Epigenetics

Summary of one year of ketosis

Once more, the last 'Dialogue with our Angel' was a trigger for quantity of questioning, of encouragement and thanks on behalf of the readers.

More and more numerous are the ones who find themselves through the experiments which we share and who often testify to find relevant answers in their questionings. We also noticed that among them, many offer us thoughtful and precious comments, being of an authentic research and an open-mindedness in the Service to Others.

Even doctors and scientists, interested in our approach of the keto diet associated with iodine, contacted us to show surprising advances in epigenetic, obtained by the synergy of this association.

The epigenetics (from the ancient Greek, ἐπί, ἐπί, "cob", and of genetics) is the discipline of biology which studies the molecular mechanisms which modulate the expression of the genetic inheritance according to the context. "While genetics correspond to the study of the genes, epigenetic is interested in a "layer "of further information which defines how these genes are going to be used by a cell or not".

Among our readers, some working in big research structures, generally knew how to keep themselves at distance of pharmaceutical lobbies, corrupt dogmas which abound in our world and refused to credit the deceitful doctrines dedicated to corrupt our civilization.

They remained free enough of any prejudice, because their freedom of thought has been little or no distorted, nor corrupted by the mental manipulation resulting from these troops of psychopaths, sick of their personal predator of and their fathomless need for recognition...

We are thus delighted to notice that there still exist people who are honest with themselves (apparently even among the elites at the top of the social pyramid), who, far from any corruption or indoctrination, have begun a real work on themselves and express it in and through their work.

Numerous testimonies also reach us about psychic manipulations by their immediate superiors and bring back the abuses of which they were victims.

Others describe attacks by black Shadows when they began to perceive reality or tell their transdimensional experiences with beings of the corpus STS (humans or transdimensional Beings of 4th density) particularly ill-intentioned.

Thus, these witnesses had the courage to experiment and to perceive the vilest aspects of Creation, their dark sides, their wounds of the Soul (projection, attachment, guilt, fear...), their need for recognition, their shamanic descent in Hell, their fight against their own devils... and recognized them, and openly dare to speak about it.

They dare to tell, to describe how they tumbled in the inmost depths, because they succeeded in unmasking their predator and because they know to what extent he led them at the bottom of the abyss.

They learnt and understood that this predator whom they rejected so much, was only part of their aching Soul. This part of themselves whom they necessarily had to solve in the light and the destructive aspects of themselves which they had to lead through a process of acceptance-redemption-healing to free their Soul of the corrupted Matrix.

These brave witnesses in their experiences, are neither big channels, nor spiritual teachers, nor gurus, nor master of wisdom. They are humble, sincere, honest and authentic people towards themselves and with their Being.

They are like you and us, who sometimes learn very violently of our errors, but who do not let ourselves be corrupted by fine words pronounced by Lizzies reptilians, Greys and other entities of 4th density STS through their human thoughts.

They are the real researchers of the truth, unmistakably committed on the way of liberation and are the ones who can reveal the deceit in their own speech. Having learnt to detect the lies from the "subtlety" of 4th density, they became the experienced experiencers of the difficult 4th Way, the real Way of the Ascension of Consciousness.

In the previous dialogue we resumed Laura Knight-Jadczyk's terms which announced:

"- the initiation, it is not someone who comes to show us the reality. It is not to see the universe as One. The initiation it is to see yourself as a liar who feeds on others. It is to measure yourself on the alder of the truth. "It is to see that the Predator feeds on the Self, and on others, and propagates the infection to all those that he claims to love and who wants to help. -"

Nothing is truer!

Most people prefer to ignore the real sense of an initiation and to turn their look towards beautiful illusions, because the truth, whatever it is, is sometimes difficult for them to discern and even more to bear.

Develop the Niama's Creative Force

The teachings contained in the "Dialogues with our Angel" - by always testing them ourselves before publishing them - became our strength and served us of initiatory trials to learn to perceive beyond our current reality.

This force which drives us today, propels us to relate our experiences of life and to testify of our experiences, to support all those who like us, learn to surpass the fear of emancipating themselves from the Matrix of Illusion, in which we are only surviving.

And as usual, by communicating the way we are gradually getting to overcome the pitfalls of this Matrix, we know that new possibilities, completely unknown and unsuspected, open as the lights illuminate our road (see Diag 43).

To overcome these pitfalls is not only to overcome our fears, but to develop in us a kind of force of balance. This force has nothing to do with a force of opposition to the energy of predation such as reaction, anger, struggle, rancor, resentment, etc.

Located beyond the reflex of the reptilian brain, it affects our emotional very little. This strength comes from the expression of our Beingness. It is the power of truth, which express no hatred towards the patriarchal corpus of STS predation, it is a creative force coming from our Higher Self or Spirit which, if it cannot be clearly defined, we named "The Force" or "Niama" (name from the Gina'abul Sumerian syllabary). This strength probably corresponds to what some traditions call the energy of kundalini, which when used wisely (in the meaning of a creative power) could reveal the Christic energy.

We found in an interview of Anton Parks a perfect definition (in our opinion) of the word "Niama".

Anton Parks : Regarding your question about Niama, here's what I understand : There are two forms of Niama, the Niama of power acquired by genetic filiation and the Niama obtained by sensitivity and openness. In the first case, we are cut off from the others and the world (see the Usumgal), in the second case, the individual would be rather open to the world (see the Amasutum, especially the old line).

Indeed, this force of sensitivity and openness is "The creative force" of the group of ancient planners Amasutum, in which a part of Sand (her Superior Consciousness) recognize herself.

Anton Parks: Niama is linked to genes, but some form of Niama can be developed and is related to personal evolution and emotional maturity, as it is the case with the Amasutums.

The Niama or the creative Strength is thus a form of energy coming from the "depths" of our DNA which is also passed on by genetic parentage. And it is this Strength which pushes us to evolve.

This powerful creative energy acquires itself by the personal evolution and the emotional maturity, thus by the Knowledge of the universal Laws and a real internal work which tune our frequency in accordance to that of our transdimensional Being.

However, the same strength can be also used to defend oneself. If this strength is voluntarily used to damage, it turns itself simply against the individual who manipulates it and will destroy him (it is the reason of the entropy of our human civilization).

It can be multiplied tenfold by means of an electromagnetic technology which in some traditions is symbolized by the wavy blade of the Archangel Michael, or the cross of Ankh, this incredible hidden technology of the old Egyptians, the laser sword of the Jedi master, and the Ugur crystal, also called Girku in Anton Parks's works.

This technology consists in a kind of electromagnetic amplifier which uses a crystal to multiply tenfold the Energy of this Force or Niama.

In this connection, we join here the testimony of Marie-Jeanne (Testimony. 28), reader of the LEO Network. <http://www.resealeo.com/2016/05/24/t%C3%A9moignage-28-marie-jeanne>

This extract is pulled from a commentary further to the Chapter V - The egg and the fire: Alchemy of the couple by Helen and David:

[...] After having followed 4 years ago the Egyptian teachings in Spain of the school of the right eye of Horus (masculine School) I left very perplexed and suspicious. Something told me, through the content of the teaching, the way to approach it, the teacher and the pupils whom it attracted that the main attraction for a lot of people was based on the fascination for power, power which in my opinion has two faces, also fascination for technology.

[...] About Ankh, the same teacher had however taken care of saying that the person who handles it must be not only very careful with the way of proceeding, of directing it, but also to be clear with the nature of his intentions. Because Ankh can heal, but also kill, boost somebody's energy or empty him. Moreover, deaths would have taken place in Catalonia, further to its use by alumni of this teacher who, after information, have proved to be Freemasons.

Anton Parks specified about Niama:

"We are all the descendants of these entities who appropriated themselves the name of 'god'."

Whether it is by direct lineage or in quality of genetic children, we can all develop the Strength of Niama within us."

We can thus understand that through our humanity, in other words our body, our genetics, our consciousness, our emotional, we have, whoever we are, the power to activate the strength of Niama to put it in the service of humanity and in the Service to Others.

In the Christian tradition, Jesus repeated that all those who choose to follow him- in the sense to reconnect to our Christic energy -will be persecuted sooner or later.

Matthew 10.34 - 36,

34 - Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. 35 For I have come to turn

““a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law

36 - a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.

When the Strength of Niama puts itself in the service of the Creation, it reveals all the power of the Christic energy. This power is such as the sharp edge of the blade of the sword (of the Christ, of king Solomon, or Michael) which cuts the lies to uncover the truth!

We can all develop the Strength of Niama within us. It implies that through our humanity, in other words our body, our genome, our consciousness, our emotional, we have all, whoever we are, the power to activate this Strength to put it to the "Service to Others - STO".

To describe this Strength, we are simply going to illustrate it through the shamanic symbolism appropriate to the feminine. Let us continue to develop the new "misadventures" of Sand with the clutch of our van and her Pôle Emploi, because there were consequences. (see Dial. 43).

Let us remind that the decoding of our shamanic perceptions through the metaphoric symbolism, the van represents our inside, our intimacy, the way we express ourselves on our path of life. And Pôle Emploi, this agency of so-called public service personifies in our society the archetype of the dominating patriarchy.

Anton Parks: In Chronicles, we see well that the Kingus (the dominating/predatory patriarchy) have a single objective: Knowledge (in the sense of scientific knowledge), technological development (the labor market) and power (by the domination and fear).

After our last dialogue, took place a new episode between Pôle Emploi and Sand who, unsheathing her sword of truth, drew from it the conclusions. Because it was high time that we followed our new way of life, to get a breath of fresh air, to clear off... because now that we had repaired the clutch, we could take in all safety our new path. Then here it is!

Sand relate : Once we changed the clutch and got back our small van, we realized that despite this repair, a small problem persisted! After information, the garage owner revealed us, that the clutch was not the problem but that it concerned a tiny defect of "the vent valve", without consequence for the smooth running of the vehicle.

This defect of the vent valve had for symptom in certain conditions, a small reduction in the driving of our van which obviously does not require to be developed here. On the other hand, what we had to learn, is that to put our energy in motion, we needed air, to clear off, open to the world and to cross a new landing, a new initiation to exceed the fear of lacking, by abandoning us confidently to the unknown.

In parallel to our history of the van, Pôle Emploi allowed me to cross this initiation by sending a me new summons identical to the first one. I had the feeling to relive the same sequence as the previous time and thus I sent them the following email:

Madam C.,

Three months after having been summoned by your services, I have just received a mail summoning me on April 22nd, 2016 for an umpteenth workshop to realize a resume, as well as a meeting on April 29th, 2016.

Is it a joke?

Wasn't I explicit enough during my last interview with your predecessor?

During this meeting of January 12th, 2016, I had clearly defined the actions that I took within the frame of my personal project. I had written a letter about it to your services, maybe did you not read it?

In this case, I join you a copy. You will certainly notice that in this letter, I was still accommodating enough but this time, it is too much!

How long will you dare to offend the job-seekers by making them carry the responsibility of the search for a work, while the job market is in free fall, and reached an unprecedented abyss?

Do you think it is intelligent to offer this kind of service which leads only to maintain the hypocrisy, while we know that our country, with its clique of criminals and parasites within the political class, is one of the most productive factories of jobless people in Europe!

<http://fr.sott.net/article/28064-La-mafia-des-elus-Philippe-Pascot-sur-la-clique-de-criminels-et-de-parasitesau-sein-de-la-classe-politique>

How long will you continue to make the job-seekers "sweat" with phony internships?

As an employment agency, is not your job to advise people? Is not it necessary to support them in their research?

To give advice, is it not to supply factual information rather than to pretend to ignore the facts?

Our world, our society, the system in which we soak is corrupted, and it goes straight towards an unprecedented collapse!

And do you know why it's like that? Did you wonder why our social system is as it is? Why so many revolts, wars, violence, injustice, corruption?

Our country has been living with mass unemployment for forty years. Forty years that all the so-called governmental measures are ineffective to fight this overwhelming human and social suffering (+ of 788%).

Nothing can prevent the vertiginous increase of the mass redundancies and the number of job-seekers, because it is orchestrated by the political elites who fill their pockets with the money of the people (unemployed and taxpayers) to transfer it in tax havens.

See the case of Panama Papers:

<http://fr.sott.net/article/28023-Panama-papers-l-empire-contre-attaque-ou-le-Titanic>

<http://fr.sott.net/article/28020-Les-Panama-Papiers-attaquent-les-ennemis-de-l-Empire-et-sont-un-moyen-dechantage-ideal>

<http://fr.sott.net/article/28045-Panama-Papiers-complot-americano-sorosien-Tant-pis-si-effet-boomerang-ily-a>

In your opinion, why you think the French people are raising themselves up against the government, against the new labor law (conf the movement "Nuit Debout")?

<http://fr.sott.net/article/28051-Nuit-debout-une-autre-revolution-de-couleur>

<http://fr.sott.net/article/28014-Nuit-Debout-le-combat-social-continue-en-France>

Maybe you ignore that very soon the governmental authorities such as Pôle-Emploi, the Urssaf, the Tax services will too be on the hot seat? Maybe it is high time to inform yourself!

By the way, are you not yourself on a hot seat? Your predecessors laughed at my face when I asserted it to them! However, where they did go? How come that I get a new councillor so often?

What does it hide?

I was myself employed at the Lyonnaise des eaux, a structure which held a great amount of money, and it didn't prevent me from being dismissed! Yes, I too thought that I was safe because I had signed a CDI!

Maybe it is us the unemployed persons that still allow administrations like Pôle Emploi to work?

The economic chaos which comes will spare no one, even the employees of Pôle Emploi, rest assured of that!

By turning a blind eye to the reality of this world, do not you participate to the illusion and the deceit by obliging people to corrupt themselves?

It is exactly because most people prefer to turn a blind eye to what's going on behind the curtain of our society, rather than to open the curtain and to face it, that we arrived at this dead end!

