with "The Brexit" (contraction of "Britain" and "Exit"). By referendum, they finally ended their 43 years of membership in the European Union. Italy will probably do the same... Were they wrong, or right? No matter anyway, both options resulted in the same transdimensional trap! By telling yes to "Brexit", the British people fell all the same in the incredible trap planned by the New World Order. They remained lashed in the illusion of this entropic reality.

It is thus a question of understanding once and for all that the NWO is managed not by human beings, but governed by entities of 4th dimension STS, who are extremely intelligent predators, but who are divested of feelings. These entities are not capable of engendering the Creation of a Universe and are obliged to become the parasites of ours to survive.

Despite their humanoid shape, these entities have absolutely nothing human, but by penetrating and by living as a parasite in the human intellect, they remain predatory and manipulating creatures. They will maintain their perverse game as long as they are not recognized in their legitimacy to participate in the balance in the Universe.

So, since its genesis, the entities of 4th dimension STS play masterfully with the ignorance and the confusion of the people, to whom by various systems of human mental manipulation, cognitive disorders were cunningly introduced into the human psyche. These disorders are always detectable in our contemporary period especially at this end of cycle.

Coupled with the disinformation, they are effectively activated by the cross-dimensional and human predation through the religions, phenomena of society, of politics to generate a reaction. They are even conceived and systematized by societies, agencies of the occult secret government and are effectively maintained and strengthened by branches of disinformation to their service such as Cointelpro (Counter Intelligence Program), the New Age and others scheduled MK Ultra Mind control, managed by the CIA, like the Monarch, Green Baum and other programs of this kind...

<http://www.elishean.fr/le-Palmares-des-cassiopeens-N5-Le-Dr-Greenbaum-et-les-candidats-mandchous/⁹>

But in the ultimate truth, these disorders begin simply with our own perception which is only distorting the reality... (We shall return to it in the dialogues to come).

Very ingenious, these manipulations of the human consciousness still have beautiful days in front of them and are far from being over. It is enough to observe the deafening effects on our current human society by the unreasonable use of tablets, iPhone, Smartphone, Pokémon Go and company. The chaos organized by the migration of the refugees, the movement "Nuit debout¹⁰", the desperate social situation in Europe and in the world, the risks of war between the USA and Russia and which divide Europe are other examples. They are very accurately planned to maintain fear and stupidity within humanity and keep it in its certainties.

This chaos is neither random, nor a fatality. It is only the result of the stupidity and the human ignorance, that of everyone who consolidate his wellbeing and its illusions. The STS entities of 4th dimension have for objective to bring Man to total servility then to civil war. Reducing the world population, which "zombified" by its unconsciousness and risking becoming uncontrollable, becomes from now on their priority.

For the record, let us remember ourselves the commands engraved in the Georgia Guide stones:

Https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Georgia_Guidestones¹¹

However, because of the increase in importance of this organized chaos, they will also provoke the awakening of the small part of humanity who really learnt to think by using the mirror effect of its bubble of perception, so that they can migrate in a new density of existence.

This portion of humanity will detach itself from this entropic world and will develop itself out of reach of worlds of density in the "Service to Self - STS" limited in 4th dimension of density, which will create a new balance in the Universe.

And it is in this connection, when we accept and understand the legitimacy of the predatory peoples in the worlds of duality and by recognizing their roles, then they can become our allies.

Instead of fighting, waring, denouncing, complaining, rebelling, demonstrating, which constitutes purely a retort of the reptilian brain expressing a reaction of anger and self-denial, wouldn't it be more sensitive for the human beings to learn "to return inside", in their emotional intimacy, to go meet their Angel, their true Self? To reach by means of the "magic properties" updated by the epigenetic participating repair to our genome to learn to shield us from this world in perdition, would not it be the only way of creating us a better future? It is what we learnt through our experiments and it is the way which we have chosen.

This entropic world of turmoil, chaos, sadness, horror, inhumanity, will soon remain relegated definitively to the low frequencies of the astral of the 4th dimension STS, so that the reality of some human beings can change plan to migrate finally to the 4th density (or 5th dimension of consciousness STO)!

Most human beings haven't understood yet that for the World to change, it is essential for them to change the perception that they have of it. It is imperative that they stop wanting to change "the illusion of the perversity" that they observe in their own world, to want to fight, to rebel or to punish the executioners. The world such as it is only experiences to learn to detect what puts us in reaction.

They are invited to visit them emotional, "to return inside them" in the depths of their genome so that in the memoirs of the Soul, they can succeed in repairing the programs / implants creating their illusion-reality, which by being printed in their bubble of perception engenders a falsified view of their own universe.

Because by hesitating all the time, by waiting and putting things back to the next day, it will soon be too late! The universal cycles are still very real, moving in the space-time and will cause the Wave. They are the electromagnetic energy, the 'movement', generating this wave of change which soon will have caught up, exceeded, then made obsolete the incredible capacities of expansion of the human consciousness of 3rd dimension.

This change inside our DNA can be made only through the magic of the epigenetics and the resources of a Spirit / consciousness freed from the illusion, that is to say, really awakened. For metaphorizing, it is not a question of trying to change the film frames which thus scroll on the screen, but to remove the movie of the projector. Because if the human beings persist in their limitations, it will be impossible that their world changes. In other words, what we perceive or see around us, will stay a "visible unchanging reality" which obviously cannot be modified by operating only on the illusion.

And while working on our consciousness of things, our way of perceiving the reality which surrounds us, our diet, while respecting the laws of the universe, that our genome can begin its mutation which by magnetic resonance, is going to attract in our bubble of perception other circumstances, new events, new realities. It is only at this time that we shall cross the first stage of change which for some already, begins to be outlined in their bubble of 3rd dimension of existence.

Nevertheless, at this new stage of our personal evolution, the outside world has not yet changed. But some predictions, some announced events, sometimes do not arise anymore such have we waited it for them to happen or are moved in the space-time.

Https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vcE2YCd6wfo

To change the outside world, it is a question at first (as explained it the Cassiopeans), to learn to modify "together and simultaneously" our bubbles of perception, so that once transformed, they create a kind of egregore of innovative perceptions which by adding up, show little by little another world for some human beings.

It is not a question of remaining sleepy, because the LEOs - as Cassiopeans and ourselves - work indefatigably so that humanity or at least a part of it, can find an escape towards and beyond the 4th dimension STO.

To reach this exit and to be able to cross it, we absolutely don't need to fight against our executioners anymore, nor to denounce or punish our persecutors. Because it opens only to those who by dedicating themselves to the quest of the Grail, look to acquire Knowledge. And it is because it is the only key capable of opening this dimensional whirlpool, because this real Knowledge was always hidden from the human consciousness.

This big reversal will never come true thus when we turn to the outside world but takes place in the intimacy of our cells when we shall have released ourselves from all our implants-memories-programs of the predator which manifest and bind us to the Matrix of 3rd dimension STS.

It is only to slow down and control this big reversal in our spirit and at the same time to cause it in to most "deserving and brave" of us, that the masters of the entropy conjugate their talent to stir up STS ill-feeling, sadness and chaos on Earth. It is thus a question of understanding once and for all what takes place at superior levels of consciousness! Is it not said that Knowledge protects exactly because it allows to stop reproducing the "errors" of the past?

And it is thus to avoid the intervention in the human business and to motivate people to look for the real Knowledge which could help them, that LEO – as Cassiopeans - never deliver free information, ready to be "gobbled up" and is never transmitted by direct "channeling".

We understood that we inevitably experience the teachings of LEOs by ourselves, sometimes proceed to intense and endless researches to find answers or confirmations to our feelings and go always farther and deeper in our experiences and explanations on their subject.

We still repeat it! The real researcher of truth is always going to verify by himself if a knowledge possesses any value (we call this approach the epistemological approach). We thus deeply encourage the readers of the LEO Network not to trust what we present on the site, but to estimate, to feel, to experiment our information by their own experiences.

It is in this way through this "Leonine" Knowledge and somewhat rough and testing pedagogy, that from now on will come the true continuation of the first human adventure of those who feel called by the Service to Others.

These "configurations of LEO consciousnesses in the Service to Others" resulting from transdimensionnal plans and from the center of thought Leonin, themselves now gradually open in some human consciousnesses who prepared themselves to integrate them. These men and women finally understood that they were at disadvantage against the plans of the predation STS, as it was to struggle with their own duality. And it is only because they understood and perfectly integrated it, because they can approach the great energy which represents the Knowledge which shines with the light of the Universal Consciousness.

To illustrate what we announce and to explain how our discoveries result from it, we offer once more to relate our last experiences by which it was demonstrated to us certain programs resulting from past lives still expressed themselves in our reality. This because they remained in our fields of energy.

At the end of August, further to a dream of Jenaël which we shall relate lower in this paper, we had left in search of information about the Cagots¹². We had set off for the Basque Country and met Marie-Jeanne. And it is thanks to our meetings that Sand was able to grasp the depth of the stakes (EN-JE /ANGEL) which were at play¹³.

