

A new sun is rising

&

The consciousness of the multiple possibilities

Since a certain period of time I have experiences of a new kind... I tell you.

Quite often, it happens to myself in my day an “attack of exhaustion” very sudden and intense which obliges me to lay myself down.

In this way, when I lay myself down on my stomach and that I put the side of my head on the pillow, a phenomenon happens which could seem strange. Behind my eyelids shapes itself a sort of circular screen without any defined contour.

I then have the impression that this screen comes from the occipital bottom of my skull, and materializes itself not in front of my eyes but behind my eyelids.

This demonstration always starts with the appearance of colors, generally purple, then suddenly I see scenes of life that present themselves in front of me. However, I do not have any control on what I see. It is like if I was going to the cinema without knowing which film I was going to watch.

Recently, I thereby saw myself walking in a pine tree forest behind the legs of a person dressed with light canvas trousers, and hiking shoes. However I only saw her height, her legs and her feet.

Another time, I saw myself in a rather modern kitchen, in front of a young woman that I did not know at all, who was washing dishes.

“I” could get myself closer to her eyes, to her nose, from very close. I could see up to her hair, then moving myself away to look at her from further away. I saw her clothes, her feet with flip-flops, her general look. However no element would allow me to identify clearly the place, the moment, nor the person that I was seeing.

Therefore, no need to go to the cinema anymore, the incursions in my bed became moments of enjoyable curiosity.

This Sunday morning at my waking, once again I remember having seen suns of different sizes, planets, galaxies, etc...I also have the memory of a “consciousness” that was not my incarnated consciousness, that was handing over some “concepts” and information to myself which I could not know.

I therefore installed myself in front of a piece of paper and tonight, I transcribe what has been dictated to me :

Since a few years, your astronomers have noticed different celestial objects of which some of them are just about to penetrate your solar system.

Maybe have you heard about the ascent of Jupiter, of its transformation in a dwarf star, a new sun ? Maybe have you heard about the arrival of a planet that your specialists name planet X, Nibiru, Sedna... or the approach of a comet (Elenin).

I come to reveal to you that it is not the matter of a single reality, but of a potential of multiple realities perceived according to the vibratory state of the observer.

As all of you, incarnated angels, are in a passage between your ancient reality and a new vibratory dimension. You are starting slowly but surely to “perceive with your eyes”, events or experiences that are taking place in simultaneous vibrating existences.

For the moment you only have access to it in a very furtive way, as your body, especially your neuronal network, adapts itself only progressively to these new realities. This is due to the mutation in progress in your genome that happens softly, in order to avoid a psychological impact that could unsettle yourselves.

Lets talk first about the new sun which, according to certain specialists, would result from the transformation of Jupiter into a dwarf star accompanied by other numerous celestial bodies.

In reality, if I may say so, it is not about a transformation but about two different vibratory states, and this perceptible according to the observer’s vibratory state.

I explain myself :

Some astronomers see Jupiter according to their 3D vision like on the satellite pictures with 3D instruments and their 3D intellectual restrictions.

However amongst the astronomers, some having opened their consciousness, are starting to distinguish on numerical shots with numerical telescopes or even with their own eyes, a new celestial object beside your sun, at the break of day.

Soon, this object will become more and more visible with your eyes. It is a momentary twin of Jupiter (this planet X that passes currently in front of Jupiter and that accompanies all of you during the grand transition).

Know that it is all of your solar system that will be adjusted in the new vibratory dimension that you name 5D.

Your sun that you all know, will always stay present on the New Earth.

The two suns of differentiated frequencies, will coexist simultaneously.

The two worlds, the two earths, will coexist in close frequencies but different.

So what will happen in your new reality ?

The new Sun and Jupiter, both of them in superior frequencies, are part of the New Earth since the beginning. This last one also exists, if I also may say so, since always, as it “develops” itself simultaneously on an other vibrating ground of existence (or in an other time-related existence) of which all of you are only starting to be aware of.