People spend their life to fool themselves into thinking they are safe.

They fool themselves perpetually. At home, they lie! To their husband / wife, they lie!

To their children, they lie! At work, they lie! In society, they lie!... And yes madam, this is the way we educate our children to perpetuate the lies!

Obviously, it is much easier not to wonder, or to question yourself, to stay in the dark! This way, when something happens, do we not like to use excuses by saying: "I did not know?"

There is a strong probability that soon you too, will be registered in one of those agencies (if they remain!). And you will find yourselves just like me, in front of a counselor who like your predecessor signed an agreement with the management (not to say to sell his Soul to the devil), to continue to persuade jobseekers that they are responsible for their situation or that their resume is not good enough!

Do you believe you will get away with this kind of nonsense?

Sincerely, do you feel at ease with it?

Then yes, this time I am angry! I am fed up to be taken for a fool, to let us believe that the situation of the job market is going to improve like our president is doing!

On this matter, I advise you to look attentively the list of redundancies in France and on the world level. It is phenomenal! (See an extract of the year 2016 joined to this letter)

Maybe that writing emails, summons etc...., occupies your days, but as for me, I refuse to lose two hours of my time to find myself in front of people who are absolutely not tuned to the point of view of others and their situation.

Your predecessor confided me that she had signed to obey the orders of the hierarchy and implicitly to continue to broadcast statistics which are falsified anyway!

No! I am not as those who by ignorance or fear of seeing the truth, continues to maintain it and to indulge in it.

I am not of those who, by fear of the perverse and psychopathic system of our society, signed to continue to support the deceit.

Nevertheless, solutions to the distresses of the unemployed do exist well and truly and this report to MY work! The one I spend absolutely all my time and put all my energy into, to help those who just like me, agreed to release themselves from the lies, from the deceit.

My work helps them to stand firm, to understand and to acquire Knowledge and this knowledge begins with an apprenticeship: That to understand how stop lying to ourselves!

Also know that this work for which Pôle Emploi supports me, takes me so much time that yes! I refuse from now on to be engaged in such a comedy!

In life, we have all the choice: That to answer mechanically to what the others expect from us, to maintain the lie and the stupidity or to say STOP! I take my responsibilities by stopping feeding a corrupted system, which I do not believe in. And this choice, you also have it!

A word to the wise is enough.

As soon as she received my letter, "madam C", contented herself with sending me a new summon for the same phony workshop! As I obviously didn't presented me to it, the director personally gave me a warning before radiation for absence to this meeting and asked me to justify myself.

I thus began to answer him by a registered letter that is here :

At the attention of "Mr. C", director of the Pôle Emploi agency of L.

Sir C.,

I would be grateful to you for taking notes that the present letter is a legitimate written answer and justification of my part to my absence to the workshop and interview to realize a CV.

The explanations below constitute the evidences you asked for.

Before anything else, know that this is letter is not personally addressed to you, but is intended for the director and the representative of a governmental public institution. (I have no grievance against you, or against the employees of Pôle Emploi.)

I sent the letter by registered mail so that it does not end inadvertently under a pile of documents, like it already happened to me in the past but so that you are "legally forced" to acquaint yourself with its content.

Thus I invite you, if you want to remain honest with yourself and with me, to take the time to read it in its entirety. So, by offering you the possibility of opening yourself to other prospects, I shall have made (for example with you) the work for which Pôle Emploi pays me.

To begin with, allow me to doubt the origin of the e-mail which was sent to me. It is so stuffed with mistakes of grammar, of spelling, of punctuation and turns of phrase, that I had taken it at first for a spam!

Was it an automatic e-mail? Wouldn't the one who wrote it also need a course? So be it!

As you mention it, there is probably error "somewhere", because not only did I presented myself at the interview with "madam B" three months ago, but I clearly expressed her my position.

Sir, now I am addressing myself directly to you.

I am unable to use my therapist's status to make my living on the suffering of people. To make money on their back to benefit from it, would it fit to your ethics? I do not even dare to imagine it.

I am unable to pursue this small perverse game to have to be accountable to individuals (the councilors of Pôle Emploi), who care for nothing of my current considerations, simply because strictly speaking my activity does not go into one of their categories of job-seeker.

Did they sign (as the state employees of the executive) to obey blindly and without consciousness to the directives of the hierarchy? The same hierarchy which tries to lower the number of subscribers of the agency and to minimize the official figures which would benefit our elected representatives?

It is probably for that reason that our president recently crowed over a fall in unemployment in our country.

As for me, I am accountable to nobody, except for my own consciousness. As you are supposed to do the same for yourself, I am responsible for my own life and for my own decisions.

Then by what right do you use the threat to remove my allowances (16.27€ / day) when I work in the service to others?

Pôle Emploi gives me allowances like it does to countless other people, and thanks to them I can do a work which passionate me.

Do you obey the directives of the elected representatives which dictate to begin procedures of radiation of wide scale under any pretext to relieve the finances of the state?

According to AFP, since summer 2015, Pôle Emploi prescribes high dose of two trainings

Activ' project and Activ' emploi – entrusted to private operators of investment. The method is not new, but the pressure put on the job seekers was never so strong, with, as a bonus, discounted job or radiation! And one stone two knocks: Fewer jobless persons and less public service.

" There is really something happening at the moment", reports Rose-Marie Péchallat, president of the Appeal site of Radiation (www.recours-radiation.fr). " On the forum, some dare to speak about their experiences. "Signals of alert which are also perceived by Benoit, an adviser of a Pôle Emploi agency in the south suburb of Paris, who has been practicing for twenty years:" We get people back in tears, mistreated. And Pôle Emploi let this happen "

<http://www.humanite.fr/Pôle-emploi-quand-le-privé-prend-les-choses-en-mains-602778>

But if I did my homework and filled my obligations, I also prompt you to hold yours which are to embody those of a representative of a public governmental authority. He must show honesty and to serve "correctness and truth" and not the hypocrisy (because the justice - the legislation - does not always serve the truth!).

Threaten people! Is it really a way of being a so-called republic of "freedom, equality, brotherhood"? Or is it a distasteful way of avoiding the dead end?

Lies, everything is only lies! Our current society is based on the lie, the ignorance and the profit, goes not only to a national but global disaster, which will eventually destroy the balance of our humanity.

The governments in powers did apparently not learn from the previous wars.

Lies, deceits and manipulations are implanted by governments which are not even elected by the people anymore. These individuals, are they not themselves these psychopaths (in the medical sense of the term), the real persons in charge of the decline of our society?

They distinguish themselves not only in France and in Europe, but in the governments of the whole world under the occult shape of a New World Order, set up on the Nazi model of a few decades ago!

They can persist in their post of corrupt politician, because they are very probably supported by ignorant individuals, hypnotized by the attraction of a hierarchical power, a function with responsibility such as yours.

Then maybe that the hierarchy of Pôle Emploi is also under their supervision?

Are you, too, in the service of the corruption, the shams, of the hypocrisy and you ignore it?

But maybe you also refuse to believe in it and you are taken between the iron and the anvil?

I know that there are still honorable people. Are you one of them? It is what I still want to believe...

Then let's think about it? How do we have to position ourselves?

Is it not high time to face the obvious facts, the truth? It is exactly what I am offering you to do.

When will you understand that to blame to the job-seekers is not the solution?

When will you understand that the decline of the labor market is due to the thirst of the truth of the frightened workers, who do not know how to survive anymore, but who more and more refuses to endorse our corrupt society?

The majority of job-seekers are swindled because we make them believe that they are responsible for the increase of unemployment. We let them (via the official media) believe in the illusion of a still prosperous employment market.

Why do you believe that more and more citizens come down in the streets to face the riot police?

Do you still refuse to believe what I tell you?

I thus invite you to think, to get rid of your blinkers and to open your spirit to reality, who despite what you can think of it, will explode in your face sooner or later!

Then in your opinion, in view of the previous emails which I transmitted to the agency, and in view of what I have just expressed to you, why I would still agree to be allowed to be manipulated by participating in virtual internships which end to nothing?

Why I would agree to go into this fool's game established by the hierarchy of Pôle Emploi, which is itself under the directive of corrupted and perverted senior officials?

France is regularly ranked third supplier of weapons in the world behind the United States and Russia, thanks to the efforts of its government!

This government administered by individuals among whom some people were several times judged and condemned for corruption, trading of favors, embezzlement of the colossal sums of money, sexual psychopaths, trade of weapons, some even go to the parliamentary sessions with their electronic bracelet.

Do you find it fair while we ask a clean police record to every worker?

I strongly recommend you view this video of an old elected representative to confirm that I do not lie :

(Philippe Pascot) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=\_rLok--wdCs

The same government which established the labor code and the grotesque laws relating to it and on which you base yourselves to threaten the unemployed persons.

It is easy to hide behind pretexts (orders or directives) in order to avoid dealing with its own responsibilities and in its own consciousness.

Do you find decent to remove €490 which allow an unemployed person to survive, while at the top of the social pyramid, number of individuals sees themselves attributed, besides their monthly salaries, allowances going to more than 800 000€ tax-free? Is not vile slander?

Of course, politics and their henchmen are willing to sacrifice France, Europe and its population, but not their profits!

How many times did we hear politicians assert that it is necessary "to help the workers"? It is probably for this reason that since 2009, more than 10 000 billion dollars were transferred towards the financial industry to fight against the Economic cycle.

The money was supposed "to stream downward", towards the labor market. It was not the case. It generously fed the offshore bank accounts of a batch of elected representatives and stayed in the pockets of the richest people on the planet.

Our country, managed by servants in the pay of foreign masters, is intended to continue the war against its population, to accelerate its genocide, to prostitute itself to bankers and other dark spawn. Why would the upholders of the internationalist funds be ashamed? The members of the European Commission, as the leaders of the States are all willing and corrupted.

The European youth is the first victim of this crisis. According to Eurostat, the unemployment rate of those below 25 years old passed from 15% in February 2008 to more than 23.4% today.

The unemployment rate of the 15-25 years old exceeds 35% in Portugal, Spain, Italy and in Greece. And France follows them very closely.

I ask you: in what world do we live? Why are there so many psychopaths among the people? Do you want to know, or do you prefer to bury your head in the sand?

I am not fooled, as you're maybe seem to believe it.

I had the courage to open my eyes and my consciousness on the reality of our world.

Would you dare to do the same?

Then maybe that the reasons of my absence to this internship were not clearly transmitted to you?

I am thus going to repeat them!

Even if Pôle Emploi meets my vital needs, I refuse to sell my Soul.

I refuse to pretend to believe that Pôle Emploi is still competent to propose me a job which correspond to my researcher's aspiration of the truth (or of thrower of alert if you prefer).

I thus invite you to do the same, that is to start your quest of the truth.

As you already anticipate it certainly, the current humanity is sinking into an indescribable chaos. If you still doubt it, it would be maybe urgent to inform you, especially by avoiding official media, where journalists are too corrupted.

I work within the LEO Network, which is a collective of people (among whom some are former employees of Pôle Emploi disenchanted by the practices of the agency).

This non-profit organization, broadcasting information in its totality, has for objective not only to reveal all the forms of lies, manipulation, hypocrisy, swindles which destabilize our society, but aims to offer resources and Knowledge which would allow our society to emerge from poverty and get free of its entropic future.

<http://www.reseauleo.com/>

<http://bienvenussurlanouvelleterre.jimdo.com/>

This entropic future comes very rapidly.

<https://fr.sott.net/>

No need to be a soothsayer, a visionary or a prophet. This chaos is due to the extraordinary corruption which sits within our government and public institutions (of which Pôle Emploi is a part of).

Then why you believe that people rebel not only in France, in Europe, in the Middle East and everywhere else?

Conf. At night up http://www.lemonde.fr/societe/article/2016/05/03/nuit-debout-peut-etre-porteur-dune-transformation-sociale-de-grande-ampleur\_4912446\_3224.html

Conf National Council of Transition of France: <http://www.conseilnational.fr>

As any avant-gardist activity, the LEO Network investigates in various domains, such as health, psychology, ufology, political ponerology, anthropocosmic connections of humanity, quantum physics, the secret History, religions, societal functioning, etc.

It works to propose new solutions which are sometimes still inconceivable for the human mind, to allow a way out of the loop of retrocausality in which humanity is still stuck.

For the moment our main subject is health, the diet, the cellular regeneration and treatments of diseases...

Then why this kind of activity in the service of our Society, of our Humanity, as well as that of "researcher of truth", cannot be recognized by the official administrative or governmental authorities, such as Pôle Emploi? Because it is not lucrative? Because it denounces the corruption?

I ask you the question!

As branch manager of L., you too must make a choice:

Continue to ignore the reality or dare "to turn your look upward" to learn to unmask the real culprits of human misery.

You have the choice to obey the orders of our leaders by supporting this corruption and this gigantic masquerade, or like many servicemen, members of the anti-riot police, judges, men of law, honest people, you can also have the choice to show wisdom, discernment and open-mindedness, because you too are one of the links in charge of the future of our country.

Sincerely.

Obviously, being too afraid of questioning himself, this gentleman C. sent me the traditional mail of radiation explaining to me that he had taken the time to read the letter, that it was rich in information, but that he could not approve my argumentation.

This gentleman had for first name "Christ - Off".

In parallel a new character "C" made his entrance and came to disrupt our everyday life! He was a reader who almost every day, sent us his comments, his texts and... his recommendations!

At the beginning of our exchanges, his papers were pertinent and had a sense. We moreover published them on the LEO Network. Furthermore, his partner seemed to support him in her approach because some rare times, she signed their emails too. Finally, a couple united in their quest, we thought! ...

Nevertheless, "C" began to become as intriguing as he was intrusive, and it alerted us. At the beginning, his emails seemed worthy of interest and let show through certain knowledge. And it is moreover what confused us. Good thing Laura Knight had explained in detail her adventures with "her Frank Scott or her Vincent Bridge", otherwise we would not have known how to put words on the situation that we were experimenting. We wondered why we failed in answering these inexhaustible emails, while we were interested in their content!