Sand tells:

We discovered during our investigation the mysterious and cursed people whom were the Cagots (we shall speak about it so later). Then, indications were presented to me through the history and the attitude of Marie-Jeanne.

Because of her dimensional and unconscious memoirs of witch-Cascarots¹⁴, Marie-Jeanne, still a rebel in the Soul has never asked to be "recognized" and preferred to pass "incognito" in society. She has thus never requested the RSA (ACTIVE SOLIDARITY REVENUE), by fear of having to justify herself.

She lives in an old house bequeathed by her dead father and survive with great difficulty with the thin income coming from her inheritance.

And it is exactly these memoirs, this 'program' of pariah, of former witch, of rebel, that I perceived from the first moment when I met her, and who woke the same programs within me.

She had certainly been my sister at the time of the inquisition of the witches of Zugarramurdi. At least, memoirs in this connection went back up very strongly.

I understood then, that I was still a carrier of programs, by means of which, because of the witch-hunt at that time, I had to spend all my time to show credentials, to justify me, to prove my identity, to defend myself for having the right to live, the right to exist.

Is not it exactly the game which took place through my exchanges of mails with the employment agency and the RSA? I always had to face control, to face the obtuse spirit of the representatives of the state, the injustice, the punishment, the repression.

Why this injustice, this ban to become the one that I am was presented to me again in my current life?

I had to understand that it was useless to fight, to want to be listened to, especially as I faced the "robots" of the bureaucracy, individuals without Soul, completely subjected to the authority of the "political and executive power ", unconscious of the dangerous reality lurking for our current humanity." It will thus have been necessary to me to go at the end of the experience, until I collapsed, until I felt in me that I didn't have energy to be given to them anymore.

Through this big lesson of life that was the meeting with Marie Jeanne and the Cathar forefathers - Cagots- Cascarots, I understood finally that it was vain to fight against a system which despite appearances, had its reason for being. To identify me to a victim is only a powerful programming resulting from reptilian implants.

I thus had to understand and learn how to realize my own deprogramming.

By accepting in the most inner depths of my Being why I lived this experience and by my consent in what I had just perceived, I knew how to learn to master my energy of anger to transform it into compassion.

And it is exactly this Energy of compassion that the Christlike beings carried. It is conveyed in the genetics of the carriers of the seal of Cain, the ardent Sons and Daughters of life, the Kiristos.

This is these genetics which wakes up in myself at present. It is the one of the planner "Kiristia", who is another "me" on another temporal line. - the name Kiristia was given to me at St Gens.

(See my story: <http://bienvenussurlanouvelleterre.jimdo.com/notre-histoire/>)

Her Amasutum genetics - half-Abgal, half-reptilian-, express itself through my human embodiment of today to help to rebalance the hand put by the old reptilian empire over the human population.

I understood then that the Cathars, the Cagots, Cascarots were my ascending fish Beings, the half-man, half-amphibians, arrived on Earth during the era of the Fish "symbol of the Christ" and the true Christians.

These people of Sirius, the Abgals, amphibian humanoids with fish tail or palmed feet who appeared this and there as if by magic in their energetical "Merkabah" at every end of cycle (thus during wars, epidemics of plague, climatic upheavals). This electromagnetic field possesses a geometric form which during its activation is transformed into a perfect sphere. It allows the spirit to travel through the parallel universes and the dimensions. It serves as a vehicle for the transfer of the spirit and the body in the superior worlds. (We shall talk again about it in a more precise manner later in the dialogue.)

Merkabah is a Hebrew term which means chariot (of the root R-K-B: To be astride). It is one of the oldest themes of the Jewish mysticism. The term was taken, and the concept revised by the New Age movement, which speaks about it to claim it a secret property of the human being to free himself from the materiality to travel in space and time.

These Planners of Life (one from the genetic parts of our ancestors which can be considered our galactic brothers), travel in their Merkabah. They are carriers of the Energy of Christlike compassion which for a long time and since their subtle dimensions, came to teach the inhabitants of the Earth.

They taught how to increase their vibratory frequency for their evolution in the following life cycles. They are among these pacifist Planners of Life who, in this sector of our galaxy, take care that the universal balance is respected. Not amazing that, under the aegis of the religions, Cathar, Cagots, Laminak, Chrestians and other carriers of the truth and the real Christlike genetics were always rejected throughout history. Always cursed like lepers, treated like pariahs, like the scrap of society, they were rebuffed, repulsed when not purely and simply massacred by the dominant patriarchy, the political power and the religions in place.

Of course, since the corpus of the reptilian predators, the real governing power (represented by the various castes of the New World Order today), broke this balance on Earth, the Planners called the Urmah militia, not to hunt them down, but to put them back in place in the balance of the Universe.

The LEOs are nothing else than Urmahs resulting from the former cycle. They are these powerful warriors who, not with weapons but with their consciousness and their very high vibratory frequency, assist us so that humanity can begin a new cycle of evolution in a new balance.

Finally, the Cathar, the Cagots, the Witches and many initiated people massacred during the successive inquisitions, lost their physical body because they had not reached the final initiation yet.

Their Soul had to know all the sufferings that the human being had endured during its cycle of embodiment in the reptilian Matrix, to be able to offer him in this apocalypse of the 6th humanity, the possibility of emerging in a new era.

And this redemption of the reptilian era is coming true through the miracles of the genetics and the transdimensional repairing faculties of the DNA.

The suffering of all these 'Righteous people', oppressed for a long time by the reptilian power, exactly had to remind me that we must make a success of our ultimate initiation in our current life. Jenaël (Nungal-Leo) who has been born under the sign of the Lion and I (the Amasutum Reptilian / Abgal) who was born under the sign of the Fishes, taking many times the frequency of resonance of the victim, we offered others, the key to deprogram their victim's reptilian implants.

We came back with all our memories of "victims of patriarchy and martyrs of those in power" for a very precise reason: To REMEMBER! Remind us not to reproduce the same "errors" as before of whom we saw ourselves dying during the war (such Lili, Anna and Joseph, in Dialogue with the Angel of Gitta Mallasz), where we saw loved ones, Cathar, Witches then Cagots, burn on the stake, sometimes gypsies and Semites pursued by the Nazi regime, or then parents, children, companions, agonizing under the tortures of the inquisition.

Obviously, we always refused to sell our Soul because we knew. We knew that the veil of secret wasn't meant to be uplifted yet in this time, because the end of time for its revival, had not come yet.

Hidden at all costs, to the sacrifice of our lives, this secret begins to be revealed now. It would have been able to shake the three big monotheist religions, and to reveal the real identity of initiated people who had crossed our History. The veil of Isis, detained and maintained by "The Feminine", or rather through its genetics, is finally going to be able to be lifted and be revealed to the human beings so that they can pass in higher dimensions of consciousness and existence?

The Cathar, the Knight Templars, the Cagots, the Witches, all of them protected this secret at the price of their life. They always prevented it to fall in the hands of the men of the Church, the kings, the men of power and the powerful of this world.

But today very few people are still interested in it, because submerged by their material attachment and blinded by ignorance, almost nobody anymore offers himself the enjoyment to leave to the quest of the grail, the Knowledge: THE FREEDOM!

Today the stakes are not the same anymore, but we still refuse no matter the costs, to exchange our mission of life against any tripalium or pretense to the employment agency, to the RSA or anywhere else!

Under the Antiquity, the Low Latin term trepalium (attested in 582) is a deformation of tripalium, an instrument formed by three pickets, two vertical and one placed in transverse, to which was attached animals in order to shoe them or look after them, or to punish the slaves.

Appeared in the 12th Century, according to Alain Rey, the word "work" is a deverbal noun "to work", stemming from the popular Latin "tripaliare", significant "to torment, to torture with the trepalium". In the 12th Century, the word also indicates (psychological) agony but also the labor of childbirth. Https://en.Wikipedia.org/wiki/work

We often wondered if a difference existed between the teaching of Cassiopeans and that of the Leonins.

When we asked the question, our cross-dimensional Consciousness or "the Angel" communicated us this:

Cassiopeans and LEOs carry out one of the new potential of future of a tiny part of humanity. They will participate in "the flight" of those having chosen the Service to Others.

Other people, other lineages will express other potentials. Some fates will be entropic like those in whom a great majority of individuals are going now. But somehow or other forms of energy participate both in the cycle of the Evolution. One by its contraction, the other one by its expansion. One by its inspiration, the other one by the exhalation. Both being essential in the balance of the universal cycles.

Concerning the center of thought of the Leonins, it is only the continuity of the Cassiopeans. If there is a subtle difference between both, it expresses itself only by your way of operating, your way of putting yourselves in connection with other working groups, your open-mindedness, your intuitive and emotional capacities, the domains of information which you spread and your predisposition to co-create a new future to the " - STO".