However for your limited human consciousness, this concept of new suns appears to you as a movement of evolution. It is not your solar system that is evolving, but it is your vibration that will soon make it possible to see the world and your universe in a new way.

Your solar system is also changing of vibratory plan, which implies a bilocation in 3D and 5D in a simultaneous way of all the planets of your system.

As the sun that all of you know, makes it possible for you to activate your DNA in order that this one produces in your morphogenetical field, a vibration that will attract the necessary experiences to your 3D of incarnation, with the possibilities of “enduring” the experiences that your soul has chosen for your evolution.

This choice has therefore demonstrated itself in your life, in an unconscious way (via a default program, if we can compare this to your computer science technology).

It is the role of the sun to activate this “default” program. It generates the energies of multiple possibilities that your soul chooses. All of you therefore do the unconscious experience of the victim-executioner-saviour triad (the illusion of incarnation), until all of you become aware of it.

Try to integrate deeply what has just been said before reading further on.

The new Sun and Jupiter that the new consciousness will recognize as the suns of the New Earth, will allow to experiment the consciousness of multiple possibilities.

What does that mean ?

These new suns will generate a vibratory field on other plans, that for the moment still, you imagine as superior, and that is difficult for you to apprehend.

However, these new suns of 5th density, already coexist with your current sun of 3rd density. But if it is perceived from a consciousness of 3rd density, Jupiter has still not become a sun. You can only see it in your sleep or while a moment of non-attendance when you are awake.

It is for example during these stages, between two states of consciousness, that in a nearby future, you will be able to emit the wish to live such and such situation, meet such and such person, or to “dive” yourselves into the scene that you will have chosen.

The life on the New Earth will at that moment be an aware co-creation between your ego and your soul. You are going to live the voluntary partnership with your soul.

When you will be out of your unconscious outlines of executioner-victim-saviour and from your karma experiences, your soul and your ego will celebrate a “divine” wedding. It is this becoming sovereign of yourselves.

Now I will talk about what you call planet Nibiru or planet X.

Nibiru is not a planet like you can imagine it or how Zecharia Sitchin imagined it.

Your scientists mistake Nibiru and Neb-Heru which is the name that the sumerians have given to Jupiter in its ascending dimension.

Nibiru or whatever how you call it, is a mother-ship of 4th density belonging to the ones that you name the Anunnaki archons, the fallen angels, the patriarchal elite of the caste of the predators. But it is not really question of a planet like planet Earth.

This celestial body crosses over your solar system every 26000 years approximately according to your terrestrial calculation mode, at the end of a human cycle. It penetrates all of the orbital device of the planets of your system, by cutting it according to a slanted plan.

This planetary mother-ship by its trajectory and its magnetic field, leads to duality. It is the home of the fallen angels who have made it possible for you to do the grand experience of duality and separation.

These beings, your brothers of the dark light, are going to go back “in the past” towards their planet of origin. They take with them all of their memories of duality of humanity as they have lived in this cycle, their experiences through you.

I invite all of you to thank them and greet them.

This ship will come back in a new space-time in order that new souls may experiment duality. Because your universe is cyclic, with no beginning nor end. Meanwhile, this object will get in contact around the end of the year with the magnetic energy of planet Earth.

It will then generate a gigantic electromagnetic field that will have for effect to make resurge all of the crystalline/karma memories of your planet. And at very long term, this magnetic frequency will transmute and make disappear all of the material creations of low frequencies coming from the human psyche - inventions of 3rd density (concrete, plastic, asphalt, nylon, chemical materials, chemical pollution...) in order to make it possible for the New Humanity to emerge on a “vibratory virgin ground”.

The Atlantis and Lemuria saga repeats itself in order that certain humans can be able to join the galactical consciousness.

You are the adventurers of the New World, the pioneers of the New Earth. You have been the explorers of the most extreme density that the soul can inhabit and you will find again who you are. You are heroes. All of you be greatly thanked.

The one that is talking to you, does not name himself, I am not somebody. I Am !

Receive and welcome now all of the gratitude and love that belong to you.

I am all of you, all of you are myself.

Transmitted by Jenaël