What did take place? It was simply impossible for us to enter in contact with this couple.

More hardly still visible the opening of "C" and his interest to participate in the LEO Network, had motivated and propelled us to transform our "house on wheels" to be more comfortable and have more autonomy to move (symbolism of the famous vent!). The new clutch had to open us to the world in complete safety.

But having delayed in answering his emails, those let little by little two completely different energies show. The more we remained silent, the more another part of him, began to emerge to take up all the room.

The smugness and the pride which leaked out in his messages signed clearly the presence of his personal predator who at times, violently got the upper hand. But this energy did not show through in the texts that he had sent us for the LEO Network.

With whom did we have to deal?

Considering his psychic influence on Helen and me, we had understood that this character replayed some memoirs about the planners Amasutum, that he even called "false mothers".

He knew perfectly how to juggle with words, order the vocabulary, had answers to everything and pushed the nerve until he gave us lessons. It was the first time that we had to deal with a character of this tempering.

Charismatic, arrogant, agitator, egocentric and false modesty were part a of the outfit of this outstanding manipulator. His very selective analytical mind spotted only what arranged him. He was bored of the LEO Network, and did not need the ketosis, nor the iodine to walk on "his way".

Obviously! When we know that a ketogenic diet supported by the cure of iodine associated with the occasional fast "brought down scales", we can understand why so much resistance on this matter.

Strongly manipulated by his predator, I had smelt his energy quickly, but I knew that the predation was going to teach me. What was curious, is that Jenaël only perceived the other face of this character: His human potential. Undoubtedly, both facets of "C", by interacting with us in a depolarized way, created so to speak some of division in our couple.

At the beginning of the experience, I lived it like an intrusion. A part of me felt victim because I was faced with an executioner: The predator of "C". This one by his multiple interventions tried to make me give in, to submit. In this intense emotional state, I experienced a profound frustration, depreciation, despoilment, humiliation and anger.

In the front line, I received the numerous emails of "C". Still perturbed by his powerful predatory strength and haunted by his energy, I found myself forced to think of him! Even at distance, I knew when he thought of us and what happened in their couple. The proof being that every time, we received an email full of projections made on the relationship between Jenaël and me, while we were far from living what he imagined...

It was staggering! His predator hated the planners Amasutum and the Feminine with every fiber of his being. As so-called "false mothers", he held them responsible of the perversion of humanity.

During several days, Jenaël was busy with reorganizing the van, whereas I tried hard to publish texts on the LEO Network. More and more, the lack of my masculine was felt. And the more he was absent, the more the predator "C" became intrusive!

Jenaël read the emails which were personally intended for us, but he was focused on refitting our van and remained unable to answer. He was simply not available.

Whereas without being able to defend myself, I took the attacks of the predator of "C", as I desperately waited for the return of my masculine to be able to extricate myself from this trap.

Why didn't Jenaël perceived the game which brewed? The more I showed him the inconsistencies and manipulations, the least he could hear me. Jenaël was on the sideline not interrupt the experience, and I ended up alone in the face of misunderstanding, not heard by my masculine and frustrated. Why was I not being heard?

It was the first time that " something " interfered between us. Jenaël and I did not manage to agree. Nevertheless, I saw very well the human potential of "C" just like him, but how could I ignore the influence of his predator?

Also happening through Pôle Emploi, these events were pushing me back against the wall. What was I going to discover if I succeeded in revealing the underlying program in me that maintained me in a form of survival?

Because it was a question of cutting my allowances, and the "C" (madam "C", sir "C" of Pôle Emploi, then "C..." the intrusive reader) embodied the role of the dominant predatory male of the masculine. All three pushed me to the change, to the transformation. But for changing what? What all this "C" meant? What did I have to learn to go beyond my programs?

How could I open to the change, if I didn't succeed in exceeding the "submissive" role in which I felt trapped. Felling all my powerlessness, my feet and hands were tied.

To give me additional indications, when I read the emails of "C", the energy of his partner was totally absent! But where was she? Why did I feel that "C" took up all the room and that, consequently, she made herself invisible?

The few times where she manifested herself, I felt all the depth of her despair. She pretended that at the time she couldn't speak anymore and that she had been suffering from a handicap for 3 years which slowed her down in her spiritual progress. Her only escape: Painting.

Her confessions made me thrill because I had already seen the same plan of submission in the handicap of my mother-in-law who is also named "C" and the influence of my father (symbol of the male predator) in her silence and her multiple sclerosis.

(This disease symbolizes a great suffering which shows life with big discouragement. Something or somebody paralyzes the person. This autoimmune disease is the picture of the revolt which reside in the person and which express the lack of sweetness in life (cf: Le grand dictionnaire des malaises et maladies of Jacques Martel.)

I clearly perceived the mirror effect, which, because of the predator of "C" (that of the couple) prevented me by his energetic influence, to walk in accordance with my masculine. Quite simply, I felt incomplete in my Beingness!

What did I have to make of all this information?

New clues made their appearance, completing a part of the puzzle. I was finally going to begin to understand why "C" took so much place in my bubble of perception. At the beginning of the creation of the LEO Network, I made a dream where several couples came "to join" Jenaël and I to participate in the LEO Network. This time, this dream took form in our reality and a real couple came to meet us: Christine and Stéphane! A "C" and a "S"!

Their visit in our region had for objective to meet us. Christine was passionate about the game of the tarot and about genealogy (let us call back that the genealogy is a science which has for objective the search of the origin and the study of the composition of families!). She wanted to return to the origins of the "tarot of Marseille".

According to her, the antique game of tarot, would not result not from Marseille in Bouches du Rhône but from Marceille near Limoux in the Aude. The authentic tarot of Marseille should not be spelt with the letter "S" but with a "C"! Which gives us "The Tarot of Marceille".

Here was another indication. The "C", the same "C" which replaces the "S" of the word Marseille, city where I was born, apparated again to teach me!

Christine explained to us that she suspected this change of letter to be deliberated. When we invert the "C" and associated it with itself, it becomes the "S" of Marseille, of Sand and Stéphane (first name of her husband).

She also specified us that the "S", the 19th letter of the alphabet, represents the "S" of the Snake (the Amasutum); 1 the alpha and 9 the omega. And when we raise the upper loop of the "S", we produce an inverted "C", which placed in front of "C", becomes the "O": A ring, symbolizing the cycle, the Ouroboros, the snake which bites itself in the tail, the ending of a cycle.

As a geneticist, Christine also explained us that she began to make a connection between several symbolism of the "Tarot of Marceille" with certain domains of research in genetics. We shall certainly learn more about it soon because we are brought to see each other again.

What was the Universe showing me through all these signs: The Origin, the snake, the "S" and the "C"? My mind was bubbling! I knew those pieces of information were precious, but I still ignored their signification.

How come that with this couple, we felt serene and confident while with the couple "C" we failed in establishing a connection?

This is when the perverse game of "C" expanded. He became more and more provocative and virulent in his papers and it was obvious to me that he himself could not do otherwise!

This powerful energy which propels us both, does not ask for our opinion. It stands out with intensity and push each other in our extremes so that we succeeded in exceeding our limitations. And my unconscious resistance was so important that I indubitably needed somebody who was up to my programs.

And "C" had exactly this capacity to agree "apparently in good conscience" to play the role of the persecutor to push me against the wall! But what seemed to me the most disconcerting, is that he boasted about it! He had obviously the faculty to be penetrated by the energy of a "Dracos". I was faced with one of the numerous faces of psychopathy, the predatory corpus.

My anger and my rebellion reached their paroxysm! These emails became outrageous with regards to the work we supplied in the administration of the LEO Network and the writing of the "Dialogues with our Angel". What was he looking for? What wanted to teach me his predator?

Feeling at the end of my rope, without Jenaël's support who could not help but let me live in depth what I had to understand, I was eventually penetrated by this powerful energy of transformation by opening myself to the information which his predator tried to deliver me.

By observing what this couple showed me, by raising their own resistance, I knew that his partner failed to take her place because she had become disabled. Through their schema, I saw all my incapacity to reason with them but also perceived all the power and the perspicacity of my clear-sightedness.

If his partner was in this position of submission to the point of being unable to express herself or to move freely anymore, it was because on another plan, she had made this choice and authorized this game by positioning herself as victim. The victimization which went as far as crystallizing her handicap in her body, and it echoed in myself and to my own karmic memories.

Jenaël was absent, I was cut off the protective masculine energy, the one who reassured me and supported me in these moments. Faced with myself, I had to free my own masculine to recover all my Beingness.

As the light (the Information) penetrated my darkness, I contacted the program in me that considered that the Feminine was despoiled by the masculine!

In a snap of a finger, my universe, my safety, the control of my world collapsed! Letting myself being sucked-up in the depths of my Being by a kind of swirling whirlpool, I found fragments of memories of my origins.

This fall in my Being was so rough and puzzling, that I collapsed on the stone floor of the kitchen.

Suddenly in front of me appeared an enormous reptilian male of the "Dracos" kind. And I myself, found my scales of Amasutum. This Being, the patriarch, the masculine, the predatory male, blamed me exactly for what I blamed him: The tear of the separation!

Perceiving this scene under another angle, my Supraconsciousness showed me that the masculine which was in front of me, represented a part of my Being of whom I had been cut off during the fall in embodiment, even before my Soul was embodied in a body of Amasutum.

My resentment (the memory of this suffering) was so deep and painful, that by accusing my masculine polarity, I was only removing all sense of responsibility from me for the suffering of this separation!

Collapsed on the kitchen floor, my legs couldn't carry me anymore. My tears and spasms were so intense that I was choking. I had no control over my body anymore, no control over my feelings. My sobs resulted from so far that it was not I Sand who poured these torrents of tears, but well and truly the Amasutum.

All the anger passed through my humanity was swept to give way to the immense sadness which lived in me for ages. These old memories of reptilian angers had prevented me from contacting my "emotional of sadness".

My Supraconsciousness showed me that the predator and I were like one piece of paper, which during the fall to experiment the dual worlds, must be torn in two - two polarities male / female, masculine / feminine - so that we can experiment THE SEPARATION!

Cut one of one another, we blamed ourselves mutually, just like the torn piece of paper.

When I recovered, Jenaël was at my side. He had "returned" to support me and accompany me to free my ancestral sorrows.

I wept buckets! This predator, my ally, my brother, my teacher, my masculine, showed himself in my life under all possible forms so that I could finally recognize him, and stop rejecting him! I could finally welcome him in me without fear because through the role which he was playing in my Universe - in my bubble of perception – he looked only for my recognition. He called up to the redemption of his Soul!

From now on, I didn't have to be afraid of it, I didn't have to fight anymore, to fight against an enemy. I had found all my Being. He and I were definitively faced with ourselves.

When I understood the lesson, the initiation which proposed me the personal predator of "C", I could take from now on the total responsibility of this experience without feeling me crushed. My Soul had called circumstances to offer me the opportunity of the processing by freeing me from a very old limiting reptilian program.

Further to this transdimensional real-life experience, we received an email of "C" entitled:

"End of cycle!"

It was that very day where I had sent my registered letter with a return receipt to the "Christ-off of Pôle Emploi"! The loop was buckled.

One of the following nights, I made a dream:

I was at a friend's who was my teacher in kinesiology. She metaphorized the teacher, the initiator, the predator, and thus appeared to as me a donor of lessons.

But very fast, having spotted and recognized the energy of her personal predator, instead of losing myself in the fight or rejection, I allowed myself to soak with its power, by accepting the subliminal information which he delivered.

This immediately modified the behavior of my friend, letting her human potential express itself to give way to the opening of an exchange.

At some point she went out of the room, whereas I recorded all my impression on my computer. When she returned, she was very proud to present a me magnificent young man whom she had met. I knew immediately that this being of an "incredible androgynous purity " was for at my research.

Later in my dream, I found myself on a beach with a dominant view on the sea. Repeatedly, I had dreamed of an individual perched on an enormous rock at sea, but never succeeded in seeing his face.

Always my computer in hand, I recorded my perceptions and my experiences not to forget my lessons.

With this, my friend and this androgynous being reappeared. I described them my understandings of these last weeks and my very testing adventures. The young man informed me by telepathy, that he came to me because I had begun to push a door and because he would help me cross it.

In the dream, something prickled me at the level of the legs. I had sand on my calves which I tried to brush aside.

The young man tells me then: If you have pain at the level of your calves, they result from ugly words, or at least from the perception which you have of your "troubles". These "ugly" words ensue inexorably from the sense of guilt which you transport. In your genetics flows the blood of the reptilian predators, but you are not guilty of it. Informe yourself about the meaning of your first name Sand too.

When I woke up, I realized that I had dealt with the LEO androgyne which symbolized my union with the masculine. LEO was the result of the energetic alchemy of a couple. It was the symbol of the Son, the Trinity, the Christ, the shaman. I remembered then that the Christ (Kiristos) was this particle that Amasutum planners had inserted into the genetics of mankind to allow the process of awakening and to be able to, if one wished for it, to pass in the Service to Others.

I examined on Internet while remembering to me that somebody had told a one day that "Sand" in English meant "sand". I thus had to find a relationship between Sand and the sand.

I typed both words on the keyboard and I discovered this:

« The sand to model Super Sand is a unique and innovative material which is a real alternative to the Plasticine ».

It is comparable to sand, but whose grains would stick together, allowing to model all the forms we wish with striking detail.

Super Sand knew how to stand out as the reference of the sand to be modelled thanks to its numerous assets: Its natural origin, an incredibly soft texture and pleasant to the touch, but especially, the fact that it does not dry!

Super Sand is ideal for the development of motricity and for learning the forms and colors. Furthermore, the game encourages creativity and appeal to the imagination. »

All this description about this sand reminded me the creative power of the Amasutums.