Cassiopeans allowed to open the consciousness of the public to the terrestrial changes, to reveal the science and the forbidden researches, to reveal the political psychopathy... They offered the possibility to humanity to operate a choice for its future with full knowledge of the facts, that to decide between an orientation in the Service to Others or to persist in the Service to Self. The group of people gathered around their teachings, mainly established by intellectuals, by scientists, by physicists, by researchers of all kinds, cleared the ground so to speak, so that you do not have to take care of it anymore. Thus, it is not your role to keep denouncing or fighting against the predation of 4th dimension STS.

From now on, persisting in revealing the destructive and psychopathic behavior of the predation STS of 4th dimension, is not really within your jurisdiction anymore. Your vocation is in your commitment, which goes well beyond these "denunciations", even though it will sometimes be still justified to highlight them.

The strength of the LEOs following the example of the Urmahs lies in their talent to do the cleaning and to reconcile certain galactic lineages. They are the craftsmen and guarantors of the universal balance, the peacekeepers of your galaxy. They are the ones who intend to break the taboos of the "world" of the emotional, by which people react sometimes so violently and so mindlessly. Because it is essentially because most people react to elaborate and sneaky programmings, pushing them vehemently on a destructive emotional mode, because they don't use logic and critical mind.

The role of LEO is from now on fundamental. It answers the need for human beings to learn to see, to accept and to surpass their destructive emotional, energy of which the predators are so fond of.

In the end, feelings are only Energy in movement. They can become destructive if they are piloted by the predator, but creative if they are the expression of your higher and human part.

In other words, the emotional language using waves of frequency for the transmission of the information, becomes vector of the vibration of resonance which you feel, which you express or which you perceive from others. The feelings are thus simply the expression of your internal world which let's remind it, hold at the same time both polarities which are "the mean and merciful aspects of the Creator". Ibn Arabi.

Whether negative or positive, you always interact through your feelings. You communicate with your environment, you express yourselves and you realize through it. But when you remain unconscious of it, you participate to an entropic universe of 3rd dimension (the illusion) as long as you will not have understood how to transform your bubble of perception to participate to co-create an alternate universe. The secret of your quest consists then in learning to become creative, while accepting the reality of your destructive emotional.

By avoiding of suppressing it and by agreeing to express and to sublimate your constructive feelings (those of your real human part), you will allow yourselves to become really the architect of your universe. The latter resulting from your expanded consciousness in a dimension of superior reality, cannot be perceived by the "residents" of the 3rd dimension in the Service to Self.

Contrary to the New Age teaching or that of most of therapists, the LEOs agreed to reveal the psychic influences of the personal predator because they know that he can become their greatest teacher. And it is doubtless in this, in this propensity to recognize their personal predators, that some among you begin to excel.

And to cultivate this practice, that is to learn to become creator of alternate universes, of new potential of future, it is important that places of exchange continue to be established. Because while developing the apprenticeship of "the mirror effect" LEOs will strive to reveal the imprint of the predator in their own behavior and even more in the functioning of the collective unconscious or the behavior of others.

Of course, this 'creative work' cannot come true if there are remainders of judgments still in your thoughts, because it is intended to increase the vibratory frequency of resonance which will put you in sync with the Wave. And therefore, it will shield you from the violence of the anthropocosmic changes which are announced everywhere on Earth.

Here is an extract of an exchange of questions-answers taking place with the Cassiopeans who offers some indications about the dimensional changes:

http://quantumfuture.NET/FR/wave9_fr.htm 05.12.94.

Q: (L) I would like to know what is the definition of, and would you describe for us, a dimensional curtain?

A: Self-explanatory. Think.

Q: (L) When we are talking about dimensional curtains we are talking about divisions at the same level of density, is that correct?

A: Maybe.

Q: (L) Can dimensional curtains be between dimensions at the same level of density?

A: Yes.

Q: (L) Are dimensional curtains also something that occurs between levels of density?

A: Yes.

Q: (L) So, a dimensional curtain is a point at which some sort of change takes place... what causes this change?

A: Nature.

Q: (L) In specific terms of the engineering of it, what defines this change?

A: Experience.

Q: (L) Is it in any way related to atomic or quantum physics or the movement of atoms?

A: Yes.

Q: (L) Okay. An atom is in 3rd density. What distinguishes it from an atom in 4th density?

A: Reality.

Q: (L) What distinguishes one realm from another?

A: Assumptions.

Q: (L) Okay, what you assume or expect is what you perceive about that atom depending upon which reality you are in, is that correct?

A: Close.

Q: (L) What determines your assumptions?

A: Experience.

Q: (L) My experience of atoms is that they congregate in such a way as to form solid matter...

A: Everything that exists is merely a lesson.

Q: (L) Okay, so once we have learned certain lessons, as in experience of certain things, then our assumptions change?

A: Yes.

Q: (L) Okay, is this wave that is coming our direction going to give us an experience that is going to change our assumptions?

A: Catch 22: One half is that you must change your assumptions in order to experience the wave in a positive way.

Q: (L) And what does this wave consist of in absolute terms?

A: Realm border.

Q: (L) Is that realm border as in a cut-off point between one reality and another?

A: Yes.

Q: (L) Is that realm border as in dimensional curtain?

A: Yes.

Q: (L) So the planet earth is going to pass through a dimensional curtain?

A: Or an earth. All is merely a lesson, and nothing, repeat nothing, more.

Q: (L) Well, my experience with lessons has been that they are generally painful. Is this realm border crossing, or this merging experience going to be what we, or I, in the 3rd density, would perceive as painful?

A: Wait and see.

Extract of the session of December 5th, 1994

<https://cassiopaea.org/forum/threads/session-5-december-1994.28388/#post-353192>

In our previous dialogue we issued a call to meet one another to exchange and share information and we received numerous enthusiastic answers on behalf of our readers. Proof that among the LEOs, more and more individuals are determined to co-create an alternative to their future in another reality, by agreeing to reveal the predator who hides in the darkest corner of their thoughts and in their behavior.

We were contacted by some "celebrities" of the esoteric and spiritual world, but especially by people with whom we began interesting exchanges. Naturally, our sharing signed the beginnings of something new, from our first meetings, the influence of the cross-dimensional predation under the shape of our predators and our mutual games of ego, were often noticeable.

But to learn to detect and transcend the notion of the judgment, of good or bad towards others, is it not the most difficult thing to realize for our human consciousness?

It is by such discussions with as spontaneous as possible with its frankness, its sincerity, the listening that we consider continuing the meetings and sharing of the LEO Network. Such experiments realized between us, should authorize us in that the energy and the Leonin center of thought, spreads and deploys itself and help us to surpass us to propel us towards our neo-reality STO: A world freed from a duality which was arbitrated by the entities of the Service to Self for too long, who this time, contrary to the Atlantis, would reach for some to emerge on a new Earth, in a new density.

Thus, let us return to our researches about the path of Compostella and the secret of the Cagots.

A while back, we were sorting out pictures that we had taken during our travel in the Basque Country and found again pictures of the famous cross of Hendaye. We had begun to treat the subject in the dialogue n ° 40.

As it is often the case, while observing recent synchronicities, by 'subliminal information' which were passed on to us, by the subconscious of Jacques Gérard Vésone for example, that we reached to incredible findings by crossing this information with our own Akashic and " transdimensional memories".

Jenaël relates:

Everything began with a dream I had in 2006. In my dream, I was stretched out for a small nap when I saw far off the distance a man walking towards the Atlantic Coast. I myself, was sitting on a cliff over the sea. As this man approached the beach below, I saw that he was a huge giant, of the size of a building. Behind him a crowd of small human beings (probably dwarfs) followed him closely.

While beginning to walk on the surface of waves, he turned to me and called out to me:

"Keep doing what you are doing and remain confident, because you will be brought to do as I did, and you will do even more." I walk here where finishes the earth to return towards where I come from."

I recognized then the silhouette of Yeshua and understood that we were in the Finistère¹⁵: The place where finishes the earth. But at the time I had not enough elements to interpret my dream and reconstitute the puzzle which appears in front of me only now. It is only very recently that two people supplied me almost unconsciously with keys. They are Patrick Burensteinas in this video:

[Http://productions-pgafilms.com/saint-jacques-de-compostelle-le-voyage-alchimique-tap e-5-5747.html](http://productions-pgafilms.com/saint-jacques-de-compostelle-le-voyage-alchimique-tap e-5-5747.html)

And Jacques-Gérard Vésone :

<http://www.la-grande-revelation.com/qui-en-est-l-auteur-jacques-gerard-vesone-a1653621>
<http://www.reseauleo.com/2016/07/07/1ère-partie-entrevue-avec-jacques-gérard-vésone/>
<http://www.reseauleo.com/2016/07/02/entrevue-avec-jacques-gérard-vésone-le-20-06-16/>

These two persons held certain elements which woke my Atlantean memories. When Patrick Burensteinas collects the philosopher's stone or "the antimony" on the beach of Fisterra close to the city of Finistère and to St James of Compostella, he specified in his video that this mineral is used by alchemists because it allows to change unpure metals such as lead and mercury, in precious metals such as the chrysopoeia¹⁶, which is the gold obtained by transmutation.

