

The mission of the incarnated angels

Hello everybody,

I come to share two quite singular transmissions that I had yesterday. I remind you that I relay according to my filters, but what I have received moved me deeply, especially from a being that I was not expecting.

This week, I went through the experience of sadness and of questioning on my emotional state. During more than two weeks, I gave a friend a helping hand to clear and renovate a land that he just bought.

[*We will see later that the friend in question was Philippe the Bel-je.]

Everyday while I was going to this “workplace”, I felt in myself a huge heaviness and sadness that was invading my body and my soul. I was going to work as I needed money in order to repair my old van. But I felt that I was going there regretfully. It was not because I did not like this work, but I became aware that it was sending me back to big sufferings and sadness of being misunderstood, betrayed and rejected from my family of my “passed” life.

(I had to clear my land and build in major parts, from my “own hands”, in order to make it possible for my ex-wife and my children to have a house that was ours, to then see the “events” taking me back the work of thirty years of labour and to find myself today coming down in “surviving” from casual works...)

Besides, as I was burying my head in the sand, my right arm which already had had a few preliminary symptoms, started to swell, and a huge branch from the dead tree that I was sawing violently injured my left arm.

So here I am in front of my keyboard, my two arms aching. I could feel that there was a reason in sharing my confusion. As I am aware that each event that I live is a fractal of terrestrial events, obviously “seen” by my own filter, I layed down and asked to have some answers.

My friend Christine then came into my consciousness and told me: write please.

The answer to your question belongs to you but I come to tell you that your emotional state is also linked to something much more wide.

You have written it down a bit earlier, you also feel the emotional state of humanity. If you were able to see it, you could see an unrelenting ocean by a storm of uncertainties, fears and questionings.

-Where is heading humanity?

I offer you an image. Humanity is in a dead-end, in front of a wall. It is the wall of its own prison. However, the prison is the extreme spot to think about the consequences of its own acts, it is the ideal place to question itself, and to take the lessons of its own experiences.

Imagine yourself that the agents of the “non light” are the prison guards, they also play their role.

Imagine yourself that humanity has to serve its sentence until 2012.

However, the individual is not humanity. Each human being as an individual, can benefit from a remission of sentence for good conduct.

So it belongs to each individual, to open his heart, to recover his freedom, his remission of sentence.

Grief is the feeling that every human being feels in this end of time.

End of time is linked to the awareness of each human being.

Every human being can choose to question himself, to choose its freedom.

However, he can also choose to rebel himself against his prison guards, to refuse to question himself, and stay in his prison.

This choice belongs to him, you have to respect it.

As much as you have to respect the choice of your parents, of your children, of your ancient world.

This is the true meaning of the word “Love”, respect each being in their choice.

The sadness that you feel, symbolized by your “powerless arms” towards the ones you love, is the emotion that paralyses yourself. It is also this sadness that paralyses yourselves, human angels. As you have the impression of being useless.

All of you be reassured, this impression is due only to the illusion of the matrix in which you have been volunteers to incarnate yourselves.

Your work is spectacular beyond the illusion of the matrix. The moment will come where you will greet every human being at the exit of their prison of illusion.

You have been “trained” for this, throughout your own life experiences.

You have been volunteers in order to participate in the awakening of this world, but you are not from this world.

By reading again what has been dictated to me... I burst into tears.

I come also to repeat, my support and my tenderness towards you and towards the human angels, as well as the one of all my brothers from the below ground for the work that you are creating on your beautiful planet Earth.

Yesterday, I gave myself a small hour of meditation and images came up to my consciousness.

What presented itself in front of me, were the eyes of a being that I recognized as being the ones of a Dracos.

It is a hominoidea being with wings of a bat, very similar to the traditional representation of the “devil” according to a few people who have met them.

This being, despite of what I know and of what is engraved in the human beings’ unconscious, appeared however like having a rather positive vibration.

I asked him what brought his presence to me.

He answers me:

I know that you can sense me, as I appear in a vibration which is the one that you refer as the 4th density.

I come to you to deliver a message that you may not have heard about.

Some of us “Dracos”, have become marginal resistance fighters of our people, because we have developed, thanks to human beings in which our consciousnesses are incarnated, something that you name compassion and gratitude.

We still do not have the exact idea of what it means, but we have refused to continue of abusing human beings and we have moved away from our peers.

Our consciousnesses are doing the experience of evolution throughout the ability that we have in projecting our own consciousnesses in the humans’ beings psyche.

The psyche of the human being is capable of doing the experience of duality, of good and evil, this thanks to the splitting of the two hemispheres of the humans’ being brain.

Even though our brain is made up of four parts, it is not designed for that type of functioning. On the other hand, it allows us to have access to other abilities, to evolve in different vibratory plans under different physical forms.

For example this leaves us able to “supplant” the humans’ being appearance that our consciousness inhabits.

You call this: the multiple personality.

We can also project in your consciousnesses images or messages such as the one that you are receiving currently. We also have other abilities that are beyond your understanding.

Nevertheless, I come to you, to express a precise request.

Many of you already know that the creator beings of the incarnated humanity, that you call Elohim or Kadistu, are also, for some of us, our creators but through a genetic process. However, we have not received during our creation, contrary to the humans homo-sapiens-sapiens, the Kiristi gene. But this gene begins to become active in ourselves through a process of vibratory transmission, thanks to the experience that we live, by inhabiting the consciousness of a human being.

So I come to tell you today, something that was impossible for me to say a few thousand years ago. This something... we did not know what that meant.

We did not know!

This something, we have learnt about it thanks to human beings.

This something is the word... Thank you.

Thank you for being our own guardian angels.

Thank you for making possible the experience of duality throughout your consciousness.

Thank you for having accepted to assume your role of “double human being”.

Thank you for having taught us in how to become Christs.

Even if it can shock you, like all of you, we are also on a path of evolution, even though some of our peers refuse in taking the path towards the New Earth.

That is why I give all of you a warning, do not ever trust the appearances of beings that you will happen to meet, even if they do have the appearance of an angel.

As I have told you before, we have the ability of deluding you, but we do not have the power of deceiving a Christ (a Kiristi).

So, just as Jenaël, to whom I am transmitting this message, has dared to do it, feel the vibration with your heart, your body and your cells and continue to trust the Christlike being that you are.

You are our guardian angels, we have been your shadows. And we thank you from the bottom of our souls.

Here again I burst into tears... I feel what has just been said and realize that the illusion in which I am locked in, is still resistant.

I realize also that even throughout certain channels and “Noodle Age” texts, well... there is still some sorting out to make...

That is all for today, kisses to everyone...