Wouldn't it be a wink of my Supraconsciousness which shows me that by using the Niama, by respecting the laws of the Universe, by freeing myself from my need to control things, I can be capable of being allowed to be penetrated by the creative energy to become myself "aware" of my Creation?

Further to it, we received a new email of "C", proposing us a contact by phone. This time, I was ready! This powerful strength which lives in me in these circumstances, authorized me to face the energy of his personal predator. I didn't have to fight any more and to be afraid. No matter who was "C", I knew how to reach beyond the psychic influence of his predator to get in touch with his human potential. Not being affected by his patronizing tendencies and his smugness anymore, I was able to open in complete peace to the information which was intended for me.

To face the authority, the patriarchal entity which established Pôle Emploi, was a powerful initiation. I could not help but trust my deep impulse. No matter what my fate was, what my future potential had in store for me, this Strength was going to help me to open towards a new destination.

By receiving the letter in the mailbox, I knew that I was crossed off. From this moment, we had to manage with the only RSA of Jenaël, knowing that something new was going to take place. Despite all the fears which could appear, I was released, I had not sold my Soul and had discovered the extent of the strength of the Niama!

It was obvious that I was ready to go to the inmost depths of my past. It is impossible to us to create a new future, if we fail in healing our wounds. Release ourselves from our most ancestral memories is determining, otherwise our DNA always plans the same scenario; It is what we name the cycles of retrocausality.

A total reset of our karmic memories is fundamental! And it can be done only with determination, that by exceeding all our most primary fears, developing the Strength of Niama which express itself by our genetics and flow into our veins.

Anton Parks: many Internet users wish to know the keys of happiness and to look towards the future, but they forgot an essential point: To understand our past is essential, because a humanity without past is a humanity without root and without model; A humanity in involution, ready to collapse. Every person who cannot understand it, does not look towards the future. I specify, I speak about humanity and not about our civilization which is heading for disaster anyway if we do not regain self-control. My work on the past of humanity, as the one made by other authors, can help to look towards the future serenely. Humanity has to know the truth of its real history, otherwise it will never get out of its miserable situation.

This strength of Niama is the result of the awareness and the release of all the range of our limiting feelings. And it is only when we shall have poured them in "our Grail" (we shall talk again of it farther), that we shall be ready to exceed the portal bringing us towards a new reality.

Cassiopeans asserted:

The feelings which are limiting are obstacle in the progress. The feelings are also necessary to make progress in the third density. They are natural. When you begin to separate the feelings which limit, those are based on prejudice, of those who open to unlimited possibilities, it means that you get ready to pass to the superior density.

The pheasant, the strength of the Angel and the mousetrap of the LEO

The LEO Network which was inspired by "the Angel" (the guidance of our Superior Consciousness, a part of ourselves also evolving in the future), has for objective to restore the access to the lost Knowledge, to allow to develop the intuition and to rediscover Knowledge.

And it is because we persevere in our quest today, that this future potential some way or the other, can be transformed into a future reality. The LEO Network aspires to point, to light our current reality with its double polarity such as it exists, and not such "as we try to persuade us is it, or such as" we want to believe "it exists.

A Consciousness LEO is unable to lie, to pretend, to flatter, to deceive others, to seduce for personal gain. It is "Consciousness in the service of the Creation" and in the Service to Others. No human being for the moment has reached this stage of Beingness, because through his embodiment, he can become only the path on the way there!

Only the predatory polarity of the Being of which we are all carrier in the present and which will still be in an already realized future for some, has a need for embellishing reality, for flooding the readers in a fog of confusion and in scenes of Pepsos.

Would it be these beings of the entropic future, such as described it a reader so well in his commentary about the entities of the "Brotherhood" of Orion?

LEO (formerly Urmah-Namlú'u) possess a lively, acute, impartial consciousness and leave no concession to deceits, to lies, to shams because they result from a cycle of evolution of superior densities and of an already realized future. And in this precise context, there cannot have any place for lies and deceit, quite naturally because these concepts, resulting from an STS spirit possess no anchoring. They simply do not exist anymore, because they succeeded in overcoming the emotional experiences of fear, shame, attachment, guilt... appropriate to the evolution in the worlds of duality.

It is the reason why we assure again that we are ourselves apprenticed and that we shall never assert having reached any outcome in our quest.

Like every human being who lives in this 3rd dimension, we remain STS consciousnesses, with our errors, our hesitations, our inexperience. However, we have the capacity to learn of our emotional experiences and accept our lessons of life.

By our researches, our understandings and the verifications which result from it, we learn more and more to trust our intuition to free us of our unconstructive feelings and our prejudices.

One thing's for sure! We are resolved to leave for the quest of Knowledge with the support of our Angel (our Higher Self), quest that despite all the stumbling blocks and the multiple "STS" attacks we share with strength and sincerity, to progress towards the Service to Others when we shall reach densities of superior existence.

To testify of our way of proceeding and because we were still able to notice the "deceitful retorts" emitted by the followers of Crist' Al Chaya (sometimes even perceived by our sensibility as emotionally very virulent), we still are in the obligation to have to peel the schemes of the STS corpus, the Greys from Orion.

The latter were great teachers and as such, even if it could seem too recurring, we will often speak of it again in this dialogue.

The Greys of Orion, who are only reptilian psychic projections, are these entities who deceive their world by being been thought of as so-called Melchisedeck.

Actually, beyond their transdimensional manipulation, we had something to understand!

For more clarity in our explanations and as the reader was already able to notice it, we took the initiative to arbitrarily separate the world STS in two polarities:

- The "negative" STS gathering the psychopaths, the organic portals, the entities without Souls, the demonic beings... who populate certain plans of the astral, the human being of 3rd density or the spheres of the 4th density STS...
- The "positive" STS, representing most of the human beings of 3rd density or those disembodied in the astral, and the "love and light" New Age population who remains unconscious, little interested or deviated from the Reality under the supervision of the Matrix STS...

The corpus STS of 4th density of "the former reptilian alliance", gathers masters of all kinds. Beyond the hypocrisy, beyond their talent in projections and psychic jamming and the cross-dimensional hypnotic manipulation, they are also experts in genetics, in biology, in "sacred" geometry, in mathematics, in computing, in physics, in armament, etc.

But beyond their extraordinary skills, they are also the ones who feed on the Soul of the human beings by feeding themselves of the energy of their devoted "spiritual teachers", who feed on the energy of their followers themselves.

So, these last unconscious of the transdimensional influence of the consortium and the personal predator in their thoughts, remain unable to perceive its manipulations. These entities, master - teacher STS, by using a secret language while conveying a teaching suggesting a very high consciousness, often pass by the way of channelling to spread their devilish plans.

Unfortunately, many bloggers philosophers of the Awakening in search of sensational, fell between their claws and for years already, remained captive.

Quite simply because they failed in perceiving their personal predator to learn to see beyond appearances.

Here is thus one of the comments that we received about the entity Crist' Al Chaya:

« This message is lacking transparency, with its titles, its ascensional processes, and aims, it seems to me, at diverting the researcher of a humble, simple, direct way by the connection " to his internal Being, his Angel. It seems to me essential to follow at first a relationship with the Angel oneself, before channelling other entities of which it becomes then difficult to determine the origin, the too often misty intentions... All this looks a little like a set of Peplos. However, the error of interpretation is always possible, this is the way a spirit walks in search of the Truth... »

Undoubtedly, we agree with this enough because the watchword of the predatory consortium is to preach some truth to spread the lies...

The obvious mission of the human being is then to discover other realities and other truths beyond their deceptions; discoveries which can be made only through the sphere of the emotional... The "celestial philosophy" which comes out from this kind of channelling, looks like a poisoned cake which can kill very slowly the one who is not watchful.

We asserted repeatedly that the STS of 4th density can become our teachers. And from the moment we become capable of a real discernment and when we "experienced and assimilated Knowledge", it also becomes in a way, the case for Crist' Al Chaya and all the predators of his tempering. We must learn to distinguish the beyond, to surpass the hypnotic illusion induced by these entities, to perceive beyond the fables which these Beings teach us.

The extraordinary forgeries-teachings proposed by the STS of 4th density are obviously spread so that we gulp down their knowledge without any restraint. But we must learn at first to thwart this trap by developing our ingenuity, by showing perspicacity. Then only, we shall be capable of revealing the spirit of the predator within us!

Therefore, the teaching of Crist' al Chaya (the entity of 4th density-STS), obviously limited, manipulating and ambiguous thus "implicitly New Age", is built on a basis of truth. Let us not forget who are Orion's entities and by whom they are represented in our present world.

Behind the curtain, behind the appearances, we must see it at first as kind of initiatory test skillfully organized by the STS of 4th density.

These entities which via their channels are been thought of as teaching masters – which they really are in some respects because they are experts in the art of cross-dimensional manipulation –, disseminate extraordinary cosmic stories, with the aim of anesthetizing the capacity of discernment of their followers and subjugating all those who believe in their enthralling fables.

So, thanks to a stiffened cognition, millions of people manage to gulp down extraordinary cosmic stories, without expressing any objection, because they correspond simply to what they are capable of hearing or in what they want to hear.

In this way, while enthralling their public, the STS of entropy manage to install the expected program in the collective psyche.

This way of operating also interests all the agents at present activated in our human density by the predatory corpus. We have spoken about it already. Amma Sri Tahata, Swami Roberto, the deceased Sathya Sai Baba, Swami Premananda (to quote only some of them) are all their "Love and Light" avatars. They are undoubtedly the hologramic fractals of some of these entities perched in 4th density STS. This is why they are capable of teaching certain knowledge or of using extraordinary powers of cure, while deluding the world and their followers.

A limited consciousness of an average human being will remain unable to reveal this reality/truth behind the smoke screen which generate all these high-flying people, for he will only be able to see the clouds of smokes provided that he could keep his eyes wide open !

Orion's grey/reptilian know how to bring people to focus their attention to a transmission/channeling, a priest, or to such an incredible teaching, in a way that the spectators/listeners stay in the impossibility to perceive reality.

They impulse a speech built in mind of their human channel by using a transdimensional technology to create confusion, diversion and deceit, disrupting the channels of reality. And it remains indisputable.

Even if truths can also reach us through the voice of disinformation, reveal a reality beyond their conclusions, it demands a great deal of preliminary Knowledge and acuteness without fault if we want to avoid being distracted by the lies that they hold.

The real message of the STS appears by no means in their teachings and we shall understand it more and more as we become capable of revealing the underlying psychic manipulation. At some level of consciousness, they nevertheless hold certain truths which are not to be found where we believe we will find them, that is in the content of the teaching or channelized message. These truths are to be found well beyond that, in the reason of their deceitful teachings and objective to achieve beyond this deceit!

It is thus a question of not wasting our time gauging the content of their morality, because taken as it is, it is impossible for us to assign them any credit.

We shall never repeat enough ! It is a question of understanding the teaching beyond the teaching that broadcast these entities", because there is another, more important one than what appears at first sight, which is at first to perceive the energy of the predator manipulating our psyche. Only then will we learn to recognize it and extricate ourselves from it. It is thus essential to understand the real reason of the deep psychic manipulation whom the human being remains almost always a victim.

And to be able to understand the role of the Greys, the reptilian of Orion and other predators, we really have to possess a widened consciousness of this multidimensional puzzle.

Because it supplies us keys to perceive the reason of this gigantic collective programming which most of the time, by means of a method of mass hypnosis, is only maintaining the human psychopathy. By using all the range of the wounds of the Soul, it is the shape of the most effective mental manipulation in existence.

But when this programming is surpassed, it can serve the circumstances of a real awakening of the individual to propose to extract himself of his loop of karmic retrocausality and to be proposed a new choice of evolution. And it is only in this last case, beyond the messenger, the deceit and the corruption, that the masters of the entropy "STS" of 4th density play their noble role.

In the end, a consciousness in the process of awakening, who perceives through this smoke screen, can guess a quite different stake which is not yet of an evolution in STO. But it offers nevertheless another path: That of the "redemption" of a part of the 'positive' STS souls and the possibility of an alternative future. Future which will remain entropic, stagnant and non-evolutionary, because it is situated between the orientation Service of Self "negative STS" and the Service to Self "positive STS". And it is from this future that come most of the Greys.

Their plan consists in directing most human beings, in a frequency of positive resonance of the Service to Self (which would be a first stage in their evolution), and at the same time, to offer a "redemption-cure" towards a "soft psychopathy" to a part of the old empire of reptilian predators.

This concept of redemption is expressed in this channeling:

"Through this first portal of solarization, we are inviting the mentors of the shadow to come forward and present themselves at this portal and it is Rassilia who appeared, the one who carries all the involuted matrices of the big families, those who first generated involution in several worlds, in several densities. Rassilia lives herself, at the time, her own process of solarization, which means that through her, the first germ, the first seed of involuted families is being treated, cured, transmuted, solarized. "
www.reseauleo.com/2016/02/10/message-de-Christ-Al-Chaya/

We have spoken about it many times already in our previous dialogues. And probably while insisting a lot and by amplifying this kind of disinformation / information Crist' Al Chaya - via its human channel - as so many other channels in the same sphere of influence, plays a determining role.

An essential question thus remains : As creature of the creative Consciousness and beyond the deceit, in what consists the real game of the STS ? What is the purpose ?

Would it be dividing and rule ? At first of course ! But beyond, isn't it to provoke a kind of natural selection of a human group capable of reaching states of consciousness beyond the "basic and limited human consciousness" ?

We deliberated a lot about Crist' al Chaya, because other channels of transmission famous or not, are subject to the same process of "cross-dimensional possession". They are in most of cases, individuals activated as "agents" by the corpus of 4th density, with the aim of creating confusion in the mind of people and activating theological battles between STS and STO consciousnesses. And indeed these battles affect a great number of people in the world.