I learned that the antimony, possessing cosmetic, ophthalmic, emetic properties, was already used by Atlanteans to activate the pineal. It also served as a cure to diseases and extend the human life beyond its natural limits.

15 Finistère is a department of the region of Bretagne, on the Atlantic Coast. In the language of birds, Finistère sounds the same as Finis- terre (where finishes the earth).

16 <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Chrysopoeia>

Its alchemical transformation realizes itself in the hearth, the home or Kamin (chimney in Alsatian, Slovenian or German), in which is plunged the melting pot containing a little of this ore into a tiny particle of gold.

We thus deducted that Kamin, El Camino, the "Path of Compostella, represents the hearth"("the Way") in which the transmutation begins. The melting pot which contains the heavy density of our Being: Symbolized by the lead, as well as the tiny particle of light which lives in us: The gold.

When the alchemist warms the lead, the gold and the antimony in the melting pot, this combination of elements is transformed either in hardened lead or in gold. The result is according to the dosage of the three elements and especially, the knowledge, the perseverance, the concentration and emotional state of the alchemist operator.

In the history of alchemy, it is said that few individuals had managed to transform the lead in gold. What was the meaning of this "alchemical operation"?

It represented our internal density: The lead (symbolizing the fears, the beliefs, the heaviness) transmuted in gold ("the energy of light", the information-truth, Knowledge, the fluidity in Life).

Nicolas Flamel, Fulcanelli and some others were of those who in principle had succeeded!

Thus, transforming lead in gold or density into light, would thus drive us to the completion of the process to succeed in changing density / reality. In other words, to pass from an STS dimension to an STO dimension in a same world of 3rd density.

It is this internal transmutation that a part of the Atlantean survivors had realized by crossing the Pyrenees and by spreading out in these mountains. They had accepted, transmuted, integrated their dual experiments of life in Atlantis, to "Ascend" on a new vibratory plan of consciousness, and bequeathed us secret keys so that the most acute of us can decipher the instructions.

These keys are encoded in the depths of our subconscious, which we can remember only by our own progress of alchemical transformation. This internal progress would raise the bolts of the 4th dimension of STO consciousness.

Patrick Burensteinas hypothesis concerning the etymological origin of the name Compostella, would be that it comes from a derivative of compositum tellus "moved earth" from a grave or from compostum "cemetery", or in language of the birds "Elle¹⁷", the feminine which resuscitates from the compost.

Compost arising from a process of biological processing of organic matters, would it be the lands of Amen - ta: Ahâ-Men-Ptah of the swallowed Atlantis?

The "Coast of Death", this is the way we call the coast of Galicia, which is the starting point of a whole game of legends, myths and traditions, guides the alchemist towards a precise beach where he is going to be able to collect this raw material: 'The antimony', symbol of the internal density and which authorizes or not, the internal transmutation during the alchemical journey.

This place is nearby of the Fistera cap (the "end of the Earth") which also marks the end of the journey for many pilgrims of Saint Jacques of Compostella. This is the same Finistère towards which, in the vision of Jenaël, walked the giant Yeshua.

17 Elle = Her/She in French

St James's church is attributed to the Knight Templars and as any Atlantean sacred place, it is still provided with its triple energy surrounding wall.

This occult order of the Knight Templars, who in the first half of XII Century had developed from the increase of the pilgrims to Compostella, was exactly contemporary of the birth of two big military orders in the "Holy Land". Its mission was to preserve roads and main itineraries of " El Camino Primitivo". It was the secret order which was sensitive to protect the pilgrims of the attacks of thieves and looters.

But what seems certain today, it is that this secret order of the Knight Templars was not only dedicated to the protection of the pilgrims on the roads, but it answered a long-meditated approach of esoteric order, which was a pretext to a mystic quest sponsored by Bernard of Clairvaux and the Cistercian monks. This secret order within the Knight Templars organization had maintained good relationships with an initiated people of the time: The Cagots of the Pyrenees (Cathar-Laminak-Chrestians). Whereas the official order of the Knight Templars oversaw watching the path towards Jerusalem.

Patrick Burensteinas describes farther about the Camino, that it is a real meditation on Death, appearances and meaning of the Black work, the transmutation, that suits us the walls of Castrojeriz. In the entrance of Galicia, the pass of Cebreiro brings us to understand (that St James's real path, the antic "El camino primitivo" not only makes us cross space, it is also a Door of Time.

As for the cyclic cross of Hendaye, of which we shall speak again farther by bringing back our extraordinary experiences in the Basque Country, it was set up at first between the XVII th and the XVIIIth century on the way of Compostella by a group of anonymous initiated, then placed by the cemetery of Hendaye.

Who were they? These initiated were the guards of the technology, the craftsmanship and Knowledge that they had protected after the collapse of Atlantis. This object would have been saved from the destruction or made, several thousand years ago by the survivors of the disappeared continent: Amen-ta (or Atlantis). It was transferred in 1842 from its first location on the Camino Primitivo, to be placed by the parochial church of St Vincent, in the city center of Hendaye where it is still visible today.

The legend says that some among these people of initiated: "The Sons of the Law of the One" carriers of the seal of Cain, were masters of 5th density STO. In other words, they were initiated Beings which challenged the laws of time. Among them, Cathar-Cagots would still live in the mountainous areas of Pyrenees and would have hidden other technologies coming from the old Amen - ta (Atlantis).

But is it really a legend or do they remain in a parallel reality, an alternate dimension of time like the one that some among us manage to perceive and are already cross?

Very probably whom Fulcanelli, certain other alchemists, monks-Knight Templars and other initiated, had put them and became the guards of the doors of time, the agents of this technology cross-dimensional who will open the temporal portals. When we shall have completely carried out our internal alchemy?

<https://veritas-europe.com/forums/topic/croix-cyclique-dhendaye-et-le-passage-de-la-10ieme-planete/>

Fulcanelli had very probably met these people of initiated called differently according to regions: Cathars then Cagots, Chrestians or Laminak, because the secret which only they could know was revealed to him and which said: "Life finds refuge in one and the same place". Because it is this place, hidden "in the depths of our Being" that every "alchemist" who respects himself looks for.

This place exists, it shows a reality, but we have to plunge in it body and soul, by the reversal in oneself "(as suggested it Castaneda in "The final journey").

It is nowhere and everywhere at the same time, because it is only the expression of our frequency of higher resonance exteriorized in our bubble of perception, by our genome " returned to the original" When we succeed in returning in ourselves.

These people of initiated are no other than the descent of the survivors of the Atlantis who had kept the secret of their cross-dimensional and "spiritual" technology. (Macaronesia - Canaries and the Azores - still present some vestiges of this disappeared civilization.)

Moreover, researches evoke a very particular population group in the territories of the gulf of Biscay since the end of the upper Paleolithic and characterized by its ancient magic language, its morphology and its very specific genetics.

This almost disappeared and very particular population, is essentially spread among the Basque population, but we find them also somewhere else in France and in Europe. Like in Brittany and Alsace where we find this kind of dialect peculiar to people introduced to this language.

It expresses itself essentially by a regional dialect, a dialect who still allows to spot the indications or the tracks of their passage.

Here are two very edifying articles in this connection:

<http://Eden-saga.com/tradition-linguistique-Breton-languedesoisons.html>

<http://Eden-saga.com/Palme-argot-patois-Langue-des-oisons-Contes-de-fées-mère-loye.html>

The story of these people is extraordinary and is sometimes told in popular legends as the one that we found in Alsace:

(See directly on our site our story) pdf)

Then who are this people? There are simply the Cagots with palmed feet (and sometimes palmed hands) of our Pyrenean legends, the so called Laminak in Basque, and Chrestians in the Carolingian ages. And obviously, they are the famous small human beings of the dream of Jenaël.

https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Lamina_\(mythologie\)¹⁸)

<http://essania.actiforum.com/t5962-enigmatique-race-des-chrestians>

In the end, this dream seems very revealing because Yeshua appeared to Jenaël as a Giant.

Weren't other descendants of the Atlantean peoples also giants like the Guanches that were still in the Canary Islands and the Azores in the XIVth century?

Or the Merovingians, the giants of Vth In VIIIth Century, claimed to be of the line of the Grail?

<http://rustyjames.canalblog.com/archives/2015/02/05/31468815.html>

We know now on that after a dimensional transition, certain surviving forms of life adapted to their new density by adapting very quickly their genome (due to the property of epigenetic).

This neo-genome expresses itself then in its new environment of life, by generating a new build (size, weight and thus density) according to the frequencies of the surrounding density. Some individuals quickly reduced of size, such as the Cagots did, by modifying and by readjusting their genetics to their new reality, their new environment. While others kept their size of origin for a while.

