

Message of scientists of free worlds
(on the occasion of the events of Fukushima)

My friends from planet Earth, so many worries assault your thoughts. The moment has come to reveal yourselves to yourself. We are going to suggest to stimulate your divine gifts in order to welcome serenely the radioactive cloud that is starting to cover the planet.

Radioactivity is a powerful energy of depolarisation intended in bringing humanity towards plans of reality that are very harmful for his evolution.

The archons of the dark light have used the properties of radioactivity to slow-down the personal journey of the soul. This programme has been elaborated by these belligerent beings in order to trap your planet irreversibly and to limitate its evolution to lower astral plans.

However, if you do not let yourselves overwhelmed by fear by managing to raise your conscience, this radioactivity will not have an important repercussion on your physical and etheric bodies.

Do not fear it since as energy Being, you have in a manner of speaking the capacity to also make yourselves anti-radioactive. Everything will depend of your beliefs and of how you look at these events.

This atomic explosion has brought forward the terrestrial energy-giving modifications already in progress. It has accelerated deep down into its DNA, the potential of mutation of humanity that will pursue until its modification of conscience.

You have already been warned, this mutation is engaged for some time already. Obviously, the events have taken an unexpected direction. No one was expecting for that kind of attack. It has however been organised by a faction of transdimensional predators in the United-States, by way of political reprisals towards the ones of the East.

Nevertheless, despite all of the attempts of the patriarchal elites to maintain the low frequencies on your planet Earth, this one continues to accumulate the cosmic radiations and to raise its vibrating frequencies in replying immutably to the great law of universal evolution.

Thereby, it raises naturally with itself, the beings in resonance with this rising energy, the one of the Ascension towards superior plans of conscience.

You, the craftsmen of the New World, have come to bring your conscience awakening that opens a magnetic corridor holding a future timeline up unscathed of harmful atomic fallouts. You open the way, and in these circumstances become guides, first for yourselves, and then for the others. Start by becoming the masters and students of yourselves before being able to claim becoming one for your fellow-being.

From now on the moment has come to use this gift, the moment has come to develop your capacities. You contain in yourselves, the necessary resources to regenerate the biosphere and transmute these nuclear radiations that spread on planet Earth.

With this, my friend Christine coming from an other plan of reality, appeared in my mind. This is what she told me :

I invite you to play of the magic wand that you all possess. This magic wand is the conscience motivated by the service to the planet, and your hands.

Even if other tools will be given to you all in good time, you can already activate this gift by the simple intention of transmutation and healing that you transfer into water that you hold between your hands.

Drink some or pour it into the rivers, on your food or onto yourselves with the intention of decontaminating yourselves in having the conviction that this one has the property to transmute radioactivity into beneficial energy-information.

Take it as a game and entertain yourselves during your walks. By this action, you will help yourselves to reconnect to the vibration of planet Earth and of Mother Nature. By your pure intention, you will allow to restore balance of depolarised energy engendered by radioactivity.

You hardly have to do more for the moment. It is no use in involving yourselves by other means to accompanying planet Earth in its healing like for instance in making circulate or by signing petitions, protesting, fighting against nuclear power.

This has never helped you to anything, except in diverting yourselves from your real potential.

The fight and protest marches are only strengthening the egregor of fear, developed by the fallouts of this explosion and therefore serving the plan of the dark light.

I am making here a slight digression. Many of your fellow citizens have recently signed a petition demanding to the U.N to take action in Libya. You have as a consequence given the tacit authorisation to your occult governments, being in the Anunnakis archons pay, to use the weapons and to cause a war. Generating by this action a climate of fear in this country.

This is exactly what the archons of the dark light were searching for. They have spread fear, terror and panic...in order that dense emotions develop themselves in the form of egregores and engender low frequencies in an environment in which they can continue to survive and even to please themselves.

These beings that are not humans and that for many of them evolve on invisible plans, can not subsist if the frequencies of energy are too high. By protesting, you have given them your consent (your energy), giving them in this way a new opportunity to delude yourselves.

Since when is U.N serving for peace ? It is impossible to offer peace weapons in hands. By rejecting the voice of discernment, men that use strength and violence will not be able to realise their transition.

Think about the act that you take before signing any petition or before acting against something. Ask yourselves the question if you are not instead delegating your own sovereignty to an external authority ?

You are the sovereign authority of your own. It might be time to remember it.

You are divine beings and you can even express it as of now in your own reality.

Receive from me my most beautiful vibrations of peace.

Christine has barely finished her transmission that many blue orbs are crossing my kitchen. That is when a being presented itself and starts to transmit through my conscience.

Here is:

You have just received an information to neutralise the radioactive emanations that are spreading after the Fukushima disaster. I come to you now, in order to explain to you summarily how you can act in these circumstances.

As you may have noticed it, I come to you in the form of an orb, a ball of blue light. Orbs are spheres that appear in the size of a hazelnut and can go until one of a football ball, even more sometimes.

They form bubbles of energy that vibrate at independent and distinct frequencies from the one of your vibrating environment, they are vessels of energy.

This type of sphere is used by our scientists in order to absorb and transmute the excess of radioactivity coming from the leaks of nuclear installations.

It is a technology that we use since the era of Lemuria. We proceed in a vibratory encoding of these spheres, that themselves own their proper conscience-intelligence. They have the same role as the molecules of water in your dimension.

These spheres are spread by our care on the radioactive particles in order to transmute and lift them beyond the destructive vibrating frequencies, just like the one of fear.

When you lift sufficiently your conscience and that you enter in resonance with these spheres of higher vibration, you will not be affected by the toxicity of these radioactive matters.

Individuals overwhelmed by fear, having no faith in the sovereignty of their being, will indeed be affected by these noxious effects of radioactivity and will be constrained, in a future more or less distant, to give their physical bodies up and pass by the process of death. The soul will in this way have to experiment other frequencies in transitional dimensions that will correspond better to its evolution.

But those of you who are already conscious of your magic, have been voluntary to live and accompany humanity in this great transition towards new horizons. So, continue to work in elevating your consciences.

Despite the appearances, the beings of the dark light, by their actions, oblige you indirectly to question yourselves. Irony of fate is that they will be collecting, them as well, the result of their misdeeds, since they have also accelerated their own process of reincarnation in a world more adapted to their low frequencies.

By the universal law of cause and effect, the ones that are behind these acts of horror will also in turn, experiment the damages of radioactivity and store the memories of their experiences up to their cells and their genetic.

Accompany them of your compassion, as their karmic experience will probably be much more long and painful than yours.