Among the well-known channels, there is Benjamin Creme, Pierre Lessard, Monique Mathieu, Aurélie Pech, Sylvain Didelot, Joelia, John Smallman, Sheldan Nidle, Lee Carroll, and many others.

For years already, they are the big stars of "this channelling sphere of influence", and always distil us the same incongruities because they do not know how to spot the energy of their personal predator in the transmissions they receive.

It does not mean that their transmissions are false, but that on the energetic plan, the message which they broadcast remains incomplete, monopolar and limited. Simply because it does not consider the psychic manipulation of which channels are too often the subject of and because they did not become aware of the corrupting force that is their personal predator.

We repeat it once again :

There are no public channel of the corpus STO ! The big channels "channel" their own predator. As long as they continue to broadcast messages which are not experimented, not experienced by the channel himself and in spite of what we could believe, the transmitted information cannot be reliable since they result from the sphere STS!

Cassiopeans declared about channels:

"All those who have extraordinary capacities have to protect themselves against the corrupting strengths, internal as external, that is the prejudice, the apriorism, and the anticipated desires which implies a trend" tendency to make forecasts. "

(P 318 The wave volume 5 - Laura Knight)

It is thus high time to understand what hides itself behind these thousand messages received by channels of the whole world.

As said Mulder in Xfiles: "the Truth is [always] somewhere else".

As for the events of 9/11, the chemtrails, the vegetarian or pranic diet, organic food, the movement "Nuit debout", and many other "smoke screens", another truth "always" hides itself behind appearances.

This other truth hides for example behind the phenomenon of "transdimensional channeling" and claimed spiritual connection of these champions of disinformation who are lying to themselves.

We are thus going to reveal realities never revealed about the channelling and about its reason for being ; to discover the depth of the game of the predation, its legitimacy and the real teaching to be perceived behind the curtain.

By pushing farther our researches and guided by our Supraconsciousness, we shall discover that the reality which we glimpsed, exceeds our understanding again! And finally, this reality could not be as desperate as we believe it could be.

We are thus going to try to find what brews behind this great "transdimensional peplos", and to begin to unwind the Ariane's thread, we are going to have to go back to the events of Roswell.

https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Affaire\_de\_Roswellhttp://UFOs-direct.com/roswell.html

We warn the readers who are attached to their certainties that they will have trouble digesting the truth of certain realities which will be expressed. They cannot be heard, nor accepted by everybody.

To understand this transdimensional picture, the Angel had indicated us at first that :

The future is only the continuation of the past in the matrix system of 3rd density already realized, while the "potential" future is an individual fulfillment which leads to free us from it, in order to learn to become Creative of the fate that we shall choose.

In our present human reality, a new potential of future began after the Events of Roswell (we shall speak about it a later in the text) because another temporal line began for a part of humankind. It is the one the LEOS of the new era (formerly Urmah and Namlú'u) and others. This other temporal line is a prospect of a potential future, another fate from the one which awaits our current humanity.

This extremely complex and delicate subject "to be put on paper", asks for a steady attention and for a real open-mindedness on behalf of the reader.

To gradually reach the heart of the matter which concerns us today, we shall develop step by step, the way that our guidance positioned the signs to warn us, guide us to understand things at the time. To learn to read the signs in our environment, concerns shamanism.

Before we begin, let's give some small precisions on shamanism.

The real definition of the word shaman beyond its archetypal function, is related to a profound state of being, a sublimated consciousness. This one develops with the capacity to communicate, to read, to perceive, to feel its environment well beyond appearances.

The shaman knows that the environment of which he is creative and in whom his Supraconsciousness permanently projects itself, teaches him. He thus possesses the capacity to perceive the future and to understand its sense.

He also has the gift to cross the portals of the Demonic STS worlds - Hell - to reveal a teaching, a knowledge.

And this cross-dimensional door of "Hell STS" has to be crossed with all one's Beingness, through the psyche, by an internal process which reconnects him with his Supra-human Consciousness.

Let us remember ourselves:

It is the descent into the underworld, the shamanic descent into the underworld, to fight against the demons. It is the dismemberment of the body, the detachment of the flesh, the stripping to the bone, followed by self-reconstruction on another foundation - a foundation of spiritual truth. If I could make you understand this Hell, this sensation, this solitary test in which the soul is weighed, by the Self, finally and completely, and seen by what she really did, you would see how much we are going astray from Truth, because of all the beliefs inculcated and promulgated by the Matrix, and carefully nurtured by our emotions and by the deceptions of the internal predator who convinces us that we are "good" and "pure", that everything is "One". Indeed, we see that there is indeed a "unity", but we also see that the aspect of God that is lived at this level of reality is the black and gaping mouth of the STS who sucks and devours everything. We see that True Love is hardly manifested - or so little - at this level of being. We see that all our illusions about goodness, truth and beauty are lies. These are masks hiding predation. And this initiation is so horrifying that few survive. "

Laura Knight

This test of transmutation is so difficult to exceed that little manage to surpass it. For those who succeed, both "negative and positive STS" polarities of their Being - the mean and merciful aspects of the Creator - by "associating themselves", become fundamentally synergic to result in the shape of a Consciousness STO.

Because both polarities (male and female) of the Consciousness of the Creator, separated during the fall in embodiment, find themselves finally intimately merged.

It is because we operate this work through our emotional, that we can witness our alchemical transmutation of the body and the Soul. And thanks to our determination, our perseverance and because we never gave up, we succeeded in contacting our future Beingness which shows herself most of the time in our present reality, under the shape of dreams-visions. She thus showed herself repeatedly under the aspect of a Leonine entity. And it is her who inspired us to create the website of the LEO network.

According to old traditions, to become a real shaman require to triumph at first over his own process of shamanic initiation when it appears in our life. A shaman must succeed at first in realizing the intimate, intelligent and incorruptible union between the masculine and feminine energy. In other words, between the intellect and the emotional, to develop his intuition.

At another level, this process consists in realizing this kind of "cold fusion" (acceptance-combination-absorption) between the psychopathy of the "negative" Service to Self (which remains coded in the genome of most of the human beings), and what we can consider as the "positive" Service to Self.

It is only after having realized this alchemy in our Beingness that we legitimately can aspire to peace and to tolerance between the peoples. Our humanity is hindered on purpose by an "epidemy of psychopathy" due to the non-recognition of our predatory parts who at the moment, continue to prevent the way toward a new Era.

The big problem is that few human beings are conscious of what brews behind the scenes. They are not interested in the after-life or by the possibilities of evolution of their Soul. Even in the spiritual circles of the so-called awakening of consciousness, many are only interested in the material aspect, the profit, the money, the recognition...

On the pretext of Love towards others, they continue to participate to the entropy of our civilization, by working for an alternative world and develop alternative currencies, alternative energies, alternative organic gardens which remain in the 3rd density STS. All these people are unable to perceive the unconscious manipulation of their personal predator. Unable to understand and compete in this transdimensional game, we can easily guess the consequences for our humanity.

It is in this dead end, that comes the energy of the shaman into play, the one who knows how to discern through the play, understand it and communicate through its Supraconsciousness, with the inhabitants of other plans of existence.

To be shaman means in the first place that the individual in question express and operates permanently the acceptance of both polarities which constitute his Being. And this repolarization repairs and reprints at first completely in his genetics when the individual makes the effort of a real internal progress. The latter determined "the union" of the two polarities which expresses itself through the chromosome X and Y, (mitochondria is conveyed by the chromosomes XX of the "feminin"). (Conf Diag 39)

The shaman thus represents the entity formed by his "couple" man-woman who, thanks to the properties of genetic transformation carried down by the mitochondria, can unite in this energetic symbiosis. In his progress, the shaman is only carried by the quest of Knowledge.

That is why Sand and I assert not being a couple in the sense of human understanding, but we know that our alchemical union personifies "the shaman". This real shamanic Energy can become a reality only through meetings "of Souls of unity" having the same aspirations to discover the reality-truth such as it exists, and not such as it seems to exist! As for now, we are only on the way to get there.

The shaman practices no rites, use no object, neither crystals, nor stones, nor magic wand ... He will "not shine in his role" during weekends meeting, internships of Tantrism or to execute the prayer of the Four Directions. This kind of rituals serve only the predators of 4th density...

But he knows how to read intuitively, the symbolism of the signs which offers him the Universe. He is endowed with remarkable clear-sightedness, capable of perceiving the thoughts of the one who integrate his bubble of perception and can "fall" in several dimensions at the same time.

An old idea of the shaman is the idea of a warrior-spirit which gathers both masculine and feminine polarities who defies the strengths of darkness, lies, deceit and perversion! It also means that the shaman is not a kind of scholar who holds a science, but that he always knows what he needs to know at a precise moment, because he passed by an experience proposed by his Higher Self, who gives him this knowledge... and this knowledge, integrates the Knowledge.

As it is told in legends, shamans are generally warned of an important event by dreams or signs.

Then, here is the chronology of events which had arrived at us between March 12th and 24th, 2016, when our environment began to express itself and to make us big signs so that we perceived them.

We are thus going to be able to illustrate the way our guidance proceed so that we can expiate our limiting emotional and to trust our feelings. And this big lesson was proposed to us by the intervention of Christ al Chaya, so that we could learn to detect the game of the cross-dimensional predation.

By going out of the village by car, we are dumbfounded by a big bird who walked in a park in the middle of pigs. It was white speckled and the size of a hen. By looking at it more attentively, Jenaël recognized the light brown plumage of a hen pheasant, although this one was unusually clear-colored.

The night which followed this singular meeting with the white pheasant, he dreamed twice about pheasant hens with clear plumage.

He relates:

"In my dream, I pursued it to try to catch it, because it has to tell me something." I saw myself with a mop of long dark hairs while the top of my skull was rather greying. "But I do not remember more of this dream."

In the early hours when the sun began to rise, I fell asleep and dreamed again.

This time, I was rested on the window of a building and observed fishes in a small pond.

Now, among these fishes arose "another" couple of pheasants which in a supernatural way, swam under the water, among the fishes. From time to time, both pheasants were going to peck at a dead fish which was lying on the edge of the pond. In my dream I was conscious that the situation of the "aquatic pheasants" was unnatural and that the dead fish in aerial environment, established an indication.

When I woke up, I understood that in my reality and in my dreams, the pheasant was carrier of a message. Because of the reversal in my dream between the aquatic and aerial environment, I perceived a connexion with a dimensional shift. I undertook to follow this track and now by taping "symbolism of the pheasant" on Internet, I discovered this:

The kind of power and authority expressed by the divine consciousness of the pheasant is one of those which allows the evolution of consciousness; maybe even to move to another dimension ... "

"... The energy of the pheasant asks you to note that your ascension process is well underway, and you are connecting to your own power and authority.

The dark side of your nature is mastered; it can no longer hinder your progress towards a total connection with your own source of power. On the contrary, you make a triumphant use of the golden shadow, those marvellous aspects of the ego that until now you did not know or did not use fully.

If the pheasant is a recurrent symbol in your life, it means that his divine consciousness is with you, to help you reach the peak of your power, and to accompany you throughout your ascent ... " <http://Reve-de-Terre.over-blog.com/article-36418351.html>

A few days earlier, probably further to the assessment by the LEO Network of a channelization of Christ al Chaya, we had received the commentary that is here:

Marcelo R. (on Saturday, March 12th, 2016 21:51)

"I am Christ Chaya al, Melchizedek of the Golden Brotherhood of Orion"

This need to always justify its status in these "teachings" to amaze the reader, lower its attention and its objectivity, always warns me. Whatever is the "row" of the speaker, the truth is or is not.

Woah! Sand and I, ironically made the following reflection: Would Crist' al Chaya, this cross-dimensional entity, "fall" of his 4th density to answer us personally by typing this email on a keyboard of computer?

Of course, we knew that this entity passed through a channel to deliver this message, although why not? But this person was apparently not his usual channel because his messenger is supposed to be Rosana N.? <http://christalchaya.com/rosannanarducci.html>

Then who was this person named Marcelo R.? Would this be a case of identity theft ?

Who wants to be passed off as whom? And why has this person contacted us himself, by justifying himself in this way? Maybe he is not conscious that the mirror effect is also valid for him, and stay applicable also with beings of other dimensions?

Let us recall that:

"... All those who have extraordinary capacities must protect themselves against the corrupting strengths, both internal as external. ..."

To react to defends itself, is not it a reflex of the reptilian brain STS to protect itself, to justify itself ?

Would this person take himself for Christ al Chaya ? Or would he give too much credit to his personal predator? Apparently, neither of them explored in depth their wounds of the Soul.

We are persuaded that if Christ al Chaya is really a Master of "Knowledge and Rigor" in other words, a Being of truth as he claims it down from his perch of 4th density, he would not try to sermon us or scold us.

Why didn't this entity directly talk to us? If he had an STO consciousness, wouldn't he be authorized to communicate with us or with other LEO, Pleadians or Cassiopeans through our Supraconsciousness?

We ourselves would be capable of receiving information from him in dreams.

Beings of STO consciousness are intended to let us experiment our errors, let us live our own awareness's, without intervening in our free will ! And it is what alerted us. Either Crist' al Chaya was not the one that he claims to be or then, his channel identified himself with him.

Which goes back to the same. These people are most probably both channels of inhalation of energy to the advantage of the 4th density STS and play the role of a self-service-station for the STS entities of 4th density, because they neglected their own human karmic process, no more and no less!

The channels of Christ Al Chaya probably forgot to protect themselves against corrupting forces, but maybe they are still ignorant of such things? That wouldn't be surprising...

A few moments after the reception of this e-mail we felt a strange faintness which persisted during the next two days. Sand and I were in a state of confusion and fuzziness, of profound tiredness, almost insuperable difficulties in reaching an enlightened consciousness and to write anything!

We understood that a psychic assault had accompanied this email, and probably something improper had activated the biological or genetic answer in our body.