A man having carried out this transition which we know under the name of Yeshua, who obviously appeared as a "God" in the eyes of the human beings of the time, travelled through space and time. As every wise Atlantean, he knew how to thwart the laws of gravitation.

Yeshua, Enki or Horus and many others after them were Christs, identical to those today who intend to serve others, and to enter the caste of the "Planners of Life".

They are one and the same creative Soul-entity of 7th dimension, descendants of the lineage of the Creators, who taught human beings to get ready to change of plan of consciousness and density of embodiment.

Yeshua the Atlantean, called the Galician because he landed together with Joseph of Arimathea on the coast of Galicia after the collapse of the Atlantean continent, had simply accompanied and taught companions during their journey to the "Promised "Land", a new reality in a new dimension.

It is thus very most probably these memories of history from which are pulled: "Letters of the Christ", the works of Claire Heartsong (Anna, the grandmother of Jesus and Anna, the voice of Madeleines), the Akashic Memoirs of Daniel Meurois and other narrative concerning the "famous" Jesus Christ.

Let us not be confused with the character of Jesus of the legend of the Roman church, with the expression of a consciousness of 5 – 6th dimension personified for example in the past Through the embodiment of Enki, Plato, Socrates, Jacques de Molay, then more recently by Fulcanelli, Canseliet, Leedskalnin and many more other carriers of the seal of Cain.

Despite this Christlike consciousness which express itself today still through the personality of numerous researchers of truth worldwide, it will never be predominant on Earth in the 3rd dimension STS such as it manifests itself in our reality of today.

According to the Biblical writings, the "Christ" even said: "I am in this world, but not of this world."

19 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Merovingian_dynasty

The biblical narrative describing the epic of Mary, Jesus the Galilean, his partner Madeleine and Joseph of Arimathea, the Apostles... are only narratives, legends and metaphors whom the historic truth was very audaciously and sensibly transposed in Galilea by the fathers of the Roman church. These high priests, "the sons of Belial", are parts of the humanity in the "Service to Self - STS" by whom Atlantis was destroyed. To continues to reign over the people and to serve the caste of the STS transdimensional reptilian entities, they made so that the current humanity cannot remember its real history.

However, and apparently, some people remained carriers of this Knowledge and know it. These Cathar-Cagots, Laminak, Chrestian, who, due to their genetics were holders of this Knowledge and were of Atlantean blood.

<http://lieux.loucrup65.fr/cagots.htm>

There were Christs or "Kiristis" of the lineage of Sukkals (the birds people), of Nungals or amphibians Abgals (with palmed feet and hands), of whom Yeshua (on "past temporal lines" as "Kiristos" Enki-Horus) was - partially - stemming.

In our time, these big families of extranean temporal travelers could well corresponds to the Tall blond, Venusians, Arcturiens, Pleiadeans, Siriusians or other human ascensionned hybrid lineages in superior dimensions of densities of existence.

This Christlike energy, the genome "Kiristos", thus shows itself today in every individual who produces the sincere and sustainable effort to open and increase his consciousness to offer himself body and soul to the Service to Others - STO.

And it is this intense effort of every minute (and not only when that arrange us, will increase our frequency of resonance so that we can be transferred in 5th dimension of consciousness, by the Wave of change.

THIS TRANSITION THROUGH A DIMENSIONAL WINDOW WILL BE MADE ONLY WHEN ENOUGH OF US WILL HAVE ACCOMPLISHED THE INTERNAL CELLULAR PROCESSING ESSENTIAL TO BE READY!

About Sirius, where amphibians – Abgals are native:

The Dogons assert that there is a third star (after Sirius and its sun-companion) undiscovered by the astronomers at present. They tell us that our ancestors came from there, millennia ago, from a planet in orbit around this third star.

The Dogons know the existence of two stars around Sirius. The first one (discovered in 1851 by Peter) orbit around Sirius in 50 years (The feast of Sigui takes place every 50 years). The period of revolution calculated in 1960 by Van Den is of 50,090 years.

The second, they name it "EmmaYa" or "Sorghum" or "The Star of women". [Let us specify that the words in Dogon "Sorghum" or "EmmaYa" is very close to the Basque "Sorgin] Emakumea "meaning"witch". [The radical "sorghum" where ensues the word "sorgin"or"sorginia" means precisely "witch".]

The period of revolution of this star takes over 32 years to orbit around Sirius, in a perpendicular elliptic orbit to that of the first star.

This star has several planets in orbit around her, their ancestors came from one of these planets aboard the NOMO (like the lunar rocket Apollo spaceship)

This star is suspected to exist by astronomers, but it hasn't been proved yet.

Let us return to the famous cross of Hendaye and then let us remember ourselves the time of Ancient Egypt and its technology that the planners had bequeathed to humanity.

By reminding us of its History engraved on pyramids and by observing attentively this cross while having in mind this technology, it seems rather obvious for the educated, that this cross could act as a Djed pillar when it is positioned in an adequate place.

Electromagnetic condensator when it is placed on a specific telluric line (for example on the crossing of a "gold" telluric line which connects the disappeared continent and the Basque Country), Djed had for function to assure the "resurrection in the stability and the" duration". In a way, it assured long life, henceforth its name "Djed" which means stability and duration. Thus, its construction was used in very old rites, and renews the act of Horus related in the texts of Thoth in Edfu.

We also remember the destruction of the Djed pillars in the old Amenti (the Atlantis of the West) caused its destruction.

(In the Egyptian mythology, Amen-ti indicates the West.) As it is in the direction of the sunset (towards the constellation of Sirius in summer) the house of the dead was placed there.

At the time of Ptolemy, Amen-ti appears as the house of the righteous men, the Kiristos (of the Christs) of those who are without sin. Nevertheless, in the Bible translation in Coptic language, this term was deviated from its original sense and used to indicate hell.

Current or contemporary Egypt, thus situated in Amen-ta (in the East as opposed to the star Sirius) corresponds to a rich Atlantean province, the antic Upper Egypt which had become a Roman province approximately 12000 years after the disappearance of the civilization of the Amenti: The western Atlantis, in of the Atlantic Ocean.)

by raising this kind of pillars (technology known of the Atlanteans) on the way of the survivors during their exodus in the Pyrenees, which would later become the current European continent, when oceanic waters had withdrawn, these "magic pillars" had for function to assure the prosperity and the protection of the ground which welcomed them. The descendants Semites-Cagots of these exiles of Amen-ti knew the secret of the magic pillars.

The legend which refers to the flight of Moses outside of ancient Egypt, the Amen - ta would corresponds to the episode of the passage of the Red Sea recorded in the Old Testament. Would it also relate the exodus of the Semites?

(The Semites would be the speakers of Semitic languages which mainly populate the The Middle East, North Africa and the Horn of Africa. "The word is forged from the biblical character "Sem "who means in Hebrew:" name, renown, prosperity "." SEM" Being the last son of Noah.)

Created in the field of the philology to indicate a family of languages, the term "Semite" was used from the XIX th Century to designate the speakers of these languages as the members of a particular "human race" such as the Cagots were.

The Basque is phonetically rather close to the Dogon. These languages probably hail both from the old Semitic language of the western Atlantis - the Amenti.

The Semites have thus strictly no relationship with the Jews-Hebrews of today. They are then very probably descendants of the son of Noah, patriarch of one of the surviving peoples of the Atlantis, who became the Cathars, then the Cagots and Chrestians of our old legends.

Knowing that these peoples were carriers of the Knowledge and the old-fashioned spiritual technology coming from Abgals from Sirius, we could overestimate without big risk of error, that the famous cyclic cross of Hendaye hid a Djed technology, a condensator of energy spin or free energy, such as other objects which were saved by the survivors of this disappeared civilization.

Then Cathars-Cagots (Chrestians Laminak / Semites) held sciences and hid numerous technologies from which the impact escapes us even today. They mastered the properties of the magnetic field, the anti-gravitational and explored the powers of the spirit on the matter. This control defined their "spiritual technology", in opposition with the material technology which governs the contemporary material world.

History says that these beings turned up "out of nowhere", mainly in France under the reign of the Carolingians, just after an inexplicable invasion of air vessels appeared in Valley of the Saone and The Rhône. (It was very probably Merkabah – coming from the activation of the personal magnetic fields - which was seen by the population of time.)

<http://secretebase.free.fr/civilisations/autrespeuples/chrestians/chrestians.htm>

These VIIIth Century Chrestians could represent very probably also galactic cousins, the "Ummite", these human beings native of a twin Earth of 3rd dimension called Ummo, resulting from another future already realized in a parallel dimension, situated approximately 14.4 light years of the Earth and who also, would have formed after the collapse of a previous humanity.

<https://en.Wikipedia.org/wiki/Ummo>

It is the control of the "spiritual powers" peculiar to Atlantean "STO", that made them discover the geo-energy and study the free energy: This famous Vril.

Vril is a fine, subtle and infinite energy produced by the rotation of the globe. It absolutely must not to be confused with the terrestrial magnetic railing in the shape of flower of life, such as described it Drunvalo Melchizedek. The latter is only the result of a technological manipulation of the Vril, which had the effect of concentrating this subtle energy in an electromagnetic prison, which traps the human Souls in cycles of reincarnation in the service of the corpus of 4th dimension STS. (See Dialogue N° 37)

There was a time when such a huge dynamo, our planet produced a subtle electromagnetic field, ubiquitous, and very powerful in the Ether. This field was omnipresent around the globe and formed a single layer of fog. It allowed any Soul to move immediately from one point to another on Earth or in the universe and create/ densify a body according to its needs, as has done it the Spirit of IsBe. (See diag Interview with the Alien - PDF)

This "foggy" field is the one described by Credo Mutwa, who in his interview with Rick Martin claimed: -Originally, the Earth was covered by a very thick coat of fog or mist. And in these centuries, people spoke to each other between them thanks to their spirit-.

But at the moment, these faculties of the spirit stay near - impossible in our 3rd human dimension, so much they remain under the control of the STS corpus. To adapt themselves to the prison, human Souls embodied in a human body with a frequency of 3rd density STS, proceed deliberately to the choice to forget, even if it means remaining trapped in this prison. And it is this option which led a lot of Greys (human beings of the future without outcome) to be reincarnated in a human body and to choose to die there or to breed with human being, so that by a difficult cycle of reincarnation, their Soul-Spirit recovers the potential to reach in orientation in STO.

As the current humanity is helped by the Beings of superior dimensions, it is also assisted by their "spiritual technology". In the past, when they were activated by STO Beings, the Djed pillar had for function to condense, channel, invert the polarities of this electromagnetic energy to produce openings between the dimensions, the famous doors of time, such as the ones Patrick Burensteinas speak of and by whom some STO were projected in a new space-time "to land" in the time of our current civilization.

But if the purpose of the same technology was manipulated by STS, it served only to channel, to concentrate the free energy, to be used as weapon, such as laser rays, or to fuel antigravitational machines, continuing to serve more widely the will of a materialistic world STS.

Is not it thus this Vril energy, this claimed free technology, that is nowadays used by the company Keshe, which really is only pursuing the researches of the Nazis on the Vril technology?

Https://aterrestre-auservice-du-reich-partie-1ves-secretes-nazies-la-technologie-extr_michelduchaine.com/2014/10/12/les-archi/

http://1stmuse.com/maria_orsitsch/

We could thus rightly ask ourselves this question: Who will benefit this Vril technology that they develop?

Despite it, hadn't Tesla already supplied the answer?

<Http://secretebase.free.fr/complots/nazis/Vril/vril.htm>

The Cagots, the Chrestians and previously the initiated Cathars and some Knight Templars were carriers of the secrets of the Vril. And as the legend let it suspect, some in the service of the Christlike Consciousness had spread and hidden these artifacts (among which probably several big electromagnetic condensers -The arch of alliance) in the Pyrenean mountains while waiting for the next transdimensional passage, to put them back naturally in function.

As we now know it, these arks, pyramids and Djed pillars scattered on the planet will be activated during the next dimensional passage. And it depends of the rise of our frequency of resonance STO, that those who will be prepared, will borrow this dimensional portal which will open NATURALLY at this moment there. Nevertheless, the simultaneous activation of these arks will also have for other function to move the terrestrial space-time, of required not to be destroyed completely by a possible massive cometary impact.

But let us remember that ourselves in 3rd dimension of consciousness, life is based only on illusions, assumptions, projections. But when we experiment, understand, accept, integrate the lessons which

Life offers us, we are all supposed to manage to pass beyond the assumptions to discover simply the Reality. It is thus only when we shall really be conscious of the "nature" of our new reality, when we shall really realize that we express it thanks to the resolution of our multiple karmic experiences of incarnation.

All the revelations contained in this dialogue, are thus "realities" only beyond the consciousness limited by the 3rd dimension of the human existence.

As the Cassiopeans claimed it: "It is necessary for you to change your assumptions to be able to make a positive experience of the Wave."

The Angel also told us in this connection:

This Wave of change represents a border between two worlds of frequencies of different resonance and is like a point of separation between your reality and another.

"By changing" your way of thinking and to act, it becomes possible to become creative of parallel Universes. In other words, it implies to stop supposing, keeping rehearsing the past and anticipating a future which finally is only the one that you already knew!

In your 3rd dimension in which the consciousness takes place in a linear way, to want to stay without thinking or reflect about the past-future is almost impossible because your official predator irreparably takes care to return you in a space-time which is familiar to him!

Whereas the 4th dimension of existence synchronize the consciousness of all your past resolute memories, to offer you the choice of multiple possibilities of future. It means that you will have the possibility of choosing a branch of future from your experiences and integrated lessons, while under the influence of the predator, he would have resolutely imposed you a vision of the future which would have reassured him. The latter representing a preestablished temporal line.

Consequently, you will not be dependent of a dimension of reality imposed by the predator anymore, but you will become master and even virtuoso of your own reality. Know that in 3rd and 4th dimension STS, consciousness creates gravitation, which in turn modifies consciousness! What implies that however your consciousness can imagine itself to be a victim or considers itself the master of the circumstances of its Life, but on no account, can it be creative.

But from the 4th dimension STO, once created "naturally" by gravitation, your new universe will correspond simply to the interpretation which yourself give to its subject. Which for the moment, is still difficult for you to conceptualize?

Cassiopeans said: "Remember yourselves! Practically all the power necessary to modify the reality is in the center of conviction of the spirit. "Here is something that you will understand better when you will reach the fourth density, where physicality is no more a prison but a house which you can modify as you please."

In other words, a new potential of future begins not with the mental, "what you believe", but by "a conviction" which is no other than the inmost experiment of the reality such as it is, and not such as you are led to think that it is.

This reality takes place in the center of conviction of the spirit and becomes prelude to multiple initiations which are no other than the deep experiment of all your beliefs! Thus, the latter absolutely have nothing to do with the beliefs engendered by your extremely limited perceptions, generated by the dynamics of the world of 3rd dimension which surrounds you. (This subject will be more approached in the dialogues to come.)

Let's return to the other indications and mysteries which had supported our researches, and which mark out the progress of the Atlantean descendants.

For years we explored the mountains of Razès, https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Raz%C3%A8s_\(r%C3%A9gion\))

Sometimes we discover places where pawed crosses are engraved in a circle.

Sometimes, we discover them in unlikely energetic places, very difficult to access. Others are found in much more exposed places, were restored and sculptured as they were originally. Others were downright vandalized and destroyed.

These crosses were a mystery until recently when our researches on the Semites-Cathars, Cagots, Christians, conveniently brought us to the Franco-Spanish border.

It is thus in August-September when we launched ourselves on the tracks of the Cagots of the Pyrenees, by discovering the remote parts of the Navarre and Basque Country. This adventure, rich in new developments, was moreover a pretext to a series of videos broadcasted the LEO Network:

During our wanderings we discovered that in some old cemeteries, remain some pawed crosses, set up as gravestone.

What represents these crosses?

They are a solar symbol. Simple cross placed inside a circle represents the sun. This symbol already appeared frequently in the Neolithic. (For reminder the Neolithic is 9000 BC, the period placed after the fall of Atlantis (which took place circa 10000 BC). They are thus an inheritance of an old tradition in Europe well before Christianization.

Although it is a very ancient tradition, these crosses decorate generally discoidal stelae known in the Basque Country since the XVIth and XVIIth century. However, at that time, the symbolism had already lost a lot of the meaning which it had during previous centuries. The shape and drawings are reproduced only by tradition.

We already find these crosses on the Abacus of masters Templars. Every master of the Temple possessed this personal emblem, close to the pastoral stick of the bishop. At the same time stick of spiritual and "temporal" command, it clearly had a magic and propitiatory value. It aimed at attracting the favors or the mercy of the "Creator".

The symbolism of the cross is universal. While we can find numerous meanings to the sign of the cross or the symbol which ensues from it, the historic background of the famous Red Cross of the Knight Templars contains multiple meanings and wisdoms.

The Knight Templars had adopted the cross as the symbol of their order. Originally the pawed cross was called the "MARK OF CAIN". This symbol had been born more than 5000 years ago in the proto-Sumerian period. It had been used by the followers of the "God of the One", until they arrived, not in Palestine after having left Egypt, as wanted the religions of the book to persuade us of, but on the European continent after the disappearance of Amen-ti: The western part of Atlantis.

The esoteric meaning of the Mark of Cain can be symbolically found in the Bible in the chapter of the Genesis (Gen. 4:13-16):

13 Cain said to the Lord, "My punishment is more than I can bear.

14 Today you are driving me from the land, and I will be hidden from your presence; I will be a restless wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me."

15 But the Lord said to him, "Not so[a]; anyone who kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over." Then the Lord put a mark on Cain so that no one who found him would kill him.