Undoubtedly all this story stinks cross-dimensional manipulation. And there was insistence!

We still learn!

The next Thursday, the Christal Chaya series continued : We received a new e-mail !

Jacques-Gérard Vesonne (on Thursday, March 24th, 2016 12:57)

I have been working for about ten years on the work of the channel of Christal 'Chaya and I also see the evolution of the students. I have doing the same and for a longer time with a dozen French or foreign channels. The results are very variable according to the students.

The seeds planted in different lands give very different plants, ranging from the driest and dullest to the most opulent and brilliant.

According to my wide experience of channeling, it is not the channel or the message that is STS or STO, it is the receiver, it is the student. I set apart some malicious or drifting channels.

The plant that we are should be able to feel the cultural and teaching energy that is conducive to its growth. We are responsible for the goals of this growth. We are not just victims.

The animals amaze me because they have kept their instinct when it comes to needs. Regarding the phenomenon of channeling, I note on a very unfortunate aspect that the entourage of the channel often presents all aspects of sectarian drift. But does the channel have full responsibility? I know they regret it.

Concerning me in my relationship with Christal Chaya I can testify that it brings me a better knowledge of the historical and universal causes of the whys of the predation and the two attitudes STS/ STO.

I can free myself much more easily from sneaky predation that I understand better and therefore tame them better in me. I cannot avoid speaking about the channel that resides in France further (and for good reason) and whom must be very discreet. The time of his official unveiling has not come yet, even if it is close.

Predatory factions are not the only ones present on Earth today. Of course, they were plenty in the past, they were these beings, these extra-terrestrials, and ancient secessionist civilizations of the earth, who were happy to fulfil the role of God, and we called it a type of 'rogue' god.

And then, the marmot puts the chocolate in the alum paper... But of course!
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t7xG7uVOFVs>

And now other ardent supporters of Crist' al Chaya "add a coat of paint"!

(Crist' al Chaya, is very probably a consciousness of 5th density STS, living in a body of 4th density.)

This time, we both felt that a very old "original" cellular rancor resurfaced. We were going to have to be inflexible and determined to reveal the origin of this cross-dimensional manipulation.

Before pursuing, let us return at first quickly to the message passed on by the pheasant.

We had discovered that the pheasant carries the symbolism of the triumph of the golden shade, the alchemical transmutation "by the acceptance" of the Dark part of ourselves (our golden cage), in Golden light / information.

Also let us note that the logo of the Network LEO is a lion in a golden ring.

Wouldn't Orion's entities represent exactly this gilded shade (the gold – the gold in us!) this dark part of our being that we are invited to transmute into Gold? The gold symbolizing the alchemy, the "transmutation" of lies into truth !

If this order really exists, and if the Order of Melchisedeck is supposed to keep watch on Mankind, then they are well and truly the masters of Karma of the planet. Thus, they are really masters of planet Earth. But certainly not in the sense in which pass it on their channels or is conceived by their followers.

They are the STS of 4th density exactly such as they assert it. But humans, blinded by their illusions see only the smoke screen. And whatever is their name, Crist' Al Chaya is right, they are the real masters of the Matrix. But they can become our teachers not through the 'messages' they broadcast, but when we carry out efforts and real internal work to learn to recognize them. It is only then that we can accept them such as they are and "legitimize them in their predatory" roles" in their reality-truth of 4th density STS.

Orion's reptilian entities just like Pleadiens, Arturiens, Cassiopeans and finally the LEO, are not really extraterrestrials. They are parts of ourselves in our past or future, on Earth or somewhere else, but on other plans of existence.

To differentiate the real extraterrestrials from the temporal travelers - ourselves in the past-future-, warned researchers attributed them the term of "extraneans".

Extraneans is also the word which the NASA uses to indicate the pilots of UFOs.

It means literally "which result from the nothingness", of antimatter, of the non-time. UFOs are machines which can go back up space-time by modifying their gravitational-magnetic field. They use these strengths which propel them immediately through a worm hole, in another space-time becoming our past or future.

The CIA and NASA seem to know a lot about these beings and their technology.

In the style of extraneans, there are other entities which are extraterrestrial, were never human and who have nothing to do with our world, but who however sometimes visit it. It is for this reason as well that we raise the extraterrestrial subject very little.

Extraneans found a way to skip into our current plan via natural or caused accidents such as Roswell, by opening passages in our world of 3rd density.

Thus, an extranean is really a stowaway in our 3rd density. He is in a way our past-future selves, because he has the same Soul as we do in the present. They are aspects of us, but physically different from us, which in a way, infiltrated our present space-time. They remain on various parallel plans of existence of the Earth or the Hollow Earth...

Scientists recently revealed that the human DNA not only holds a part of extraterrestrial genes, but epigenetic will soon allow to confirm that certain human beings are changing their line of future, by opening themselves to a new potential freed from the predation.

We also begin to understand that most of the current human beings will be the Greys of the future and were reptilian in the past.

This is evidenced by the fact that witnesses under hypnosis describe that they often deal at first with members of their family during abductions, then by pushing them even deeper in their state of hypnosis, they see Greys, who sometimes conceal a reptilian entity themselves.

And knowing that our DNA contains the codes which express themselves in our environment, and that the past-future results from the same temporal line, we can easily understand this paradox: Most of the human beings are the Reptilian of the past and the Greys of the future, who coexist at the same time, that is in the present time but on different temporal lines.

A retired employee of the NASA shows proofs of time travel.

<https://www.YouTube.com/watch?V=d9kHQUBT1gl>

Among these Greys from the future, some meet frequently the elites of our world and collaborate with special bodies of the armies. (They meet themselves in their past.)

Others, from the point of view of the human being are rather peaceful, sometimes hosting the Energy / Soul of an IS - BE.

Http://-eden-saga.com/ufologie-roswell-bermudes NASA-siberie-plongeurs-baikal-sarez-mi thrilextraneens.html

There is thus an enormous confusion in the mind of the public about Greys, hybrids, tall blond and others, carefully instigated by the elite in power. This confusion once raised, reveals one of the chief keys of all this transdimensional puzzle !

To return to the entities of Orion, their center of consciousness "of ancient reptilian vibratory frequencies" comes from the old empire of predators of 4th density (this is very well supported in the email of J.V.).

They are us in our past!

That is why, the entity Christ ' Al Chaya is represented by a polymorph of Grey type (who possesses the faculty to change appearance because it does not "apparently" have reptilian physiognomy).

Considering what we have just said, we can get an idea of the reason of its "appearance" of Grey. He probably is a member of these Beings who managed to become emancipated of the reptilian influence, but who failed to pass in orientation STO yet and who still need to feed on the energy of human feelings.

When we had acquainted ourselves with the second email, we were submerged by a profound sadness. How come that this man who seemed to hold some wisdom and who publishes it on the net, could still be deceived by the corpus and ignore the influence of his own predator ?

Infinitely disappointed to find us once again confronted with the illusion, we finally detected the program which bonded us to J.V. We considered him "reasonable", but we had been fooled by our own predator who had skillfully darkened us the truth.

Sand then let spatter of ancestral memories of treasons and deceptions to expurgate them under the shape of violent cramps and "angers peculiar to her Soul of Amasutum". This feeling of having been betrayed by the deceit of her peers was always firm in the depths of her Being. She was furious because the predators do not hesitate to use the masks of wisdom and benevolence to fool human beings and leave them asleep in their dreams, persuading them that they are awakened.

Once conscious of the role of our predator and accepting this error, our sadness receded slowly.

We were both very shaken during the few days which followed this incident.

Myself, affected in my emotional and saddened by a profound discouragement, perceived some of my memoirs of Nungals which "bubbled too in my guts" to the point of giving me bellyache. Christ' al Chaya, this vile champion of the cross-dimensional manipulation still made victims and had tried to reach us!

We also understood that the STS of 4th density were obviously not very satisfied with our revelations. Thus, we had the confirmation that this predator, despite what think his faithful admirers, uses psychic and hypnotic manipulation "to impose his message Love and Light".

In order for humans to get out of the claws of the predator, it would be largely essential for them to possess a general view of the history of cosmic civilizations and their interactions. But most of the time, they are not interested, nor even curious to look for this Knowledge.

Also, if we want to understand who the Greys are, how to succeed in differentiate them, we must rule out at first any notion of duality and forget the idea of good or evil, such as our human thoughts define them.

We can then understand the sense of the words pronounced by our Angel in one of the previous dialogues: "they are neither black or white, thus nor shade nor light, nor evil nor good..."

The Angel had already taught us that it exists quantity of varieties of Grey on other plans of existence, that we summarize below:

- 1) Greys "who were" in the service of the reptilian and thanks to their diet, by feeding on animal and human energy, becoming thus also our predators, became emancipated of the reptilian psychic domination to begin to develop a Soul.
- 2) 2) others are still under the psychic influence of the reptilian and remained trapped in the reptilian predatory matrix. They are usually the ones put in the presence of witnesses and experiencers of abduction by Lizzies.

- 3) 3) others reached the dead end of the 4th density STS, try to return in the past to modify their realized temporal line (they mainly represent the current human vegetarians)
- 4) 4) others finally, having understood the karmic principle (their errors committed during their human embodiment), succeeded in being reincarnated in human bodies, to try to modify their temporal trajectory towards a possible future in the Service to Others.

To conclude, the real human being in progress STO, is called to become emancipated of his karma and to release himself from his jailers, if he does not want to waste his time in insignificances "love and light". By his own experiments, his emotional liberations and especially by learning to reconnect with his Higher Self, he must manage to free himself from the domination of his predators. And it is only when this point is reached, that he will find his real identity which is the one of an IS-BE, a timeless and immortal being of 5th or 6th density (such as it is described in the INTERVIEW WITH THE ALIEN of Matilda O'Donnell McElroy, that we shall discuss lower in this text).

Let's remind that no entity whether it is "spiritual" or not, has the right to interfere in the free will of the human being. But some of them do not respect this universal clause. Therefore, they became masters of the entropy and therefore they are destined to be inhaled by a galactic black hole.

When the LEO mousetrap snaps shut.

Mousetrap: A place where one cannot escape from without taking a real risk. A stretched-out trap to force somebody in order to stop him or force him to surrender; Danger incurred by a person put in such a situation.)

Through this paper, we tried to explain how certain entities who are been thought of as masters of wisdom, still manage to trap human beings. But this time, we are going to understand how they came to be trapped themselves by being enticed by the mousetrap of LEO.

However, we did warned the reader that to put down these so-claimed masters of wisdom from their pedestal, could become far too testing for the understanding of their followers. Some will feel anger or will have their pride wounded. Others will be persuaded that they are not affected. It will be the definite proof of the psychic influence of their predator.

Sometimes reality is painful to see...

We know that by revealing our real-life experience, we still expose ourselves to transdimensional assaults, but we learnt to recognize the signs, to adorn them and integrate our lessons. And this is where our strength lies : Alchemize the shade in light.

Following the remark which was inserted into the dialogue regarding the Greys and the entity Crist' Al Chaya, we had been subject three times to powerful transdimensional attacks on behalf of the STS of 4th density. These masters of the entropy, who are been thought of as masters of benevolence and wisdom and operating psychical and even physical attack through dimensional blackmailers of energy, unmasked themselves. They deliberately targeted us to intimidate us, so that their deceptions would not be revealed.

The Angel had confided us that sometimes, he refrains from giving us some revelations to let us experience ourselves. We owe ourselves by our real-life experience, to feel and to perceive through our emotional, the other facets of reality.

And again, his plan worked, because by spreading all its strength in its energetic attacks, the entity Crist' Al Chaya unmasked himself !

We know now that these transdimensional assaults which establish their energetic intrusions, start through very powerful emotional rises without visible reasons, as soon as we stop answering our programs/implants which bind us to the predatory matrix. These attacks are even the main drive of control system of our reality, because by following the energy thread between the listeners (here ourselves in this case), the channel and one of these transdimensional creatures, we can perceive the trailing of a "channel of inhalation" by whom the predators posted in 4th density extract their energy. And it is unmistakably in this way that the entity Crist' al Chaya operates.

See also : <https://chroniquesdesmondesinvisibles.wordpress.com/2012/04/04/texte-sur-les-agents-de-la-matrice/>

We also observed that certain creators of so-claimed blogs of spiritual awakening, were not very delighted that we question the big names of the channeling and they deftly let it be known to us.

Indeed, it is very difficult to agree to question oneself when these forms of dimensional manipulations are revealed. Several patronizing individuals presumed to be spiritual teachers are been thought of as spiritual masters. And it is because we dared to shake their beliefs and because they were affected in their self-esteem that they answered by very violent attacks. These attacks are only the work of their personal predator.

Thanks to her capacity to connect to her STS memories, Sand was the first to detect the attacks of the corpus of 4th density. Her reptilian memories are sometimes still an handicap in her interpersonal skills and in our life as a couple, but as she learnt to detect them and to transcend them, they became a powerful asset of the "shamanic" entity we form. Her subtle intuition can reveal her with great precision, the state of mind of any person and especially of detecting the power of his predator.

Lets' go back to the mission of the "positive Grey" returned from their entropic future. These Beings come back from their temporal trajectory to try to produce a new alternative of future for themselves and therefore, for our present humanity which already begins to sink in chaos.

In order to penetrate our 3rd human density, they use the technology of transdimensional passage which creates little localized temporal accidents by inversion of the gravitational field.

Theses temporal accidents can be thus provoked by a technology coming from very competent creatures of 4th or 5th density, or sometimes form in a natural way and in these cases, these dimensional windows are naturally quickly resorbed. But nowadays they are mostly caused by technology of human origin which unmastered and practiced in total ignorance of the consequences, serve military purposes in order to rule our world.