16 So Cain went out from the Lord's presence and lived in the land of Nod,[b] east of Eden.

However, the combination of a metaphoric writing style of and historic facts engenders a lot of confusion for those who trust the Bible completely. The deep truth about the Mark of Cain can be found only by the one who carries it in his memories, the one whom the Soul "remembers".

In Ancient Egypt (or "Amen - ta" in ancient Sumerian), those who wore the "Mark of Cain" showed that they were protected by "the God of the One" from the fury of "Jehovah" (in other words of the Sumerian god the AN). This meant that their carriers had left the spiritual path consisting in taking from others (the Service to Self- STS) and had embraced the path to give to the others (the Service to Others - STO).

The symbol of the cross in a circle is thus very old and played an important role in the History of Humanity. This symbol can be found under numerous variants, in numerous cultures and in multiple places across the world.

The Mark of Cain was symbolized by a Red Pawed Cross surrounded by a Circle, from the birth of the order of the Knight Templars in the year 1120. It was "borrowed" from the Cathar / Cagots spiritual tradition. By this cross, they meant at the same time the symbol of Cain and their membership to the lineage of the Christlike planners "Abgal" with palmed feet.

This cross with palmed feet became much more later the emblem of the Languedoc or Occitania.

We could then wonder why a cross? Why pawed? And why in a circle?

After he had accompanied the survivors of Atlantis, and thanks to his time traveling capacities (time folder or folded time), Yeshua travelled all over the Western world, in Middle East and in the East, in India. In his spiritual quest to go beyond the state of enlightenment and to reach the superior levels of Consciousness of Creation, Yeshua probably studied for a time with the Celtic Druids and learned there the history of the western world. He studied the hidden meanings and the "spiritual" wisdom of the "pawed cross" formerly known as the "Mark of Cain" (which later would become the Celtic Cross). He understood that it symbolized all the experiments of humans which are recorded in an electromagnetic way in their genetics.

This symbol represents the Consciousness thus or the Spirit whom we are, because our physical body is only the part of our Higher Self who experiments in this dense level of the Creation.

Yeshua also taught that our Consciousness is a field of energy surrounding our Soul which at the time of birth, densifies a portion of itself: The physical body of Man, and takes place inside of him at the level of the "Upper Heart".

He taught the Atlantean descendants the esoteric process of the Sign of the cross. In this process, having drawn a circle which connects the forehead, the left shoulder, the plexus, the right shoulder, the one who signs himself with the cross of Cain, dips his fingers into pure water, touches successively energetical points on the brow, the breast and the shoulders with the index and major joined to represent the One in the duality. The position of the fingers forming a powerful mudra, is a secret known only by those who are initiated and who "remember".

Today most of the religions adopted a travesty of the sign of the cross but hid the symbol of the circle. Also, by tightening all the fingers, their believers sign themselves very approximately.

In the end, the cross in the circle, which we can find in large numbers in the high valley of the Aude, draws the body movements that the Atlantean descendants had adopted to recognize each other and that they taught native peoples (Celts and Cathars) at their arrival in Gaul (France).

And it is from this tradition, mainly conveyed by women (the Atlantean goddesses likened to Mary and Marie-Madeleine by Christianity and the New Age), that the initiated Celts, Cathars or the Knight Templars, signed of this seal the highly energy places which probably still hide some dimensional technologies on other plans of reality.

These places are major centers releasing electromagnetic energy of the "Ceaseless Light, the Truth and the Unconditional Love of the Creator".

The circle drawn around the cross reminds us that the physical body and the electromagnetic body, although separated by our illusion, are one and the same.

The four-pointed pawed represent the four successive tracks of the thumb and the index joined to major gathered.

The breast or the center-heart is the Seat of the Soul, whereas the brow is directly connected to the pineal gland or the "path towards the Soul". The process begins by placing water on the forehead, the pineal gland or the "Third eye" to awaken the nadi susumna by pronouncing the formula: In the name of Father-Mother Creator.

Then, by pronouncing "in the name of the Son", its creation, the thymus (organ of regeneration) is tapped and stimulated to awaken and release "the Unconditional Love" in the area surrounding the physical body of the person, its bubble of perception). This area is bounded by the hollow of the left shoulder where is also placed the nadi "pingala", the highly- intuitive, the etherical body, the Holy Spirit., the Feminine...

Then lastly by tapping the hollow of the right shoulder, the nadi "ida" we wake the density, the intellect, the Masculine, the memories, expressed by Amen: Contraction of Amen-ta, the Ahâ-Men-Ptah, the memories of the disappeared Atlantis!

When practiced in conscience, these body movements allow one of the part of the brain (the pineal gland) to contact a densified portion by its total consciousness (or "Soul") which sits in the center-Heart. This sign is supposed to establish a complete communication with the total Consciousness or the Higher Self, the Spirit, which is the field of electromagnetic consciousness which surrounds the human body and which, when it is moistened by the joined fingers, can materialize in the consciousness of the individual generating his Merkabah.

According to the teachings of the real Yeshua, the first Christians activated their Body of energy or of Light, balancing thus the mental and emotional energies of their Consciousness / Supraconsciousness. Today, without the correct activations of the Body of Light, all that stays of these powerful techniques diverted by the current Roman Catholic Church is an approximate rite where we " wet our body in four places".

At the beginning of the XIIth Century, the Cathars and the first Knight Templars rediscovered the Truths concerning Yeshua and the Ark of the covenant. Later, these truths were updated through the narrative of the Cagots and the Chrestians which found an abundance of information and spiritual techniques which were far from being limited to the activations of the Body of Light and to the real Cross of the Christianity. It is thus unsurprisingly that by the Pope Eugene III, Knight Templars received in 1146 the "Mark of Cain" as symbol of their chivalry.

In the symbol of the Red Cross of the Knight Templars, the circle was abandoned. The stylized representation which shows the pawed "cross" still contains a good many of geometrical and of esoterically secret properties. But still, they can only be discovered today by the real initiated, those who as Yeshua, dedicates their life to serve others, those in the Service to Others.

It is not thus surprising that in March 19th, 1314, on the stake raised on the island of the Jews, in front of the Palace of the City, Jacques de Molay, last Knight Templar signing himself of the seal of Cain exclaims: "Pope Clement! King Philippe! Before a year, I summon you to appear to the court of God to receive your just punishment! Cursed! Cursed! All cursed until the thirteenth generation of your races!"

The curse of the great master was going to turn out true: Clement V dies on April 20th, 1314 of suffocation. Philip the Fair dies during the night of the 26th/ 27th November 1314 of a cerebral ictus. his three sons will die in the 12 following years, without leaving any male descent, terminating thus the direct lineage of the Capetians.

But here stops the History!

To conclude this small chapter dedicated to the symbolism of pawed crosses, synchronicities placed by the Angel during our last years, brought us at first to put remember the Cathar and Templar memories which went back to the time when we still lived in Bezu. This fragment of our extraordinary transdimensional experience of Cathar and Knight Templar will be probably be told one day on our site, if we find the time for it...

Because it is from our Cathar and Templar memories that we were brought to understand that these famous "crosses in the circle" (which are engraved by three times on the ruins of Bezu, castle in which the Knight Templars had established a commandery) had activated the button "ON" of our subconscious, activating all our transdimensional memories.

These pawed crosses were already used by "initiated" after to the Atlantis to design of the highly-vibrational places. The ruins of Bezu are moreover the only place - to our knowledge - where three original crosses are still gathered.

They were probably engraved by master's knights of the Temple and represented their blazons. Placed in precise places (often monolithic blocks), they probably indicated energetical places where in another dimension of reality was an artifact of electromagnetic technology coming from Amen-ta.

It would explain that the high frequency of resonance emitted by these places unconsciously attract those who in other temporal lines, belonged to these old Atlantean families. The places where are engraved this kind of cross is, after all, intended to refresh their cellular memories, so that they can "remember" and offer themselves the possibility to release themselves from it.

We find many of these crosses in Razès, especially in the surroundings of Bugarach which are strewed with it. In other regions where they bloom in large numbers, like in Cantal, The Corrèze, the Creuse, the Languedoc, the Lauragais, the Larzac, the Pyrenees and the Basque cemeteries, the cross in the circle is gladly called the "discoidal cross". According to Jacques Baudoïn (in his work Les croix du Massif Central, Issoire, 1989, p. 100), they would be dependent on the Templar foundations or hospitals.

We evoked higher in this text, recent experiments of overlapping of time. We are thus going to speak about it with our understandings of the time.

Jenaël tells:

In the beginning of this August 2016, we went to measure some places in the surrounding forests to take some videos of very particular artifacts which we shall soon insert into a documentary. Before starting the story of this adventure, we remind the reader that Sand and myself are still under the influence of a prolonged ketosis, which from time to time has a strong tendency to disconnect us from the reality of the 3rd dimension.

During our stroll, we went to visit the remains of an old city, probably of Atlantean origin, where I had discovered three enormous steps which brought us toward a sculpture in a rock of which I have named the Abgal.

Of this place emanated a rather particular frequency of resonance. It is a very old sculpture on a monolith which represents the head of a man-dolphin. Hidden by the vegetation, these remains are not known and totally went unnoticed, probably during centuries.

Another place nearby, revealed other energetic peculiarities of the same type.

So, when I approached these places, and by the fact of having been in ketosis (I am convinced of it), I was unbalanced to the point of not being able to stand anymore. It abruptly seemed to me that I walked next to my body. I helped myself with the tree branches to support my body, I perceived that I was not in a known reality anymore, but that I was in a world of colors, perceptions, sensations which differed "vibrationally" of the one that I knew of. Then, the more I went away from the place, the more "I re-entered" my body and managed to stabilize in something familiar and found my balance again.

Arrived at the second place where I photographed a so-claimed energy door, the same phenomenon occurred. "I" was gradually shifted from my body as I approached it.

For information, I had already showed these two places to a group of esoteric tourists, managed by Jean-Michel Raoux, who at the time had tried by means of crystals and so-called magic incantations in elvish language, to reactivate the place to open this dimensional door. Obviously, his incantations in Cyrillic had absolutely no effect, save for contributing to their own illusion to be safe. Having warned him of our opinion about the rites of black magic, we then declined his offer to join his group of spiritual tourism.

Apparently, and because we crossed paths with him recently, he continued cheerfully to lead his followers through mounts and valleys by avoiding carefully to begin any real internal work with his group. Finally, isn't he too not awaiting an Event which would soon arise? The presumed K' sils fooled him as well. They too, are probably not the ones they claim to be!

After our return from our trip during several days in a row, I walked very often in this way, "beside my shoes", between two realities, subject to rather striking spatiotemporal disorders of orientation and very connected to other plans of reality. I had sometimes become almost unable to undertake my usual tasks.

It is in these moments that the Angel, my Supraconsciousness, passed on to me the very precise information which I communicate in this text. Thanks to the "folded-time properties", the doors of time opened within me, because my "Supraconscious" had powerfully reconnected to Atlantean lives from which it drew its memories. Thus, it is well a question of speaking about overlapping between two spaces-time, which during changes of my perceptions connected me with the upper center of consciousness!

I am convinced of it today. The dimensional doors do not absolutely bustle by rites of magic. They answer simply to the frequency of resonance which emanates from the one who makes the effort of its internal alchemical transformation. To perceive the errors of the past in order to not reproduce them anymore in a new future, is the unique key so that the doors of Time open! Let it be said!

Let us pass then in the exploration of the alchemical process, which is no other than the experiment of this field of torsion which is sent to us by our superior Consciousness. Here is the narrative of our adventure in Navarre and the incredible synchronicities that catapulted us on the tracks of the Cagots.

When I was drafting the first pages of this dialogue, as if by chance, a reader who had seen our previous videos, contacted us to supply us of the information about Christians with webbed feet by specifying us that in the Basque Country these people were called: The Cagots.

This reader, Marie-Jeanne suggested us to come and see by ourselves. Answering synchronicities, we were quickly on the way in search of gooses' feet. At first in the Cathedral of Auch, quoted by Fulcanelli where is his square, we were welcomed by a stuffed goose and two stone lions.

Then, we revealed the first allusions to the Cagots of Ciboure, and later the country of Navarre where we met old Basques reluctant to speak about these "cursed people".

Good thing that Marie-Jeanne had put us in connection with an historian of the country, Mr. Kepa Arburúa Olaizola who kindly shared with us his researches on the Cagots.

We also met Xabier Agote, leader of the project Albaola, which consist in reconstructing the San Juan, whaler of the XVIth century according to ancestral techniques.

This nice man carried in his name "Agote" - which means Cagots in Basque Spanish -and in his reports, all the knowledge of the carpenters of navies of the old days were these Cagots.

Finally exploring caves and the surroundings of Zugarramurdi, the "women" of our little groups got submerged by feelings of another time, contacted the memories of these women of Cagots, burnt on the stake by the inquisition against the witches.

We soon discovered that despite the weighing Omerta on these presumed cursed people, the tracks of their presence remained well marked in the stone of churches. The spirit of Cagots had survived well and truly the multiple inquisitions. Throughout their existence, which goes back up much farther than their official history, they had always been banished from the population on the pretext of being vector of contagious diseases. Obviously thanks to the "Knowledge ", Cagots survived big epidemics of plague resulting from cometary impacts which rhythmed the end of cycle." The authorities of the time were quick to point them as a "cursed people", responsible for the epidemics.

In the same way as the Cathars, the Cagots have never disappeared. They are "resuscitated" today well and truly in the genome of some individuals, working in the Service to Others so that the deserving portion of humanity can succeed the dimensional change which will soon propel it in a new dimension of reality in the best condition as possible.

The Cagots were rejected, exactly because they crossed all the wars, all the epidemics, all the disasters, without ever suffering from it. They disappeared here to reappear there, because they detained a fabulous secret: The Knowledge. The same secret that Yeshua, Plato, Fulcanelli, and many others knew and delivered only to those who were deserving and who were prepared to inherit from it. This secret which little by little we shall reveal in the next dialogues which will help us to conceive and to carry out the dimension of reality in which we shall soon get a foothold.

"The incredible dream of Jenaël"

The night which succeeded the hike in the massif of Jaizkibel where we discovered among the rocks a reptilian shape and another amphibian one.

(to See video III: <http://www.reseauleo.com/2016/10/17/iii-rêve-de-jenaël-la-momie-partage-chez-mariejeanne-le-03-09-16/>)

I made a powerful dream. While we slept in the van, I dreamed that a man dressed in a doctor's blouse came to find me because, he said, somebody asked for me. He led me to a "military base" style of building and showed a me creature who slept on a kind of metallic table, one of those used during autopsy.

He tells me briefly: He asked for you.

By observing closer the creature asleep on the metallic table, I see that she was like a mummy, completely dried out and that on one his side a big gaping wound persisted. His nose presented an oddity because through his nostrils I distinguished something which looked like a small snail. His eyes were partially covered with an ex-growth of the eyelid.

While I turned her to the stomach, I perceived instead of genitals, a kind of seal which probably had for function to protect them. His body, of hardly 1.50 m was provided with two small arms and ended by a kind of sharp tail.

While I detailed him, I had a strange feeling that something had just penetrated us. A kind of energy invested us. Was it its Soul, the Spirit? I would not know how to define him exactly. The fact remains that this mummified being opened his eyes abruptly and fixed me.

I understood very quickly that he communicated with me through my own thoughts. Probably a kind of telepathy.

He tells me then: I had you be called because I need you if you agree.

Of this being emanated a frequency of such love that, while not knowing about what he wanted, I gave him my approval at once.

Of these two small arms, he seizes my right hand and nibbled it until it bleeds. Strangely I felt the small teeths, but it absolutely did not make feel bad. As he inhaled my blood, the dried-out body of this "alien" began to regenerate and rehydrate, letting appear small scales to certain places of the body, which revealed afterward, the presence of a tail end. As he inhaled my fluids, his body regenerated very quickly. Even his gaping wound which oozed, then bled abundantly closed and was visibly cured.

But the sensation of the nibble woke me. I was crying during my sleep. I cried of gratitude because I understood that this being was somewhere another me who needed my help to be cured of his wound today.

However, even woken, he kept on transmitting me information. This information is at present probably stored in my unconscious. Then here is the continuation of its revelations:

He asserted me that mummified beings like him were hidden in caves of certain Pyrenean mountains which are not going to disappear during the big climate and geological changes to come.

He knew it because he said that he knew the line of the future on which he was and because this line was the one human survivors were going to take to in 5th dimension STO.

He aspired as well as the first of the Covenant indicated as such by the religions, has strictly nothing to do with any alliance with a god. These boxes were a kind of golden condensator which, paired with Djed pillars, were soon to be reactivated by "people" like him. They would serve to project the terrestrial space-time in an already realized future, where the damages of the impact of a big comet remained minor.

He also informed me that the frequency of resonance of those who will participate in this jump between dimensions must already be aligned on that of this New World existing in this "new" future, and that those who will participate in it will have the feeling to be removed by an enormous mother ship.

But it will not really be the case, because it is one of the dimensions parallel of the Earth it even that will act as vessels when we shall cross the wormhole towards this new future.

And, this new future will be populated only with Beings of 5th dimension and will represent a new sphere of experience for those working in Service to Others. One of the skills that we shall have at this moment there will, among others, to become guides or guardian angels of our brothers stayed in 3rd dimension STS, to help those who will choose to walk towards the "Service to Others - STO".

It is thus the continuation of the revelations of this Being who will be the next object of dialogues with the Angel.

In the meantime, we prompt you to view the videos of our getaway in the Basque Country. They are rich in information and revelations, but also the object of dimensional, clearly perceptible attacks by the connoisseurs. Then always keep the sense of the discernment and good viewing.