Among these technologies we count nuclear power (nuclear bombs and antimatter bombs) which will soon be replaced by black hole generators. And these generators are in the hands of the reptilian elite in power, who is still in a remote future for the moment. This elite will take with it all the terrestrial corruption of the STS of 3rd density. However, many Beings, among them Greys, Reptilians, Humans, Cassiopeans, Pleiadeans, Urmah and many others, strive so that this future does not happen, then maybe we shall be spared this fate.

Article appeared in 2008: The Future is Now:" <http://projectcamelot.org>.

The visitors of Roswell were human beings of the future. They did not come from another planet, but from a future Earth. According to Laura Knight and Barbara Marciniak, “Walking” or “Wanderer” meaning the “travellers” of the past before 1947 (Roswell), would be more appropriate terms. To try to solve the problems of their history, their mission was to change their past by creating an alternative branch of their own temporal line, so that certain events which would happen to us in a very close future do not occur.

Thus, the motivations of the visitors vary according to their species, their nature and their Being. We can certainly guess that some among Greys (the human beings of the future) are friendly and altruistic, that others are bad and interested, and that others have programs which we still cannot perceive, and which could be situated beyond our human understanding.

The extranean and extraterrestrial Travelers' phenomenon is a complex subject. According to Dan Burisch, some human beings of the future are friendly, while others want, despite appearances, to make sure that History is not modified again.

« Dr. Dan Burish, a great microbiologist asserts having been employed within the framework of black project (occult scientific projects in the Area 51) He may benefit from a parliamentary immunity so that he can reveal to the Senate and to the general public what really takes place in the sinister laboratories of Dreamland. Burich, while staying vague, had already evoked in the Australian magazine Nexus some aspects of his top-secret works in the Area 51, works whose content gives cold shivers because it is no more and no less the development of viruses genetically made of viral material collected on the body of an EBE (an extraterrestrial biological entity. »

One must not believe that all these entities are a kind of dimensional cherubs only attached to our awakening. Greys are here first and foremost to ensure their own survival and not ours. Among them, some wishing to pass in the Service to Others, prepared their "transfer-transduction" in our human density by conditioning human bodies by genetic hybridization, to receive their extranean Soul.

(Transduction is a term used by Gilbert Simondon (1924-1989) to indicate the operation of formation, explaining the genesis of the individual on the background of pre-individual reality. The transduction indicates the operation by which two or several great orders of reality start resonating and become commensurable by the invention of a dimension which articulates them and by passage to an order of richer structures.)

Here are now some passages gleaned on the net about Greys:

- These genetic manipulations would aim, according to the victims of abduction, at creating human – extraneans hybrids, that is to say entities having an emotional life Greys would not have.

As for the implants, they allow, at best, to identify and to follow a marked subject, and at worst, to modify his behavior.

Http://www.karmapolis.be/pipeline/empire\_des\_d\_ragons\_noirs.htm

- Greys are sorts of bionic terminals. For colonel Corso, Greys are organic robots of exploration: Entities without feelings with an "hive mindset" which live in "nests". He's comparing them with predators who ravage a planet, a little bit like ants.

On Roswell we asserted us that Greys are not hostile. "Should the opposite occur, we would already be all dead."

The difficulty with these invisible, is not to get lost in their uncountable subfamilies.

The problem comes from the fact that specialists often confine themselves to the region of the world and to the vision of the world that they chose.

<http://eden-saga.com/ufology-pleiadians-vegans-centauriens-gris-reptiliens-annuna-elohim-aliens.html>

- The appearance of these beings is changeable, and we cannot trust it" underline Karla Turner. Deceased today, this specialist of abductions was herself her victim. During sessions of hypnosis that she directed, abducts are unanimous: The extraterrestrial is unstable, changeable in appearance. He may appear under the lines of a soldier at first, then by concentrating, the victim sees a Grey and by staying focused, it is in reality a reptilian.

Http://www.karmapolis.be/pipeline/empire\_des\_d\_ragons\_noirs.htm

- Turner was able to count until 5 changes of shape. This change of appearance reminds of strategies to deceive the memory of the victims, a trick that Archons or Flyers would probably not reject. "

Crossroads... and epigenetic.

Let us this time raise another theme which is the various possibilities of temporal lines which will open for the future mankind.

During our reflections on this matter, we had already understood that our genetics participated in the perception of the world which surrounds us at the same time it manifested it. Epigenetic, a very recent discipline of the biology of the gene, studies the molecular mechanisms which modulate the expression of this genetic inheritance according to the context and to its conditions of expression.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?V=dEXc63rOdRI>

We thus suspected the involvement of epigenetics in the fulfillment of our future because it influences the potential of realization of these various temporal lines.

And especially our comprehensions and among others, the diet changes which we have been testing for more than a year, which lead us to perceive the loops of retrocausality, which for the moment, still direct some aspects of our everyday life.

We were thus brought to understand that Beings that we take for Greys represent a certain category of human beings from the future, who return in our current present (among them are also represented the tall blonds, the tall white or the other breeds of humanoids hybrids). Others of these temporal travelers have continued farther in our human past, to reach the era of reptilian Annunakis (thus in their - and our - own genesis if we can formulate it so). This return in "their" past was undertaken for a very precise reason, that we have already begun to develop in the previous dialogues.

At the same time of the writing of this dialogue, the Angel communicated us this:

The events of Roswell marked the drop point of the wave of Souls of the future coming back into our present. By generating several temporal breaches, the Greys returned in their past to try to create another potential future and to change their own line of already realized future. Their future having become entropic (non evolutive), the Greys remained at the upper limit in 4th density and locked into the entropy of the plans of the "Service to Self - STS". The reason is that during their "short passage in human embodiment" and divested of the emotional of Man, they had neglected some universal lessons of the karmic process.

By negligence of these Universal Laws, by lack of Knowledge, by lack of perseverance, and because they only trusted their intellect and their technologies, the Greys relegated themselves to the rank of predators.

It is necessary to know that it is impossible to modify an already realized past.

As the past-present-future is established of cyclic temporal loops, a part of their group remains even "today" predators, entities without Souls, the human psychopaths.

While others, thanks to their technology, return in their own already realized past, agree to die there, and so, offer their Soul the possibility of being reincarnated in a human body of 3rd density. It is by experimenting all the emotional range of the human body in which they are embodied today, that they will have the possibility of forking on another potential of future. This crossing of temporal lines is practicable only in densities of physical embodiments of 3rd density.

This is the real reason of the current world overpopulation, the current anthropocosmic changes and the many global disasters still to come. And it is also the main reason why millions of fetuses are taken from mothers carrying hybrid babies. Or that children are kidnapped, prepared, and crossed all over the world. To go unnoticed, most of these kidnappings take place among the vegetarian population of orphan children in India. And this because the vegetarians developed a much more convenient DNA to be crossed with the genetics of the Greys.

Since Roswell, Greys have been returning massively from their future to be embodied in human bodies to be able to die and turn toward a new temporal line in the Service to Others. And it will contribute to the collapse of the old reptilian empire to restore the balance of the strengths in the Universe!

(We had already begun to establish this deduction in the Dialogue with our Angel N 42)

Roswell was not an accident because the pilots of UFOS deliberately let themselves to be trapped in 1947 by the radar beam of the army to be able to die in your human dimension.

They were accompanied by another Being of the same appearance of the Greys, "IS - BE".

"IS" means: Primordial nature of an immortal being which lives in a timeless state and "BE" means the only reason of its existence is to decide to exist.

While Greys possess only a single body of polymorphic appearance, this Being of 6th density who, according to the mission that he is assigned, possesses the capacity to live in any kind of body.

And in this particular case, it is these "IS - BE" who had the appearance of Greys, who got captured "still" alive by the American army, during the events of Roswell and those who came after.

If they "remained alive after the accident", it is not because they were lucky, as you could guess it, but to carry out their mission which was to accompany the "Greys" in their process of redemption and to deliver a message to humanity.

This message is found in a document of 187 pages which we invite you to read very conscientiously after this dialogue, by having well integrated all the information contained in our previous dialogues.

PDF: MAINTENANCE WITH THE ALIEN of Matilda O'Donnell McElroy

In order to approach the separation of the future potential of the human being under another angle, we asked ourselves a very interesting question which was worrying us for a long time:

How come that researchers among whom some we met already, do not manage to exchange, to share discoveries and information (for the moment) ?

Why people such as Joël Ducatillon, Laura Marie, Christophe Allain, Laurent Dureau, Jacques Vesonne, Anton Parks, Yann Lipnick, Paul Ponsot, Roch Sauquere and many good other researchers of the truth don't meet or exchange in order to share their information and increase their knowledge?

We are firmly convinced that the path of each person is different, and that it has to do with our genetics, epigenetics and the various possibilities of future!

To understand this postulate, we are going to evoke at first briefly the researches and informations which delivers Jean-Michel Raoux.

<http://www.ksilagartgouvdiv.fr/>

He postulates that the future humanity is an alliance between the faceless Strength, the K'sil and the Agarthans. On his website we can read:

The faceless strength: F.S.V. is established of operators who agree to play. They establish the ground component of the alliance K.A.F. It is them who legitimately are embodied in action on the KI planet. They prepare contacts and junctions with two other components which are :

- The K'sil: ascended beings of the celestial galactic fleet of the sector of Orionis. They possess the access to the genetic libraries of the galaxy and can integrate new genes for the new species on KI. They are planners of Life.
- Agarthans which are ascended emissary of the people living underneath the surface of the Earth, in other dimensions. They possess a viable human DNA, which can serve as basis for the future evolutionary species on KI.

As we have met him already, we guarantee that he is sincere and honest in his research of the truth. However, something seems unaccomplished in his fascinating researches...

About Joël Ducatillon, he too is a researcher of the truth who relate his experiences with Beings coming from other plans of existence. He has also given some extranean technologies. He is "the inventor" of the Diamond Water, the PMT, IPR, Steel-Storm-Staelhe... But something seems unaccomplished in his incredible discoveries...

Laura Marie, another researcher of the truth, who reveals relevant and interesting information although sometimes incomplete... Here too remains something unaccomplished in what she passes on.

Laurent Dureau, another researcher of the truth, something seems also unaccomplished in his fascinating researches...

Anton Parks, a great researcher formidably connected to his Supraconsciousness. Despite the relevance and the depth of the researches, there are still some stumbling blocks on his progress...

The same goes for Paul Ponsot, Yann Lipnick, Roch Sauquere and all the others...

And obviously ourselves, are aware of our limits.

We all have part of this transdimensional puzzle. But beyond that, what is the real motivation of our "work", our passion and in which to the detriment of our own wellbeing, we invest all our energy ?

What is there to discover beyond the information that we hold ? Why do we have "apparently" different paths, different missions of life ?

We know all that they are important, but few of us realize that they are also slowed down by our personal predator. Our individual predation is this part of ourselves on another plan, which prevents us from realizing our 'mission of life' completely, which is to succeed in displaying our full potential.

Then the idea which germinated in our spirit is to meet those who would be ready to share their information and who, obviously, would be also open to detect until where goes the game of their own predator "in their life". We could share our discoveries beyond the work that each of us has assigned to himself.

Those who will accept this meeting will sincerely be interested to detect, to perceive their share of "Service to Self" in their activity, as in their intimacy. We are all called to understand the real sense of the word transparency to authorize ourself to broadcast a more complete teaching and which will have a real sense for the awakening of the humanity.

Because the question that arises and which seems fundamental to us is : How to transcend the involutive temporal line in which we are led as human beings ?

How can we unit our Niama, our strengths to overcome our entropic fate ?

To meet each other to understand how the information reaches us. What is the share of truth and disinformation in that information ? Who really are the entities who guide us ?

Why for example, has Joël Ducatillon developed the diamond water, his PMT activity and all the technologies of transmutation ? The same goes for Jean-Michel Raoux and all the others.

Where do they hold their information from ? We know that some of them are interesting and relevant, but we also perceive the game of the reptilian corpus in the background, which prevents them from finalizing "their mission".

Our mission to all, is it not exactly to ally our differences, to gather our Knowledge, our skills, to unit our strengths to learn to walk in the Service to Others ?

It is up to us to call the wave of change and not wait for it to arrive ! We must begin a collective work to produce this wave. Because all the power necessary for the change of reality and physicality is contained in the center of belief of the mind.

If we want to modify our reality, we must leave no room for doubt, nor to allow ourselves to be rocked by our illusions. We become truly creators when we manage to get rid of prejudice, judgment, notions of good and bad, understanding when we emerge from the world of the duality, not towards Unity, as we are being told so often, but towards REALITY !

Then as researchers of truth, isn't it our responsibility for opening the way ?

Would not it be the hour to manifest another crossing on a future new potential STO ?

It is not the one or the other who holds the answer, the truth, but it is the synergy of all our consciousnesses and skills which participate to reveal it !

For example, it would be interesting to understand why Jean-Michel Raoux perceives the humans of the future under the shape of Beings which he names "K'sil". Would it imply that his Being also returned from the future in order to some way or another, change temporal line ?

Why ourselves, perceive our own future under the shape LEO ? Why is Laura Knight connected to the Cassiopeans ? Why did Barbara Marciniak transmit the Pleiadeans ?

Would it mean that for humanity, several possibilities of space-time would open according to our "past genetics" and to our center of thought ?

It is probably in the epigenetic that we shall find the answers to realize these various possible futures. And it is certainly and particularly in the way that we feed ourselves that we shall find some of the keys to these futures.

Perceiving the loops of retrocausality in which we are all entangled by decoding our original genetics becomes essential to find answers. And it is only by recognizing our "filiation" to our personal predators, then by sharing all our informations, we shall manage to reveal certain hidden truths.

We hope that our call will be heard and that in our next dialogue or next updates on the LEO network, we can insert our first feedbacks on this matter!

The Christ, the zombies and the spear of Longinus

It has been months since we began the ketogenic diet indepth. It is thus time to realize a small feedback and to reveal the surprising benefactions of this diet, which associated with a supplementation in vitamins B and C, reveal some of its extraordinary aspects situated well beyond what science seems to know.

Some readers of the website "LEO network" sometimes a bit critical, claimed that they did not need to follow the ketogenic diet, nor to supplement in iodine to follow their spiritual way. So be it ! It remains unfortunate for them.

Speaking about our real-life experiences, we can only regret their smugness and notice the grip of their personal predator. Because it is partially thanks to this process of detoxification that the predatory corpus releases its energetic hold on our biology, allowing our cellular memoirs to release themselves.

By rejecting the meat-based food diet, the ketosis, the iodine, the fast and the "Knowledge" which is proposed to them, they can never really understand "the sense of the illusion" in which they persist in living, because the work of the authentic researcher of the truth comes true by integrating the Knowledge, by experimenting the information which is proposed and certainly not by remaining limited by beliefs.

The real researcher is going to verify by himself if a knowledge possesses any value (we call it an epistemological approach).

To neglect the importance of our physicality in this path of evolution is a serious mistake because it too participates in this Transition. Our body is the continuation of the Consciousness which expresses itself through it and its senses.

Let us remind ourselves that the Consciousness creates the gravitation, which the latter changes our consciousness! (It implies that our body too, is the result of gravitation and that if our body changed (hormones, DNA, cells, psyche), our consciousness evolves !

Why is that?

The atom is a material particle coming from an immaterial wave. It is omniscient in 1-2-3rd density and constitutes the essential element which, thanks to gravitation, becomes circumstances and demonstrations when it is generated by a consciousness of 4th density.

It means that the human being of 3rd density was repressed through his genetics by the STS of 4th density to prevent him from perceiving the frequency of the atom which vibrates in parallel dimensions.

The individual who underlines a proud stubbornness highlights the influence of the predator who manipulates his spirit, preventing him from contacting his real nature.

"There are only the fools who do not change their mind."

Nevertheless, we also must specify that "probably everybody" doesn't have to push the experience as far as we did. Everyone is free of choice. But one thing's for sure, those who do not experiment the synergy between the meat-based food diet, the prolonged ketosis, detoxification with the iodine and the intermittent fasting do not know what they are talking about!

We also specify that we are neither doctors nor scientists, despite Jenaël's prerequisite of male nurse and practitioner of irrigation of the colon. That is why we can only speak about our concrete and tangible experiences.

We determined that our food practice is necessary to develop a specific genetic preparing us for a potential of future which will be our own.

In our humble opinion and epigenetically, the meat-based diet - Keto-iodine-fast, contributes to find back and then repair the genetics of the primordial human being (of the Namlú'u STO) who lived before the introduction of agriculture. And only while rediscovering these essential genetics, he was possible for us to develop our DNA of Urmah and to join our center of thought of the future resulting from Leonis.

Thus, it is obvious that this "LEO" diet is not for all ! Many individuals will choose to develop the genetic programs of Greys, K'sil, Pleiadeans, Orion's reptilians and many other stellar lineages.

Everyone is able of deciding today of his potential after his human life in 3rd density, of his future of tomorrow. And he will make it according to his galactic lineage of origin and the one that he will choose to join.

In the dialogue n° 43, the Angel had revealed that he does not always reveal us his small secrets so that we can learn by ourselves. And it was once again the case by experimenting the synergy of extended ketosis with vitamin C and the iodine.

We had to detect the "genic halo" effect of iodine in the depths of the microbiology of our cells to understand it. Thus, we guarantee that this "therapeutic and synergic association", is by far the one which carries most effects on the development of the "spiritual consciousness of the spirit", which we have been brought to know until now.

We have to warn all the same that on the physical plan, that of the physical wellbeing, this "extreme" therapy can lift at key moments of our transformation, quantity of unwanted effects, faintness, abdominal and feeding rolls, sometimes symptoms so strange we remain unable to describe them or to name the reasons. We spent so to speak long moments, "under the impression to float above our legs", being out of the axis or feeling dreadful dizziness, long stays in the toilets... and there are very good reasons for this !"

Jenaël relates:

As I watch very closely my physiological reactions and the changes in my body because of our very particular diet, I weigh myself almost every day. And since we began the intermittent fasting, by not eating more than a big meal in 24 hours, my weight had stabilized for several weeks between 65.9 kg and 65.2 kg (at the great minimum).

Only two days ago from the time when I write these lines, I was at the very worst, subject to dreadful dizziness again. And this time, it was clear in me. It was a question of many emotional releases about memories of fears which went back to my consciousness. Knowing that the emotional results from a chain of chemical and hormonal reactions in our body, I perceived how my fears "deconstructed and released themselves by means of functions of the liver and their evacuation by gases and saddles.

What did it happen?

When Sand was crossed off from the list of the job-seekers, she had obviously no more claims to her unemployment benefits. As we had learnt "how to trust", I had not realized that we were in a very critical financial situation.

I didn't care how we were going to pay our rent, to go shopping, to pay the electricity, internet and how we were going to meet our needs.

But on the other hand, I had the inner conviction that some way or another we would be supported so that we could continue to work in the Service to Others, via "the dialogues with our Angel" and the LEO network.

How ? At the moment we have no idea.

However, from the moment I really began to "integrate" the precariousness of our situation, I was taken by violent rolls in the right sub-costal side and lumbar vertebrae, followed by nauseating flatulence to the point that I had to lay down. Then my vision began to swirl, until it became impossible to stabilize my field of vision. I was in the grip of dreadful dizziness. The night which followed did not gave any respite.

During some moments of sleep, I had a kind of vision. I knew that the Angel delivered me informations.

I saw the picture of a Crucifixion. Of the side drilled by the Spear of Longinus, leaked a thick, black and viscous blood, which was collected in the cup of the Grail.

<http://causes.centerblog.net/122--LA-LANCE-DE-LONGINUS>

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Longinus>

Somebody explained to me then: Even if Jesus did not exist, the crucifixion of the Christ still holds an essential teaching, bequeathed by the planners. It symbolizes the difficulty of the progress of the candidate in the Service to Others and supplies invaluable information for his passage in 4th density STO.

The Way of the Cross is a metaphor of all the initiatory events which you went through during your life until today. And the spear piercing the side of the Christ, symbolizes the pouring outside the body of all emotional memories - thus cellular - accumulated during the life on Earth.

The cup, which according to the legend, collected the blood of the Christ, is the Holy Grail. The Grail represents all the memories of embodiment which are resolved before the Transition into the 4th density. It is the image of the freed beliefs, giving way to Knowledge.

Having made these revelations, the Being showed me a kind of movie, scenes of my own life.

I saw one by one my teachers, "my initiators".

All the people who had made me suffer, mistreated, punished, insulted, reprimanded, humiliated, sanctioned were present. They were all there ! I again saw the most difficult scenes of my life, all the injustices of which I had been victim of.

My math teacher of 6th grade, the director of the middle school, all the bosses who had fired me, the sergeant of the army... Then came the bundle of my superiors of the hospitable circles where I worked, the operating blocks where I invested myself until total exhaustion.

And there I understood ! They had become zombies. During their life, they had stayed real psychopaths. Full of themselves, suffering of their illusions, of the need to be recognized and their "internal" loneliness, some had found an escape in their work. Others, in a compulsive need to shine and "become somebody" or to make money to the detriment of the respect for others.

All of them had played the executioner's role to me because like me, they had suffered a lot to learn! As to me, throughout their whole life, tests were proposed to them. Where are they today? Many probably already left this world.

The Consciousness which showed me these footages of life, accompanied me then in a dream :

I had returned to the operating block after ten years of absence, I had to get dressed to enter the operating room, but it was impossible to roll up my sleeves. I had forgotten to remove my big jumper before disinfecting my hands. I began then to undress, removing at first my smock of block, my jumper, my pyjamas then put a mask and shoes covers. Then a colleague, the oldest nurse of the block, passed by me without saying a word, disinfected her hands and entered the operating block to replace me.

The Being beside me tells me then: You will not need to roll up your sleeves to return to the slaughter anymore. This time is past for you. All your memories are going "to dissolve" and you will soon perceive the effects.

The next day I woke up, but it was still impossible to spot my surroundings. I reached the toilets with great difficulty and " expelled" thick, black and viscous saddles by thinking of the Crucifixion and its blood which flowed of his liver.

I knew that my saddles contained the "cellular residues" which maybe for years, had remained hung on the intestinal villus. And from the moment I expelled them, I began to perceive my environment which stabilized again.

Having eliminated nearly 1 kg of "waste of cellular memories" in a few hours, I weighed no more than 64 kg.

Had the Cassiopeans not announced that to pass in 4th density, we are going to lose some density?

Other synchronicity, in answer to a reader about Daniel Meurois, we had made a spelling mistake that a warned and watchful reader and kindly recovered. Instead of "Annales Akkachiques/Akashic Records ", was written "anal akkachiques/ Akashic anals".

<http://www.reseauleo.com/2016/05/24/question-15-j%C3%A9sus-yeshua-le-christ/>

It is thanks to this reader who revealed us this mistake that we understood the symbolism which hid itself behind our thoughtlessness.

What a joker our Angel!

Since we reached our 9 drops of iodine, we are almost "cyclically" subjected to nauseating diarrheas and intestinal problems (sorry for the details, but it has its importance). And we made the link with the time when dimensional attacks took place. Whether it is with the predation which expressed itself through Crist' al Chaya, the predator Draco of "C" or the corpuses acting within the framework of Pôle Emploi, these attacks affecting our emotional, also seemed to act violently in our body, especially the liver and the colon. We had a ball in the stomach!

It is known that fear can act on the digestive system, as well as anger affects the liver. Thus, we owed to know more about it and asked the question to our Angel.

Question to our Angel :

Why are we at present in the grip of these recurring abdominal and hepatic inflammations?

We suspect the association ketosis - vitamins C - iodine.

Are we exceeding the posology ?

The "aNaI" akkachiques / Akashic records are an indication! (See the 2nd commentary)

www.resealeo.com/2016/05/24/question-15-j%C3%A9sus-yeshua-lechrist/\*commentsModule8251530186

The abdominal pains result from the synergic effect between the ketosis, the vitamin C and the iodine. To understand well what's happening to you at the moment, remember that during your vegetarian phase, sugar acted like a narcotic in the physiology of your body. Today, the absence of these carbohydrates wakes your real sensibility even to the cellular level. It means that the cellular membrane mute much more quickly.

It expels more effectively the obsolete residues / programs corresponding to your reptilian memories and which are contained in your " STS genetics".

These accelerations occur during certain phases of your internal work and your awareness's, and lead at times to violent inflammatory pains due to the Herxheimer syndrome.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jarisch%E2%80%93Herxheimer\_reaction

Also, thanks to the properties of the vitamin C, the cellular membrane is reconstituted much more quickly.

To understand its role well, know that it is conceived to receive and absorb the genetic programs emitted by the cosmic rays which surround you. This membrane is in a way made of cosmos-genetic receivers who have for function to release the cellular DNA of its old programs and to receive new codes to authorize the DNA by the intervention of the RNA to integrate it into its genetics.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/RNA>

And it is what the researchers in epigenetic are about to confirm.

The cellular memories are cosmos-genetic imprints. They determine your physical and psychological activity for all your life. In other words, they hold the Intelligence of the Universe and express it through your body.

The cellular memories hold your past (Akashic Records and karma). It is the same for your personal future, the one that you already are creating at the moment in your present.

The cosmogenetic imprint and of what we call our "cellular memory" are one and the same thing. It is a field of memories embedded in one another, from the beginning of the Universe up to the parental memories, including the memory of stars, of our galaxy, of the solar system, of the phylogenesis, of the entire humanity, of our societies, and of our ancestors. All this is registered in our cells at birth, and that reveals a unique plan which concerns us individually. When a child is born, she receives by gravitation a printing of the structure of the solar system, which is a living body. In other words, this child is "bombarded" by a package of information coming from the Intelligence of the Universe. And this printing comes "to reframe" the already present genetic engram before the birth.
<http://www.resealeo.com/2016/06/06/astrologie-mémoires-cellulaires/>

You possessed thus so far in your DNA a program to experiment life in 3rd density. However, you have to transform and re-polarize these "memories", in other words your old frequencies of energy, if you feel called to direct your existence towards the Service to Others "STO", by downloading new "cosmic programs", which are the ones which will propel you on your future new temporal line.

The human body being a densified projection of the Soul in a world of 3rd or 4th density, it expresses an extremely polarized part of the universal Intelligence which is embodied in a biological vehicle.

At present, this cellular depolarization affects you and sometimes wakes up symptoms or sufferings to which you have been exposed to in your human and transdimensional past.

Walking towards the Awakening can sometimes be painful and affect the physicality of your body. By learning to listen to your superior Consciousness, you become really aware of who you are and of what you really are as a human being in the cosmos. Because it is a question of Being before thinking of making. Learn to manifest the Intelligence of the Universe in order to become!

And this intelligence of the Universe is today within the reach of those who make the effort to look for the Knowledge. This Knowledge is almost offered to you. It passes by the integration and the release of your diseases, the restoration of your genetics, and by the regeneration of the physical body beyond what you can conceive for the moment.

The association: Meat-based food - ketosis-iodine-fast and your internal shaman quest as describe it Sand and Helene, is the key to your passage in 4th density of consciousness. Thus, I deeply encourage you to continue this way and to keep spreading the information. Those who have to receive it shall receive it!

Finally, we cannot escape the multi-dimensional stakes which affect our reality, and which are proposed to us by the predatory corpus.

Thus, it is important to become aware that the Knowledge is everywhere. Trough the emotional, the food, the loops of retrocausality of the karma, the quantum physics, up to the ufology because it deals with extraneans worlds. And these worlds of the past-future result from our way of managing our emotional. Therefore, we handle these multiple subjects which concern us all intimately.
